

NEW POOR' DRIVERS OF AUTOS NUMEROUS

Salvation Army Officials Say Many Tourists Drift in and Ask for Aid—Have Only 'Flivvers.'

Nothing new under the sun? Our stranded automobile parties here. Most of these insist that they are hunting employment and drift from town to town in the search. Staff Capt. J. C. Elmquist feels that the children of these automobile tramps are especially unfortunate, as they are kept out of school.

"Something should be done about this, on account of the little ones," he commented. "It is so unfair to the future of these children. Of course we respond to the actual needs of these stranded tourists," he continued. "But we draw the line on gasoline, unless the case is exceptional."

But the "new poor" obtain gasoline some way, and keep on "toorin' and toorin'."

"Think," said a pessimist who just been touched for a nice little can of gasoline, "what is going to be when the Florida bubble bursts—say next spring, and the new poor begin to 'fly' back North."

As it is, the Salvation Army and other charity stations are constantly approached for aid by the "new poor" touring automobile drivers. These persons are in various stages on the downhili path, usually possessing absolutely nothing but the more or less decrepit flyver and often are in actual need of food.

AT SALVATION ARMY

All through the summer and early all the Indianapolis Salvation Army headquarters has been visited each week by an average of from two to

AUDITOR IS ENJOINED

Citizens Oppose 10 Per Cent Increase by State Tax Board.

By United Press
ROCHESTER, Ind., Oct. 30.—The county auditor of Fulton County today was permanently enjoined from placing on the tax duplicate a 10 per cent horizontal increase ordered by the State tax board.

The injunction was granted by Judge R. R. Carr in Circuit Court, on a petition of individual taxpayers who charged the State tax board was without jurisdiction and had not complied with the statutes.

RAILROADER IS KILLED

Another Seriously Hurt When Crushed Under Freight Car.

By United Press
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 30.—One man is dead and another is in a hospital today probably fatally hurt as the result of being crushed under a freight car in the local Pennsylvania shops here.

The dead man is Oliver Boyll, 25, and the injured is Ethel Dowden, 18, both railroaders.

FOR REFORMATION DAY

A union service celebrating Reformation day will be held at the Methodist Church, New Jersey and New York Streets, at 3 p. m. Sunday. The Rev. G. E. Hiller will preach on the "Reformation Call to Liberty."

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.

This was announced today in the annual report of Mrs. Edward F. White, former deputy assistant attorney general, who took office the first of the year.

Since the first of the year decisions on 3,380 points of State law have been compiled, the report said.

For the first time since the creation of the office in 1851 the reporter of the State Supreme and Appellate Courts is up-to-date in the compilation of court decisions.