By VEDDERGARD

THE time to throw a forward pass is when the opposition is not looking for it. That's a bright statement, isn't it? But how many teams really surprise with a pass? It is not so much the play as how and when it is executed that fools the opposition.

Plenty of teams advertise their passes to the whole wide world. In three days a pass to succeed must be a bolt out of the blue. It must catch the secondary defense pulled in. There is no better time to pass than on the first down, especially if a plunging game has been the procedure up until the time for the surprise.

Pennsylvania beat Chicago with a pass on first down when the Maroon backs were close in to aid in stopping Kreuz, Penn's great smashing full back, who had ripped off a thirty-yard run right through the middle of the opposing line on his first effort.

Right here in Indianapolis Sunday the Ferndales caught Peru flat-footed on a forward pass with one of the visitors near the receiver. There were no preliminaries that made the play look like a pass. It was a surprise—an element which is essential in the best football attack.

Those who got in late to the Wabash-Butler game never discovered that there was a colored youth playing in the Bulldog line until the players washed the mud off their helmets.

It begins to look as though they were not quite as good as Cecil of Butler a fat boy—not because he isn't heavy, but just because it takes a lot of nerve to call the barrel-shaped youth any names except good ones after the way he got down the field in the Wabash-Butler contest.

We don't know how fast Cecil can run, but he surely is a good mud horse. Most of the time he beats the speedy, slim Bulldogs down the field under punts to fall on the ball or tackle the Scarlet kick receiver. Cecil may be full of curves, but the former Manual griddler doesn't let a little avoidpola slow him up.

Coach Page hates excess poundage—oh, how he hates it! But there just has to be exceptions to all rules. Cecil is worth several of the beautiful, slender grid-ders last Saturday.

ACROSS THE BOARD TODAY: Deeming came across for us on Saturday in the big race at Churchill Downs. Wildwood was third and Bassorah also showed. The bank roll went up and today is $309.85.

Today at Churchill Downs we'll try $2 and a half on LOUISVILLE and Nashville in the first. In the third HIGH PRINCE can do it and the same play goes on him. In the first morning clove and feather, is selected to take the measure of Bourbon Boy, the probable favorite. Five dollars across is the play. LITTLE VICTOR is the choice for the second race in the first event will be combined in a $5 win, place and show parlay.

It hasn't been discovered yet where Illinois was trying to throw those forward passes in the Michigan game, but it is certain where they landed. They were caught by the Wolverines—eight out of twelve. Molendin intercepted five which is quite an afternoon's work in itself.

Newell Banks, checker champion, who is in the city today, says that he picked Pittsburgh to win the baseball series. Furthermore he says it is the tenth straight winner he has picked for the world championship in baseball. We are going to wire him next year so to know who to put our dough on.

THE ladies in this day of women are invading the horse racing game with much success. There are quite a number of the fair sex who own racing stables of renown. And that's not all. The equine performers themselves are stepping out.

Princess Doreen made a remarkable record during the summer in handicapped events. The latest filly to step into the limelight is Deeming, which won the Falls City Handicap on Saturday, after taking the gruelling two and one-quarter-mile Latonia Cup on the Saturday before.

That was a tough assignment for Umpire Chell of the American Association, who got a trip to California to officiate in the San Francisco-Louisville series.

THE Army mule is stepping out. Since its victory over Notre Dame the old ways are not good enough. The Army mule is to have a new blanket. The covering of old with the word Army embroidered on it is to go.

The latest wrinkle is to be a combination of the Army colors of black and gray and gold with a block "A" on a gray background. Gold stars will be sprinkled in; the emblems of Army victories over the Navy. There will be alternate stripes of black and gold with a gold fringe. Some blanket! Some mule! And Yale is the opponent next Saturday.

The "Big Three" this season is about as small as it is possible for anything big to become.

Dartmouth must have an astounding, marvelous, magical, astonishing, super-smashing, wonderful (and any other adjectives you can think of) football team! It must be a tidal wave, a tornado, an earthquake, a typhoon, a flood! It must be a helva ball club!

Two Ft. Harrison football teams lost on Sunday. The day was more suitable for the Navy than the Army.

DARTMOUTH LOOMS AS ONE OF COUNTRY'S BEST GRID TEAMS

WILLS IN GO WITH JOHNSON

Looks Like Harry Has Nothing to Gain in Bout Tonight.

By Times Special
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Harry Wills is going to fight tonight and he is going to have a tough time of it. Because even if he wins—as he assuredly will—he is going to lose.

Wills' curious predicament is caused by the fact he is matched with Floyd Johnson, an extremely indifferent heavyweight from Iowa.

Wills, looking to cut Johnson to pieces, provided he doesn't knock him out in the first few minutes of play. If the Black Panther does either of these things, he will be given a booting on the grounds that he has been fighting a "set-up."

And, if by any miracle the Iowa Bulldog receives inspiration from the gods and rises in his heretofore negligible night and whips the Black Panther, then the Black Panther will be completely finished.

The chorus of razzberries then will reach a crescendo of criticism and Wills will be asked how he ever had the temerity to even suggest a fight with Gene Tunney or Jack Dempsey, the vanishing warrior.

Moreover, Wills is not going to make a lot of money by fighting Johnson in a Newark armory. Sizeable money isn't made over there and the only thing he can make is the heat of a cold which will bring him no nearer to a fight with Dempsey.

J. J. C.'s Win Over Battery B
Uncovering a sparkling assortment of well-rehearsed plays, the J. J. C. football team downed the Ft. Harrison Battery B eleven at Pennsylvan Saturday, 27 to 0.

Phillips, Scanton, Beckman and Sylvester counted the touchdowns for the winners, and the forward pass was used to gain the point after touchdown on three occasions.

The ankle-deep mud did not seem to bother the J. J. C.'s and they used about all the plays in the book.

The Army team braced at times and held for downs, but was unable to organize a continued attack.

Next Sunday the Riverdies come to Pennsylvan in the first of a series of intra-city games.

CHECKER CHAMP HERE

Newell Banks to Give Exhibition at Y. M. C. A. Tonight.

Newell W. Banks, checker champion, will give an exhibition tonight at the local Y. M. C. A. of simultaneous chess and checkers and blindfold checkers. He will compete against some thirty-five players.

Banks has been on a trip through Ohio and is heading for Chicago through northern Indiana cities.

The checker expert will then travel toward the West and will give exhibitions in California over a six weeks period.

Independent Football

The Belmont A. C. defeated the Commodore at Bloomington Sunday, 9 to 0. Single ran thirty yards for a touchdown and King put over the other two points with a drop kick. The Belmonts play at Rushville next Sunday. Players are requested to be out Wednesday night at 7:30, Belle View P. and Washington St.

The Tuxedo Maroons were defeated Sunday by the Ferndale Triangles, 19 to 7. The Maroons will play the Brookside Reserves next Sunday at Jamison Park.

The Christamore A. C. kept their record clean by defeating the Brookside A. C. 3 to 0. A placement by Maroon gave the winners their ticket for practice will be held Monday and Wednesday nights. Next Sunday the A. C. will play the Tuxedo Maroons at Riverside at 3 p. m. The A. C. defeated the Bulldogs, 6 to 0, in a previous game.

The Christamore Cubs want a game for Sunday. Teams playing in the 16-17-year-old class call Belmont 1175.

FOOTBALL TITLE RACE IN BIG TEN NARROWS

Michigan and Iowa Stand Out in Conference—Ohio State and Purdue Eliminated.

By Edward C. Derr,
United Press Staff Correspondent.
CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Four teams with clean slates in the Big Ten championship race remain in the running. Two of the four face Big Ten teams this week and it is probable that the same four—Michigan, Iowa, Chicago and Minnesota—will lead the pack again next Monday.

Minnesota has a questionable right to its place in the select quartet, having its slate clean because it has not yet met a conference rival. The Gophers lost to Notre Dame Saturday and open their championship next Saturday.

Three for Michigan
Michigan tops the list with three conference victories, Indiana, Wisconsin and Illinois, being the Wolverine victims. Coach Yost has a powerful machine and stands a good chance to finish the championship season without a defeat. The Wolverine face a tough foe in the Navy this week-end, but the result will have no bearing on the title.

Iowa, known to have a strong team, did even better than expected by winning from Ohio State, 15 to 0. The Hawkeyes now have two victories and no defeats. They take on Chicago in a nonconference game this week-end.

Chicago had its goal line crossed for the first time this season when Pennsylvan scored a touchdown and beat the Maroons, 7 to 0, but this game had no effect on Chicago's conference standing. Coach Staggs' team has a victory and a tie to its credit and faces Purdue this week-end.

Close One to Badgers
Wisconsin, already eliminated by Michigan, set the skids under a Big Ten eleven Saturday by defeating Purdue, 7 to 0.

Illinois showed surprising strength in holding Michigan to a field goal victory. The Illini line has strengthened on the defense but it is still unable to open holes for Red Grange.

Northwestern demonstrated how much "Moon" Baker is being missed from the line-up. The Purple Wild Cats succumbed to Tulane's great offense, 18 to 7.

Indiana found little difficulty in winning from Miami, 25 to 9, but faces a Big Ten rival in Northwestern this week-end.

CAREY IS ILL
Pittsburgh Captain in Hospital With Pleurisy.

By United Press
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 26.—The condition of Max Carey, the Pittsburgh baseball captain, who is ill with pleurisy at a hospital here, was "stationary" today, physicians announced.

Carey's ribs were jammed when he collided with Bucky Harris while stealing second base in the fifth game of the world's series, and pleurisy later developed.

He will be forced to remain in the hospital for several days.

RIVALRY CONFLICT IS EVEN

Wabash Gains Often, but Butler Defense Holds—Mud Mars Feature.

Wabash almost succeeded in getting rid of the Irwin Field jinx Saturday—almost. Three times the Scarlet warriors had chances to put over a touchdown on Butler and three times they didn't quite do it. It was disconcerting to the Wabash rosters.

It was the big game of the day in Indiana, but resulted in one of those unsatisfactory scoreless tie affairs.

Difference in Downs
The visitors have only the satisfaction of knowing that they counted more first downs than Butler, but the score said 0 to 0 as the final gun was fired.

Rush and Parr crashed and wiggled their way through the Butler defense only to be stopped at the crucial moments. Cripe kicked in splendid form on a wet and muddy field with a wetter, muddier ball. Northam and Nipper also punted well.

Both teams kicked frequently in an effort to get the breaks of a fumble. Both did get some breaks when the slippery ball eluded the grasp of the receiver, but neither team was able to take enough advantage of the slips to score.

Cecil in the line for Butler carried his avoidpola up and down the field in great style and Northam did well in the local backfield. Nipper also handled punts well.

It was a bad, bad day and the spectators shivered in a cold drizzle. And the result of it all was nothing to nothing.

Notre Dame came to life at Minnesota and profiting by a couple of "breaks" in the final quarter stepped out for two touchdowns which meant defeat for the Gophers, 19 to 7. The game had been dead-locked for three quarters at 7 to 7.

Purdue Captain Injured
Purdue fought hard against Wisconsin, but lost, 7 to 0. The Bolshackers got another hard blow when Captain Harneson broke a bone in his ankle. It is reported the half-back will be out for the remainder of the year.

Indiana "U," was too strong for Miami and defeated the Ohio team, 25 to 7. Franklin slid through the mud to a 7 to 6 victory over State Normal. Hanover's homecoming was a failure when Earlham beat the Hilltoppers, 26 to 0. Evansville defeated Rose Poly, 6 to 0. Indiana Central in a Saturday morning battle defeated Muncie Normal, 6 to 0, as a part of the homecoming celebration at University Heights.

Indianapolis Independent Eleven
Downs Linden Team, 19 to 0.

The Laughner Southpaws defeated the Linden (Ind.) team at Crawfordsville on Sunday, 19 to 0. Williams of the winners starred by his long runs. The Southpaws have lost only one game in two years.

Games are wanted with State teams to be played away from Indianapolis. Address O. E. Laughner, 743 N. Noble St.

There were fourteen safeties scored, Drake scoring three against Grinnell in one game.

Close One to Kokomo
Elwood Legion Defeated, 6 to 0, in Sunday Grid Clash.

KOKOMO, Ind., Oct. 26.—The Kokomo American Legion team squeezed out a scant 6 to 0 victory over the Elwood Legion eleven here Sunday. During the first half the two teams battled near the center of the field in the mud.

The locals came back in the third quarter and carried the ball down the field and Buckles went over from the one-yard line for a touchdown. Efforts to score the additional point failed.

De Hority, lanky end for Elwood, encouraged his team in the last quarter when he snagged two passes that gained sixty yards, but the punch ended there and Elwood failed to score.

Next Sunday the locals meet Hartford City here.

"Big Green" Eleven Smothers Harvard

—Pennsy Keeps Records Clean—Other Winners.

By Henry L. Farrell
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Coming out of another Saturday of hard competition with their heads high, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Iowa, Alabama, Stanford, Missouri and Ames are still leading for intersectional football honors.
