

CANADA VOTES HIGH TARIFF

King, Liberal, Is Overthrown
—Conservatives Win.

By United Press
MONTREAL, Quebec, Oct. 30.—The Conservative party of Canada, led by Arthur Meighen, has overthrown the Liberal government of McKenzie King, Canadian premier, returns today from the general elections.

The conservatives have won about 120 seats. A total of 123 is necessary to give them a clear majority in Parliament, but it was generally conceded that with the help of a few independent and progressive votes, Meighen can form a ministry.

The new government will have a high protective tariff and prosperity for Canada as the keynotes of its policy.
