Knox Woman Lives 64 Years in Same House

Mrs. Catharine Larrew (inset) and her home.

By Times Special
LA PORTE, Ind., Oct. 5.—Moving day holds no terrors for Mrs. Catharine Larrew, "the grand old lady," of Knox, Ind. For nearly sixty-four years she has lived in the same house and she hopes to celebrate her hundredth birthday there.

Born in Milford County, Pa., in 1844, she came as a young girl to Stark County and after a few years on a farm moved in 1862 to the house she has since occupied. Her husband died in 1898 and though she has four sons and a daughter, Mrs. Larrew still maintains her home.

"For a girl of 81," she said, "I'm fine. I do all my own house work, cook and bake and read the paper without glasses."
