

CHICAGO CRIME BILL IS HUGE

30,000 Crooks Cost $20,000 Each a Year.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Chicago could afford to give each of its estimated 30,000 crooks an annuity of $20,000 and still be ahead of the game, Charles R. Holden, president of the Chicago crime commission, declared today.

The city's annual crime bill is far in excess of $600,000,000, Holden declared. Approximately one per cent of the city's population of 3,000,000 is engaged in criminal pursuits, he said.

Crime has increased 100 per cent since 1900, Holden said. The stage, movies and newspapers are partly to blame for the increase, he held, because of the manner in which crook plays and banditry are featured.

GLASGOW, Oct. 19.—The liner Cameronia arrived here today carrying six of the crew of the United States Coast Guard Motorboat 128, which was wrecked while on duty on "rum row" off the American coast.

Federal Officials Seek Causes of Steamer Blazes.

By United Press
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 19.—United States steamboat officials today investigated a fire that destroyed the coastwise steamship Commanche six miles off the St. Johns River bar Saturday night and threatened the lives of 150 passengers and members of the crew.

With the exception of Edward J. Laylor of Winthrop, Mass., all the passengers and crew have been accounted for. Reports that ten had drowned when a lifeboat was rammed in a heavy sea between one of the rescue ships and the stern of the Commanche were incorrect.

By Times Special
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Rose Pastor Stokes who came out of the Ghetto twenty years ago to wed the wealthy J. G. Phelps Stokes in a romance that ended with charges she had been unfaithful, believes that "love is always justified, even when short lived, even when mistaken."

Business & Industrial NEWS

Donn Herr Is Made Agent for Wills St. Claire Auto

What becomes of the race car driver while the race car is busy running races might be answered by the brief review of the life of Don Herr, erstwhile race car driver and recently appointed local dealer for the Wills Saint Claire automobile. Beginning in the first downtown garage in Indianapolis owned by Carl Fisher in 1903, he trained for six years to become an expert mechanic.

From then on first as mechanic and later as winner of a number of races in various parts of the country he followed the lure of race track until in 1913, when he went into business with the late Howdy Wilcox opening the Yellow Cab Company.

With his expert knowledge of automobiles and machinery, however, and with the still unrealized dream of owning a cab company of his own with a distinctive type of service and personal interest to add to its attractiveness he established a business of his own at the present location, Maryland St. and Kentucky Ave.

And now in addition to his complete service department and cab company he has the agency for one

ALLAYS DREAD AT LAST RITES

Funeral Director's Work Comforts Mourner.

The great comfort of a well ordered funeral can be appreciated only by persons who have experienced the service and thoughtfulness of the attention given by the Walter T. Blasengym establishment.

No occasion so entirely falls into the hands of gracious and thoughtful persons. Without them no end of confusion would result at a time when members of the bereaved family are necessarily unable to render their customers usefulness.

Such an establishment as that of Mr. Blasengym has made its greatest effort to relieve the members of the family from all responsibility, and in a quiet, efficient way conduct all matters relative to the care of friends and guests and the service itself.

The great value of such service does much to do away with ancient fear to us have passed away. With dear to use have passed away. With ease and comforting graciousness Mr. Blasengym makes of the occasion a most natural and unostentatious one.
