

LOTS OF ACTION IN BIG TEN

Three Western Conference Games and Two Inter-sectional Battles Saturday.

By Edward C. Derr
United Press Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Interest of midwestern football fans Saturday will be centered in three Big Ten games of almost equal importance, three inter-sectional games and one strictly eastern engagement which will have a bearing on later inter-sectional struggles.

Knute Rockne's Squad

IN EAST TO PLAY ARMY

showing improvement and is now believed capable of opening some big holes for Red Grange, goes to Iowa City to engage the tough Hawkeyes. If Iowa can do as well as Nebraska did in stopping Grange, the Illinois will be out of the Big Ten race.

Feature at Madison

Michigan travels to Madison, Wis., to meet Coach George Little's Badger squad. The Wolverines showed a powerful attack last week in defeating Indiana, 63 to 0, but should find the going rougher against Wisconsin, which has been picked by many as a likely title contender. Coach Stag's Chicago Maroons go to battle against the greatly improved Northwestern team in the annual football "city series." It will be a contest between the straight line attack of the Maroons and the open formations of the Wild Cats.

Two Big Ten teams take on eastern eleven, Ohio State meeting Columbia at Columbus and Indiana engaging Syracuse at Bloomington.

At New Haven

The Yale-Pennsylvania game at New Haven will be watched with more than passing interest because both Chicago and Illinois are to meet Pennsylvania later in the season and fans are anxious to know the strength of this year's Pennsylvania team.

The remaining members of the Big Ten engage in so-called practice, Minnesota taking on Wabash College at Minneapolis and Purdue doing battle against Rose Poly at Lafayette.

by rain, and it was finished under extremes of circumstance. Old Barney Johnson went out to win his third victory of the series, and he was in trouble for the very start. His fast ball worked well in the semi-darkness until the ball got wet, and then he lost control.

The Pirates started after him then and did plenty. It must have been a sentimental pulse in the heart of Buck Harris that prompted him to leave his old veteran in the box when the peanut butters in the stands knew he was through. It must have been the same sentiment in Harris that made him leave Stan Coveleskie in the box in the sixth game when even his own players knew Coveleskie had nothing.

The wise minds of baseball today charged Harris with the loss of the world's series because he would not relieve Coveleskie and Johnson in time to take a chance on a relief pitcher.

The worst handicap the Senators had to carry was the feeble playing of Roger Peckinpaugh, their short-stop.

Errors by Peck

Peck, who was voted the most valuable player in the American League for 1925, blundered eight times and most of his errors were vital. His two errors in Thursday's game helped the Pirates to win. His home run was only a temporary penance.

The Pirate outfield outshone the veteran Washington outfield, the Pirate infield outstepped and outstarred the Senators' infield and the Pirate pitching staff outlasted the Senator staff—and Washington had most of the breaks.

There was the weather break against Johnson in the final game—but the Pittsburgh pitchers had to use a ball just as wet and just as tricky.

The series broke all records for receipts. The seven games played to a gate of $1,182,854 on an attendance of 282,830.

The previous mark for the gate was $1,093,104, set last year, with an attendance of 283,655. However, neither 1925 or 1924 scored the largest attendance record, the Giants and Yankees having played to 301,430 persons when they battled it out in 1923.

Choosing of an outstanding hero of the series is an arduous task. For those statistically inclined a composite box score of the seven games will show Max Carey, the veteran center fielder of the Pirates, was the batting leader with eleven hits and a grand average of .458.

Joe Harris, another veteran, led the Washington troops at the plate with a .440 average, also nailing eleven hits.

Carey Faced on Bases
Carey also led in the number of stolen bases with three and Joe Harris attained another honor when his batting mark of twenty-two total bases stood way above his nearest competitor. Joe Harris tied Goslin for the home run honors with three each.

More, with seven counters, led in the total number of runs scored and he also walked the most times, having been handed five passes.

The final batting average of the Pirates was .265, and the Senators lagged by three points at .262. Fielding honors also were won by the champions, with an average of .875 as compared with .866 for the Senators.

Vic Aldridge, with two victories and no defeats, is the pitching leader. Kremer and Johnson are credited with two victories and one defeat each. The veteran Walter holds the strikeout mark for the series with fifteen fanned batters to his credit.

ROZELLE SCORES K. O.

Harry Rozelle, Indianapolis, 138 pounds, knocked out Jimmy Mains, 142, Newcastle, in the first round at Grandview Park, near Greenfield, Thursday night. Mains went down twice before taking the final count. Rozelle's aggressiveness made short work of the scrap. He is under the management of L. C. Witt and desires matches on Tomlinson Hall cards. For bouts address 2508 Brookside Ave., or phone Webster 2865-W.

WILLS WORKS OUT

By United Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Harry Wills, the negro heavyweight, has begun working out for his twelve-round bout with Floyd Johnson at Newark Oct. 26.
