I stepped on the gas and you know the rest. The boy just answered and then lost consciousness and both he and the girl were taken to the hospital supposedly fatally injured.

The cops followed me up and I don't know what I would have done if, when I telephoned home to find Leslie I hadn't heard your voice.

Old chap, you'll never know how grateful I am to you. You have always been there when I wanted you. I don't think any other man or even ever had such a friend as you. Of course, you came right straight down and without any explanation of how you came to be there or asking me any explanations of how I came to be there, you ironed everything out. I made out a check for my ball and you took it to an all-night bank and got it cashed.

You know how everything was next morning how everything was all right with the two young people. The boy handsomely took all the blame of the collision upon himself. This his father confirmed after hearing the boy's story when he arrived yesterday afternoon.

Anxious to Save

Dear Miss Lee: I am a girl 15 years old, and am in the second year at high school. I started to a new high school room and stood during the entire concert. Another proof of musical hunger.

Damrosch is an institution—a musical leader in this country. He knows his Wagner. He has an orchestra composed of rare artists. They have played under the master for years.

Damrosch uses no fireworks on the conducting stand. His men know his every mood and every movement of the composer. The spirit of the composer and the conductor seem to be just one.

We all waited with pleasure for "The Valkyrie" because we know it. The "ride" gathered strength, in fantastic beauty as the score was played. Here was perfect playing if I have heard it.

And then "The Mastersingers," in Breakfast—Wheat cereal cooked with dates, milk, cream, French toast, syrup, thin coffee.

Luncheon—Potatoes baked and stuffed, shredded cabbage, rye bread, orange jelly with whipped cream, drop cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Roast veal, potatoes baked with meat, gravy, buttered carrots, head lettuce with Thousand Island dressing, steamed carrot pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

If the luncheon dessert is not planned for little people a variety of fresh or canned fruits can be added to the jelly before molding.

When baking potatoes with meat keep in mind the necessity of salting them separately as they are put around the roast in the pan.

Potatoes Baked and Stuffed

Three large smooth potatoes, 12 large oysters, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, milk, 6 tablespoons buttered crumbs, few grains pepper. Scrub potatoes and bake in a hot oven for one hour. Split in half lengthwise and scoop out the inside taking care not to break the skin. Put potato pulp through ricer and season with salt and pepper. Try in butter and add enough hot milk to make the mixture smooth. Beat with a fork or slotted spoon until light. Line the potato shells with

MRS. WILHELMY SAVED BY FRIEND

Doctor Advised Operation Friend Said Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound First

"I was all run-down from overwork and worry, had no appetite, could not sleep at night, and looked like a corpse. I have six children (five boys and one girl) and did not get any strength after my last baby was born. I was getting worse and thinner every day. I was afraid I would have to go to the hospital, but this I could not do on account of my family. So I went to a friend of mine and told her how I felt, and she said, 'Now do as I tell you. Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as I have done. It helped me.' So I started taking the Vegetable Compound and I noticed after the first few bottles that I felt considerably better. After taking 9 or 10 bottles I feel now my old strength. Everybody who sees me now notices the great improvement in my health. I am gaining in weight and strength and am feeling fine. Eat well and sleep good nights."—Mrs. Mary Wilhelmy, 309 Duke Street, St. Paul, Minnesota.—Advertisement.
