

PAY ROLL THEFT IS SOLVED; FOUR ARE SENTENCED

Two Men and Two Women
Draw Terms for $11,-
000 Hold-Up.

By United Press
NEWPORT, Ind., Oct. 9.—Four members of the bandit gang which executed the $11,000 pay roll robbery near St. Bernice in August were, under prison sentence in the Vermillion County Circuit Court today.

The four were sentenced on their plea of guilty. Alonzo Stryker, 41, and John Daugherty, 39, were each fined $1,000 and sentenced to ten years in Indiana State prison at Michigan City.

Two women, Mrs. Florence Stryker, 29, and Lena Smith, 19, admitted complicity in the conspiracy and were sentenced to the Indiana Woman's prison at Indianapolis.

Two Freed
Warrick Hargrove and Jarvis Smith, a brother of Lena Smith, were dismissed because of insufficient evidence. Roy Short, another alleged member of the gang, pleaded not guilty.

The suspects were arrested a week ago on meager information that led authorities to believe they were responsible for the hold-up. Subsequent investigation by detectives strengthened the evidence and brought the confessions.

Bold Hold-Up
The St. Bernice hold-up was one of the boldest robberies in the State. Messengers of a Clinton bank carrying a $11,000 railroad payroll to St. Bernice were waylaid on the highway between the two cities and forced to surrender it.

COLLEGE HEAD HEARD

Dr. Paul of Taylor University
Speaks at Cadle Tabernacle.

"God does not need you, but you need him," asserted Dr. John Paul, president of Taylor University, this morning at the Christian conference being held in Cadle Tabernacle. He cited the admonition in Revelations to "Hold fast what thou hast, that no man take the crown," and expressed the fear that many, who are looking for a "modern statement" of Christianity, would lose "what the Bible points out and what Christ lived."

Tonight, Dr. W. B. Riley of Minneapolis, Miss., will speak on "Evolution and the Scopes Trial." This afternoon he spoke on "Prophecy and Present-Day Problems."

Topics Technical H. S.

Miss Lepha H. Wilson, a Technical High School senior wrote "The March of the Nations" played at the Golden Rule dinner at the Claypool Monday.

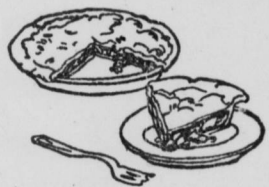

First meeting of the Chemistry Club was held Thursday. The object of the club is to continue the visiting of industries of a chemical nature.

Miss Lois McCammon, former Tech student and representative of the Daily Council, spoke to members of the Home Economics Club Wednesday on the National Dairy Exposition to be held in Indianapolis Oct. 10-17.

A simple but impressive program was given Wednesday at the school in celebration of the birthday of James Whitcomb Riley. The Boys' Glee Club, led by Mr. Fredrick Barker, gave the program.

The committee on senior pictures has been chosen by the senior sponsor as follows: Robert Liebhart, chairman; Margaret Cathcart, Harold Grant, Olive Kellams, George Runyan, Elwood Tarr, Joe Williamson and Otto Bell.

Martha McLaughlin, Dorothy Luplow, Norman Hammer, John Little, John Nickerson and Dorothy Moore make up the committee in charge of plans to keep up the pep and morale of senior rollroom No. 1.

MORE ATTACK ON KEYNOTE

Myers Says G. O. P. Is
'Masquerade Party.'

Continuing his attack on the keynote speech delivered Tuesday by John L. Duvall, Republican candidate for mayor, Walter Myers, Democratic candidate for the office, characterized the Republican party in Marion County as a "masquerade party," in a speech today at noon at the Rockwood Manufacturing Company.

"In his keynote speech Mr. Duvall presents his record as a business and public official as argument for his election," said Myers. "Duvall presented the same record to his own party, or the gang using the name of the party, last year."

When he asked renomination as county treasurer. His own party turned him down.

"If the party now masquerading under the name of Republican turned Mr. Duvall down, after once electing him, and despite the custom of giving two terms as county treasurer, why is this record such a powerful argument for election to an equally important office?"

Myers speaks tonight at Ft. Wayne Ave. and Alabama St.

COMPETITION IS KILLED

The Indianapolis sanitary department today began collection of garbage without any competition following the issuance of an injunction Thursday afternoon by Judge Sidney S. Miller of Superior Court Three prohibiting the Janzen Farm, Inc., on the Altonville Pike north-east of the city, from collecting garbage. Petition for an injunction was filed some time ago by the city sanitary district.
