

'THE IRON HORSE' AND OTHER FILMS ON VIEW

Gloria Swanson Will Play
Her First Movie Dual Role.

WITH "The Iron Horse" starting the second week of its engagement at the Colonial Sunday and with "The Freshman" closing a three weeks' run at the Apollo tonight, this city is getting into the long run movie class.

The Colonial has done splendid business with the "Horse" and another great week is expected.

"Zander The Great" with Marion Davies will be on view next week at the Ohio. "Classified" will be the featured movie at the Circle.

Gloria Swanson has her first dual role in "The Coast of Folly" at the Apollo next week, starting Sunday afternoon.

Fred Thompson in "Ridin' the Wind" will be the chief attraction at the Isis for the first half of the week.

SWANSON'S LATEST
DUE AT THE APOLLO

In the first dual role of her screen career—that of mother and daughter, Gloria Swanson comes to the Apollo next week in "The Coast of Folly," a dramatic story of high society life, adapted by James Creelman from the novel by Coningsby Dayson, and directed by Allan Dwan. Her support includes Anthony Jowitt, Alex Francis, Dorothy Cummings, Jed Prouty.

No. 1—Marion Davies as she appears in "Zander The Great" at the Ohio next week.

No. 2—Charley Chase will be seen in "The Caretaker's Daughter" as a movie feature at Keith's next week.

No. 3—Lois Wilson and Warner Baxter in "Rugged Water" at the Palace the first half of the week. The Indiana Indorsers of Photo-plays recommend this one.

No. 4—Fred Thompson will be seen in "Ridin' The Wind" at the Isis the first half of the week.

No. 5—Madge Bellamy and George O'Brien in a comfortable closeup in "The Iron Horse" at the Colonial next week. It is the second week for this picture.

No. 6—Corinne Griffith doing a little "dunking" in "Classified" at the Circle next week.

No. 7—Gloria Swanson will have a dual role in "The Coast of Folly" at the Apollo next week.

No. 8—Marion Davies as she becomes the leader of the smart set in New York and at Palm Beach. Upon her father's death Joyce inherits his immense fortune, with but one proviso—that she will automatically forfeit it if she ever becomes involved in scandal.

The gossips find something to talk about in Joyce's friendship with Larry Fay, a young married man. His wife, who doesn't love him, but who has no intention of losing him, jumps at the chance to lay the lash of notoriety across Joyce's shoulders.

Informed by sources of her own of her daughter's predicament, Joyce's mother returns to America to aid her. Through scenes of brilliant social gaiety, though often charged with dramatic intensity, and against a background of frivolity at Palm Beach the story winds its way to a wholly unexpected and surprising climax.

MARION DAVIES
FEATURED AT OHIO

"Zander, the Great," featuring Marion Davies, will be the main attraction at the Ohio the coming week. This entertainment is an adaptation by Frances Marion of the stage play by Salsbury Field.

The support of Miss Davies includes Holbrook Blinn, Harrison Ford, Harry Watson, Harry Myers, George Siegmund, Hobart Bosworth and Master John Huff. Harrison Ford, noted for his work in other Cosmopolitan pictures with Miss Davies, appears opposite her in the character of a western hero.

The entire play is based upon the search of Mamie for Zander's father in the West. Zander being a tiny child, played by a newcomer to the screen, little Jack Huff, a youngster of 4, who was discovered by Miss Davies. During this search Mamie and her youthful charge fall into the hands of bootleggers. She is caught, and in escaping, shoots one of them.

A Ralph Graves comedy, "Don't Tell Dad," a news weekly, will be the supplementary attractions.

The music will be provided by the Charlie Davis Orchestra, Cy Milders, soloist, and Ruth Noller, organist.

EDNA FERBER'S TALENT AT THE CIRCLE

The picturization of Edna Ferber's novel "Classified" which appeared in the Cosmopolitan magazine, will be the feature attraction at the Circle for next week starting tomorrow.

IT TOOK THREE YEARS TO COMPLETE
"THE IRON HORSE."

Corinne Griffith returns to the local screen in the stellar role as Babs Comet, a girl who takes want ads over the phone, and for the first time in her screen career essays the same hardships so far as the elements were concerned, as those experienced by the transcontinental pioneers they portrayed.

Jack Mullah is seen in the principal role opposite the star, and others in the cast are Edythe Chapman, Carroll Nye, Bernard Randell and Jacqueline Wells. The production was directed by Al Santell and adapted by June Mathis.

The special attraction for the week will be Harry Jolson, brother of the world famous Al Jolson, with his Six Southern Serenaders.

The overture will be Victor Herbert's "Red Mill," played by the Circle Concert Orchestra under the direction of Bakaleinikoff; Miss Byrd will play an organ solo, "Cecilia"; there will be a Lloyd Hamilton comedy, "Movies"; a novelty film showing Ann Pennington doing the "Charleston"; and the Circle News.

"THE IRON HORSE" HELD OVER AT COLONIAL

"The Iron Horse," Sunday starts its second week at the Colonial.

In compliment to the Big Four Railroad, the Colonial management will designate Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, as "Big Four Days."

Here are some interesting facts concerning "The Iron Horse":

RED THOMPSON ON VIEW AT THE ISLES

As the feature attraction for the first half of next week the Isis will present Fred Thompson, and his horse Silver King, in "Ridin' The Wind," a speedy comedy drama by Marian Jackson, replete with laughable situations, cleverly combined with dramatic incidents.

Jim Harkness who attempts to right the wrongs done by his younger brother, and to return stolen property to various rightful owners is the chief figure of the story. Thompson has the support of Jacqueline Gadson, Lewis Sargent, David Dunbar, Betty Scott and David Kirby. The comedy will be an Our Gang farce entitled "Mary, Queen of Toits."

Starling Art Accord, "The Circus Cyclone" will be shown Thursday and the rest of the week, together with an Al St. John comedy, "Stupid But Brave." As its title indicates, "The Circus Cyclone" is a story of life, romance and adventure in the realm of the saw dust arena. Jack Manning, Nancy Deaver, Cesare Gravina and Albert J. Smith are in the cast.

WHAT a girl was Mamie! With an adopted child—called Zander, for short—and a battered flivver, she set out to win a hostile world. You'll roar with laughter—you'll feel the clutch of pathos, too, at this charming modern comedy.
