

FOUNTAIN UPON SQUARE BRINGS MR. FIXIT NOTE

Contractors Will Be Forced to Mend Leaks, It Is Found.

Let Mr. Fixit help you prevent complaints to municipal officials. He is the Times representative at the city hall. Write him at The Times.

What is Fountain Square with a fountain that leaks, inquires a correspondent of Mr. Fixit today.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: The new fountain at Fountain Square has been dry for some time because of leaks. Can this be remedied? What good is a fountain without water?

FOUNTAIN SQUARE.

The street commissioner's department found leaks in many parts of the foundation and base and inspectors are of the opinion that the square fountain was not built on the square. The contractors will be forced to correct the condition.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: Will you kindly see what you can do for White River Blvd. between Washington St. and Oliver Ave? It is full of big holes, so many of them it's impossible to dodge them all. Will you please appreciate anything you can do to improve this condition.

TIMES READER AND TAXPAYER.

The department of improved streets will inspect this location within the next few days.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: The alley between 219 and 225 S. Trowbridge Ave., also the alley in the rear of this address, is impassable after heavy rains and during winter months. It's impossible for the garbage man to get through.

CITY TAXPAYER.

W. P. Hargan, clerk of the street commissioner's office, will authorize an immediate investigation. He also will send an inspector to correct the following complaint:

DEAR MR. FIXIT: I live at 2125 Barrett Ave. Last spring this street was scraped in such a manner as to cause water to stand continually in front of 2125 and 2127. After rains the water backs up over the cement walk leading into the house. Anything you can do to correct this will

"THE FOUNDATION OF HIS HEALTH"

Among the thousands who have publicly expressed indebtedness to Tanlac for normal weight, health and strength, is A. R. White, who recently said: "The foundation for my present excellent health was laid by Tanlac. For months I had been rundown. I had lost all enjoyment for food and suffered great discomfort from indigestion. My liver was sluggish and that tired feeling was on me all the time. "Three bottles of Tanlac relieved my troubles and started me off with a system so thoroughly toned up and renewed that I soon found myself feeling like a new man."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute.

Ask Dad—See If He Knows

Father and mother are always thinking of your welfare—there isn't a thing within reason they wouldn't do for you. But they may unknowingly have been risking your life every day.

When you are at dinner tonight with dad, ask him this question:

"Dad, is our school firesafe?"

Perhaps he won't be able to answer—he may not know.

Ask dad if he knows that somewhere in the country a schoolhouse burns every day. Ask him if he knows that one-third of all the schoolhouses in the country are nothing better than firetraps—maybe your school is one of them.

Of course dad knows that buildings can be built that will not burn. They are being built everywhere, every day.

If your school is firesafe, you're lucky. If it isn't, ask dad what he is going to do about it. You have a right to know.

The highest type of firesafe construction is concrete. Our illustrated booklet "Concrete Schoolhouses" contains a wealth of information on firesafe construction with which every parent ought to be familiar. Write today for your free copy.

R. E. THOMPSON.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: Between Fifty-First and Sixty-First Sts., there are no fire alarm boxes. Will you please see that the fire chief places them up there?

E. J. Fire Chief John J. O'Brien and the board of safety agree with you. John Berry, electrical engineer for the board, will investigate the situation next week with a view of installing three or four boxes, the board decided.

TO MRS. HAMACHER: The street commissioner's department will make an investigation of the flooded condition of Beecher St.

MILK PRICE GOES UP

General Increase Expected After Polk Company Announcement.

A general increase in the retail price of milk is expected following the announcement of the Polk Sanitary Milk Company that it would increase the retail price 1 cent a bottle on milk, buttermilk and cream Thursday. The step was necessary because of the general shortage of butter fat and the consequent high price, according to officials of milk companies.

The new price scale to go into effect Thursday is: Milk, pints, 8 cents; quarts, 13 cents; cream, pints, 28 cents; half pints, 14 cents; buttermilk, quarts, 11 cents; nursery milk, quarts, 17 cents; pints, 10 cents.

TWO PERFECT STUDENTS

Indianapolis Represented in Honor Group at U. of I.

By Times Special

URBANA-CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 7.—Two students from Indianapolis made perfect grades in all their courses at the University of Illinois last year. It was announced today.

Out of the nearly 10,000 students who attended the Urbana department of the University last year, only seventy-six made this perfect average. Those from Indianapolis made perfect grades were: Frankie Byrne, 5912 Central Ave., and Bernice A. Boner, 25 Maple St.

TAG DAY O. K. WITH CITY

Saturday Is Date Set for Annual Forget-Me-Not Day.

Saturday has been set aside by the city as the official Forget-Me-Not day for the benefit of the Disabled Veterans of the World War. Money obtained from the drive will be used in giving aid to the families of disabled veterans who are now unable to "carry on" because of their disabilities.

The Delta Gamma Sorority of Butler University has pledged twenty workers for the occasion. Other volunteers are requested to get in touch with the D. A. V. committee, 16 E. Michigan St.

PASTOR-ENGINEER DIES

COLUMBUS, Ind., Oct. 7.—Funeral services for Rev. George Rader, 62, pastor of the Christian Church, were being arranged today. He died suddenly Tuesday night. In addition to being pastor, he was city engineer for Columbus and Beech Grove.

ONE ROOM APARTMENT IS POPULAR

Individuality and Taste May Be Expressed Even in Small Quarters—Care Must Be Exercised in Choosing Furnishings.

By Molly Elliott

The one-room apartment, the growing popularity of which has brought about many a culmination of romance that would otherwise have wasted away in long years of waiting, deserves its place in the hall of fame.

The one-room apartment has brought happiness to scores of young persons whose finances otherwise would never have met the demands of Cupid's insistent urging. But the clever bride does not allow the limited space to cramp the expression of individuality and taste even in the one-room apartment.

In the apartment house, built to meet the increasing demands for inexpensive living quarters, the living room is usually about 12 by 16 feet in size with average height ceilings of about 9½ feet. Walls of this room should be painted a soft green or gray. Deep ivory can be used with dull finish woodwork.

The windows must be handled with care to avoid causing a stuffy and unappealing appearance and to insure a blending of the walls with the hangings.

Curtains Suggested

For well-balanced windows the curtains may be of green and gold striped, sun-fast taffeta or any of the charming color combinations in soft sunfast taffetas that blend with the walls. If the windows are inclined to be ill-arranged drapes of the same shade of the walls will be unobtrusive and will soften the lines somewhat. This material comes fifty inches wide and frequently one length will serve for both sides, treated with French pleats and looped back with a simple gold cord and tassels.

Cleverly designed pieces of furniture for this type of room are two cupboard affairs, which have all the appearances of bookcases, but which in fact are a wardrobe and a dressing table. These may be placed at either side of the mantel. A settee or small davenport and a side table on which may be placed a conservatively colored lamp may flank the fireplace. A gate leg table under the windows or between the two windows may be covered with a piece of fine embroidery or tapestry. A day bed may be covered with chintz to match the covering of a small armchair.

Painted Bed

The bed may be painted a soft green or gray to blend with the walls and at one end a decorative screen may shut off the entrance to the tiny kitchenette and bathroom. An open bookcase similar in design to the two cupboards on either side of the fireplace may be placed at one end of the day bed.

Pictures must not be too numerous. The arrangement of the furniture in this type of room must be essentially simple. A tiny console table and lamp with hanging mirror above and a small chair of intricate design may grace the entrance. Infinite ingenuity may be employed in the final touches on such a room.

JOISTS ARE IMPORTANT

Defects in Framework in Houses Can Be Hidden.

The carpenter—expert and specialist on frame work—a member of America's great wood jury—speaks. He says:

"Upon the stability of joists, studding and rafters will depend the service we may expect from all other parts of the house which are fastened to the frame work, both outside and inside.

"We must not fool ourselves and think, because the framework is covered up, that the material, workmanship and construction specifications do not count. If these are not right, we may not see the fault, but the effects will be apparent for years, in cracked plaster, sagging, squeaky floors, leaky walls or roof, sticking windows and doors and other serious defects.

MOVIES REAL TEST

Use Only Trim and Artistic Homes in Films.

Suppose, for a moment, that Griffith wanted to use your home for a scene in one of his great screen dramas—a trim and artistic little setting typical of the smart American home.

Would it stand the test? Or would his all-appearing eye object to the style and appearance of your furniture?

The movies have already done much to popularize good clothes, good motor cars, good manners and artistic home interiors.

Bungalow Open for Inspection

House in Creston Division

The E. L. Cothrell Realty Company has begun construction on some 200 modern bungalows in its new "Creston" subdivision, on the Rockville Rd., where it forms a junction with W. Washington St. Some fifteen houses are now under construction and many more will be built this fall and winter.

The opening of "Creston" took place last Saturday and Sunday. One of the homes was fitted up entirely by the People's Outfitting Company.

NEW DWELLING FURNISHINGS BY PEOPLE'S FIRM

Bungalow Attractively but Inexpensively Equipped by Local Company.

The Cothrell bungalow open for inspection every afternoon and Sundays in Creston, 3500 Rockville Rd., was furnished by the People's Outfitting Company, which makes a specialty of grouping furniture from their line to show that a home may be at once attractively and inexpensively furnished. In the house pictured above there is a living room furnished with an overstuffed suite and one extra chair, davenport table, small end tables, lamps and pictures. Two bedrooms are furnished with dainty sets of boudoir furniture, one with a pretty vanity mirror and bed lamps and boudoir lamps. The dining room has a suite of rubbed finish walnut which includes six chairs and a period style table and long low buffet with beautifully mirrored mirror hung above. The kitchen is equipped with porcelain top table, two chairs, a gas range and small compact refrigerator. Rugs and linoleum are laid to correspond with the colors of each room.

A feature being emphasized in the showrooms of the People's Outfitting Company, is the "Good Housekeeping" outfit for four rooms that they have arranged for a lump sum of $495, including rugs and linoleum. This feature has for many years been known as the Royal outfit, but as a result of the recent merger of several suits this company has been able to add to both quality and quantity of the outfit for the same price.

A feature of furniture, it must be understood, is not arranged to be bought as it stands, although it may be if so desired, but more as a suggestion as to what may be selected from the line at that price. The actual selection is variable as is the payment plan which according to the "People's Way" is arranged to meet the needs of the buyer.

STUDY HOW TO BUILD

Close Observation Necessary to Attain Perfection.

What romance there is in creating a home! Long before the walls actually begin to rise, you can have the thrill of building the home in imagination, let it rise before you—the pleasures of anticipation—the satisfaction of knowing, when you begin to build, that you have provided everything, that you have made your home, in fact, the "Dream Home." It means much to you to have your home right, for you probably will build but once in your life-time. If you want real success in your new home, then make a study of home building.

NEW BOWL IS PLEASING

Departure From Aquarium Is Large and Cone-Shaped.

A pleasing departure from the customary aquarium is a new, large, cone-shaped glass bowl in clear, deep green or amber. This has a low stand made of wrought iron in a delicate leaf design. This low type of aquarium, intended for a wide window sill or large table, is a great improvement over the old square or round glass bowls with their ungraceful iron stands.

Lyman Brothers to Have Special Exhibit.

There are fashions in pictures and picture frames just as there are in dresses and shoes and hats. At present color is the revealing feature of pictures with which to beautify the home. For this purpose National Picture Week will be observed from Oct. 12 to 22.

Lyman Brothers, 223 E. Ohio St., have joined with many of the representative manufacturers of interior decorations to observe this week with a special line of artistic merchandise. A visit to their shop will prove the beauty of good pictures appropriately framed and reveal the wide variety of frames they have to select from.

In addition to their line of frames and framed pictures they carry also a complete line of up-to-date pottery, vases, book-ends, lovely dinner chimes, console mirrors and all the artistic bits of things that lend to the home that air of charm and culture that modern homes possess.

Yours can be a home of infinite loveliness and beauty, which will always greet you with a never-ending thrill of satisfaction and content.
