

These Men Seeking City Offices

Here are the biographies of Republican and Democratic candidates for city clerk and city councilmen:

CITY CLERK

THOMAS B. WRIGHT, 55, of 642 Division St., is the candidate for city clerk on the Democratic ticket. He was born in Brazil, Ind., and has lived in Indianapolis for the past thirty years. Wright has been continuously employed by the William Burford printing establishment since he has lived in this city.

He has served as a national delegate for Typographical Union No. 1 and is now a member of the executive committee. Wright was the precinct and ward committeeman for the Democratic party during the candidacy of Thomas Taggart for mayor. He is married and has four children. For the past twenty years he has served as an officer in the Red Men. Wright is a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Enterprise Civic League and has served as a national representative for the Haymakers' convention.

WILLIAM A. BOYCE, 29, of 701 N. Riley Ave., is the candidate for city clerk on the Republican ticket. He was born in Gas City, Ind., April 26, 1896, and received his elementary schooling in that city.

In 1913, his parents moved to Indianapolis and he graduated from Manual Training High School in 1914. Boyce then took a business course and obtained a position as secretary in the Beech Grove Big Four Shops. He advanced to various positions and resigned in 1919.

He then became secretary to the president of the Cole Motor Car Company and later was production manager. He left his position there about a year ago and is now in the advertising department of the local branch of the Ford Motor Company. Boyce is married and has one child. He is a member of the East Tenth Street M. E. Church and Center Lodge F. and A. M.

FOR COUNCILMAN

ARTHUR W. LYDAY, 27, of 420 N. Riley Ave., is a candidate for city councilman from the first district. Lyday was born in Indianapolis in 1898 and was educated in the public schools here.

He has taken an active interest in the political affairs of the city since he reached his majority and has been in close contact with the business affairs in his district. Lyday is the business representative of the Motion Picture Projectionists. He is married and has three children.

ROBERT E. SPRINGSTEEN, 58, of the Dolly Madison Apts., Twelfth and Alabama Sts., is a candidate for city councilman from the second district. He was educated in the Indianapolis public schools and has been general manager of the When Stores. Later he conducted his own merchant tailoring business.

He was postmaster of Indianapolis in 1913 and served in this office for more than nine years. He aided in organizing the Federal Reserve Company, from which he retired about two years ago. He was Indiana director of the war savings campaign. He is a member of the Elks Club.

K. of P. and belongs to the Indianapolis Athletic Club and the Indiana Democratic Club.

EDWARD B. RAUB, 54, of 2855 N. Pennsylvania St., is a candidate for city councilman from the Third district. Raub was born in White County, Indiana, Dec. 23, 1871, and came to Indianapolis in 1894.

He is a graduate of the Indiana Law School and De Pauw University, vice president and general counsel of the Indianapolis Life Insurance Company, director of the Fletcher American Company, Security Trust Company, and the Forty-Second Street State Bank. He was city attorney 1903-05 and has twice served as county attorney. He is now a governor of the Board of Trade and has been the president of the organization during the past year.

Raub is a Thirty-second Degree Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Mason and a member of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

MILLARD W. FERGUSON, 40, of 378 N. Holmes Ave., is candidate for city councilman from the Fourth district. Ferguson was born in 1885 in Pike County, Indiana, and was educated in the public schools. He came to Indianapolis when a young man and for several years was a supervisor in the Central Hospital for the Insane.

He left the hospital to engage in business and has conducted a grocery for many years. He has been a director and a trustee for the Indianapolis Retail Grocers' Association.

Ferguson has been active in political organization work, but never before has been a candidate for office. He has lived for the past twenty years at his present address. He is a member of the Odd Fellow lodge.

R. ALBERT W. MILLER, 47, of 1541 Union St., is a candidate for city councilman from the Fifth district. He was born in Ripley County, Indiana, in 1878.

He taught school in Ripley County before taking up the study of medicine in 1903. Two years later he began the practice of medicine in this city. For seven years he served as medical inspector of the schools for the city health board. At the present time he is Marion County health commissioner, having been appointed Jan. 1, 1925.

FRED W. VEHLING, 42, of No. 6 Fredrick Apts., is running for councilman from the Sixth district. He was born in Indianapolis in 1883 and was educated in the public schools here.

In 1900 he became a licensed embalmer, and was in business with his father as a funeral director. Recently he purchased the entire business from his father, Henry C. Vehlning, and now has offices at 702-4 Virginia Ave.

REPUBLICANS

CLAUDE E. NEGLEY, 50, of 2212 Ashland Ave., is a candidate for city councilman from the Second District. He was born on a farm near Castleton, Ind., and attended the public schools at Castleton. He completed his education at Broad Ripple High School.

Twenty years ago he moved to Indianapolis and was engaged in the sand and gravel business until a short time ago. He is married and is the father of four children who attend the public schools here. He is affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Negley is a member of the Mystic Tie lodge, F. and A. M., and is a Shriner and a thirty-second degree Mason. He is also a member of the Brookside lodge, I. O. O. F.

WALTER R. DORSETT, 40, of 1334 Keating Ave., a barber, is candidate for city councilman from the First District. He is a member of the Brookside United Brethren Church, Marion Lodge F. and A. M. and the Shrine.

RAY ALBERTSON, 32, of 2943 N. New Jersey St., is a candidate for city councilman from the Third district. He is a graduate of the Indianapolis schools.

Albertson is engaged in the retail furniture business in the northern part of the city. He is a life member of the Quaker church and is a member of various civic clubs. He is a member of the Capitol City Lodge F. and A. M., a thirty-second Mason, a Shriner and is a member of the Order of Red Men.

DR. AUGUST H. TODD, 39, of 323 W. Twenty-Ninth St., is candidate for city councilman from the Fourth district. Dr. Todd was born in Clifton, N. Y., May 28, 1886. In 1891 his family moved to Rushville, Ind., where he received his elementary education.

He came to Indianapolis in 1906 and was employed at various places until 1910 when he entered the Indiana Dental College. He enlisted in the Reserve Dental Corps in 1913, and was mustered out of the service four years later.

He is married and has three children attending the public schools here. He is a member of the American Legion, K. of P. Lodge 470; and is ex-president of the Better Business Men's League of North Indianapolis. He attends the Seventh Christian Church.

TIS E. BARTHOLOMEW, 41, of 1236 S. Senate Ave., candidate for councilman from the Fifth district, was born at Arcadia, Ind., April 7, 1884. He completed a high school education and then entered the electrical field.

In 1907 he joined the Army and served in Cuba. He was mustered out of the service in 1910 with a non-commissioned rank and came to Indianapolis. He has been employed by various electrical companies since then and now has his own electrical company.

He is married and has three children attending the public schools. Bartholomew is a member of the Center Lodge F. and A. M., and attends the Morris Street M. E. Church.

BRYANTON J. MOORE, 31, of 1626 Spruce, is a candidate for city councilman from the Sixth district. He was born in Indianapolis Sept. 7, 1894, within a few blocks of his present residence.

He has been engaged in the grocery business practically all of his life. Moore graduated from Manual Training High School and from business college. About six years ago he went into the grocery business for himself. He is married and has two children.

Moore is a member of the Prospect Lodge F. and A. M., and attends the Second Church of Christ Scientist.

MONEY FOR SEWER

Park Board Makes Appropriation for Construction.

On recommendation of Frank C. Lingenfelter, city engineer, the park board has appropriated $1,250 as half of a sum necessary to construct a concrete apron at the mouth of the Twenty-Second St. sewer into Fall Creek. Lingenfelter said it was necessary to correct an insanitary condition. He will ask board of works to appropriate the remainder. Charles A. Bookwalter, president, was authorized to confer with the board of works relative to opening of Watson road north into Thirty-Eighth St. Specifications for improvement of Kesler Blvd. from Westfield Blvd. to Central Ave. on Fifty-Ninth St. with gravel were approved.

OWNS U. S. LAND

HONOLULU, Oct. 30.—Arrangements for building a park in Hawaii brought to light the fact that a small area of land in this country is owned by Great Britain. It was deeded to the British government in 1877 by the late A. S. Clegburn and his wife and has remained British territory ever since. It stands a peculiar instance of British-owned land in American territory.
