

OUTER PARTS OF CITY WANT ALARM BOXES

Survey of Fire Signal Situation Being Made, Mr. Fixit Learns.

Do You Know?

The city and county will build a bridge across the canal at Meridian St.?

Let Mr. Fixit help you present suggestions to city officials. He is the "fixit" man at the city hall. Write him at The Times.

The scarcity of fire alarm boxes in the outlying districts is worrying Fire Chief John J. O'Brien and numerous correspondents of Mr. Fixit. DEAR MR. FIXIT: Between Holmes Ave. and Tibbs Ave. and from Michigan St. to the north city limits I understand there are no fire alarms. How soon can they place some boxes out here?

A TAXPAYER. A survey is now in progress of this situation. Your letter will be referred to O'Brien and the board of safety at their next meeting.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: The sidewalks on Southeastern Ave. from State Ave. east are so low that water stands clear across them when it rains. It is impossible to walk there and there is much traffic, so that it is very dangerous to walk in the street. Please come out and see this condition the next time it rains.

HARRY STEVENS of the department of improved streets will order an investigation.

DEAR MR. FIXIT—The telephone pole at Holmes Ave. and Speedway Rd. has been moved, for which we thank you very much. At the same place the holes in the entrance to Holmes Ave. are almost too deep.

CITIZEN. The place you mention is partly outside the city limits, Frank Reid, inspector of the street commissioner's department, told Mr. Fixit. Permanent improvements to streets must be financed by the property owners themselves.

Reid will investigate the condition described in the following letter:

DEAR MR. FIXIT—The alley between Wolcott and Randolph Sts., just south of Southeastern Ave., is in very bad condition. This summer the flies and odor there were very bad and I have seen cars get stuck in the mud there.

JANE GRAYSON. DEAR MR. FIXIT—In regard to

Boy, 11, Victim of Auto, Buried

Richard Bird

Funeral services for Richard Bird, 11, of 2525 Broadway, son of Mrs. Florence and Warren M. Bird, were held Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the Episcopal Church of the Advent, Thirty-Third and Meridian Sts. Burial in Crown Hill cemetery.

Bird was knocked from his bicycle at Twenty-Fifth St. near Broadway, by an automobile driven by William Gill, 38, of 1158 Eugene St. Gill was slated on a charge of involuntary manslaughter by Corner Paul F. Robinson, who made an investigation of the accident following the boy's death at the St. Vincent's Hospital Saturday.

The boy attended School 45 and was a member of the Boy Scouts. Parents and a sister, Jane Bird, survive.

N. Traub Ave., will say that it needs grading and filling north of Washington St. Thanking you for your past favors.

TAXPAYER. There's no oil, Mr. Fixit was informed by Reid, but the street will be graded within the next two weeks.

IF THEY COULD STOP AND REST

Do you know that your kidneys have worked without ceasing from the hour of your birth? They filter and remove from the blood stream waste matter which if permitted to remain and re-enter the system, may cause serious diseases. If overworked you can help them by taking FOLEY PILLS, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, which gently flush the kidneys and increase the elimination of waste matter from your system. Try them today. Sold by all good drug stores.—Advertisement.

THE MYSTERY SOLVED!

James Coble and John Clark were next door neighbors, both in their twenties and married to charming girls from the same graduating class in high school. But there the resemblance ended. James and Inez were very popular, socially, while John and his wife Flossie never seemed to go anywhere.

"There go Jim and Inez again," John and Inez had on another new dress," called Flossie one evening after supper. John dropped his newspaper and moved over to the window to watch the well-dressed couple go down the street.

"How do they do it?" he asked. "Jim isn't drawing any more salary than I am and I am sure that a better little manager than you doesn't exist. Yet she seems to have new clothes for every occasion and Jim, himself, is always dressed in the height of fashion!"

"It's a mystery to me," he continued as he picked up his paper again. "but in any case, we won't make ourselves miserable over it, will we, dear?"

"No, John," replied Flossie, "but some times it does hurt! I have had to decline so many invitations because I felt that I did not have the proper clothes, while Inez takes in everything."

"That reminds me," said John. "the Eureka Club is having its annual Fall dance down at the Casino in a few weeks. Let's go this time!"

"I would surely love to go!" exclaimed Flossie. But in the minds of each was the question of where to get the money for the little dance frock for Flossie and the new suit for John. How ever, nothing further was said that night. But they went to bed with the one thought in their minds. "How can we manage to go to that dance?"

The next day was Saturday, and coming home from work, John said, "Flossie, we just must go to that dance! Let's shop around for a dress and a suit! So after supper they took the bus downtown. Then began the long hunt from store to store to find a dress and a suit at a price they could afford to pay. All the lovely things they saw only made them more discouraged and disheartened, for they knew they could not pay the high prices asked for the garments which they wanted, and they would not be satisfied with cheap, shoddy clothes. Finally as they turned home, disappointed and disheartened, they saw their neighbors, Jim and Inez, come out of a store and walk down the street ahead of them.

As by common consent, John and Flossie stopped and looked at the store. It was an Askin & Marine store. The windows were filled with beautiful garments, and down in one corner of the window they saw a sign, "Open a Charge Account—Your Credit Is Good." John and Flossie looked at one another and John exclaimed, "So that's how Jim does it!" But Flossie, more practical, answered, "Why don't we do the same?"

So arm in arm, they entered the store. It did not take them but a few minutes to find just the dress that Flossie wanted and to select from the large stock a new suit for John. The friendly manager allowed John to pay down what he felt he could afford and arrange convenient weekly terms of payment.

Needless to say, John and Flossie had a wonderful time at the dance. And no longer do they sit at home, watch Jim and Inez walk down the street wondering how they do it! They have solved the mystery!

You Too Can Have Clothing Happiness! The better things of life are not the sole privilege of the rich man. Get them the way he gets his—with a charge account.
