By United Press
DECATUR, Ind., Oct. 16.—The annual Adams County Club round-up will be held here Nov. 7, it was announced today.

Exhibits from the calf, corn and sugar bee clubs will be on display and prizes will be awarded for the best products.

Married for Fifty-Nine Years

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Carpenter

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Carpenter of R. R. 1, Spencer, Ind., recently celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary.

Both are 77 years old. Carpenter is a Civil War veteran.

WOMEN ARE AFFECTED

Judge Withholds Judgment in Two Criminal Court Cases.

A mother and a wife were both affected in Criminal Court when Judge Pro Tem, Frank A. Symmes, withheld judgment and sentence during good behavior against William Weller, 25, of 1037 W. Morris St., and William Giddens, 23, who pleaded guilty to issuing fraudulent checks. Mrs. Giddens collapsed and had to be carried from the courtroom after Judge Symmes permitted her husband to go.

"These are just other cases of where the wife and mother must suffer," said Judge Symmes. Both men promised they would not issue worthless checks any more. Weller promised to make his checks good and contribute to his mother's support.

PARK MEETING TO END TODAY

Work of Nature Clubs Told by Speaker.

By United Press
MADISON, Ind., Oct. 16.—The Ohio Valley State park conference, which is meeting at the Clifty Falls State park to close its session today.

Representatives from five states have been attending the conference which has been the most successful conservation meeting ever held in the middle west.

Many men and women prominent

WOMAN NEARLY INSANE

"I was nervous, could not sleep, melancholy and nearly insane at times," says Mrs. T. A. Saunders of 711 E. Depot St., Knoxville, Tenn. "After being in this condition nearly three years I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and took it. It made me a well woman. I gained 22 lbs. in weight and haven't had a bit of trouble since. I hope it will do as much for other women as it has for me." Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one dependable remedy for female ills.—Advertisement.

in conservation and nature study work in Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky and West Virginia were on the program for short addresses.

The principal talk was delivered by Samuel E. Perkins, Illinois, who told the work of the Nature Study Club of the State in connection with State parks.

"We believe that organization such as the nature study club add considerably to the interest in State parks," he said.

"Indiana includes three of the well established life zones; that is three zones in which different species of birds breed, are within the State. Our parks are so established that we have large protected areas of ground for these birds."
