The True Blue Club is giving a party for 100 out-of-town girls in the gym Friday afternoon. Fae Houston, leader of this department, and Mrs. Della Thompson are in charge of arrangements.

All out-of-town girls who were not invited through some member of the committee are welcomed as honor guests.

The first girls' debate of the year was held on the question: Resolved: "That the Government Should Own and Operate the Coal Mines."

The captain of the affirmative team was Belle Kaufman, and her assistants were Ruth Lewis and Arta Weyant. Helen McCoy was captain of the negative team, and other members were Valentina Meng and Helen Hill. The negative team won.

Another debate is to be held on the subject under the "Resolved: That the Public Should Support the Policy of the Closed Shop." On the affirmative team are Nellie Munson, captain and Helen Hyde and Mary Alice Sheffel. The negative team is composed of Anne Withers, captain, and Oma Catherine Gladish and Katie Vermillion.

Miss Mary B. Orvis, head of the Indiana University Extension Division, and a teacher of English in the Extension School, addressed the Shortridge Fiction Club.

The fall enrollment of Shortridge has just been announced as 2,494. The increase in attendance of the boys was 24 per cent and of the girls 18 per cent.

There are 360 boys this semester, compared with 774 last year. There are 1,344 girls this year and 1,347 last year.

CONCRETE HEALS SELF

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Prof. Duff A. Abrams, here, is the authority for the statement that concrete possesses a self-healing power. Abrams marked and photographed cracks in a concrete bridge. A year later he examined the bridge and found that the cracks had healed up, he says.
