

EVACUATION OF BULGARIA ENDS

Greeks Complete Retirement.

ATHENS, Oct. 30.—Bulgarians along the Macedonian frontier, pushed back by the Greek invasion over the border, started today to re-occupy their abandoned territory under supervision of French, British and Italian military attacks.

It has been agreed that the Bulgarians should only return to their frontier posts when the Greek evacuation was complete and the Greeks were safely ensconced in their old places on the Greek side.

With this re-occupational the original status was restored and the border incident was deemed definitely closed from a military standpoint.

HIGH MASON TO BE HERE

Scottish Rite Lodge Plans for Reunion Nov. 16-20.

Admiral Grand Lodge of Perfection is making arrangements to entertain visitors at the sixtieth semi-annual convocation and reunion of the Scottish Rite Nov. 16-20.

Leon M. Abbott of Boston, sovereign grand commander of the supreme council thirty-third degree for the northern Masonic jurisdiction of the United States, will be a special guest. He will be the first head of the body to be entertained by the local Masons since 1817. Abbott will speak at the banquet the closing day of the meeting.

Samuel F. Hubbard, marshal of the camp, and one of the officers of the supreme council and Mrs. Abbott will accompany him.

Whatever You Do—Don't Miss This Sale of Fur-Trimmed Coats Unusual Variety in Fabrics and Trimmings

For Women, Misses and Stouts

We ask that you do not judge this sale by any idea you may have as to what $23 coats are like. In fairness to yourself, come and examine them critically. Inspect the beautiful coatings—see the heavy trimming of smart furs—notice the workmanship. Everything about these coats hints of a price much higher than $23—and no one will believe that you paid as little.

$23

These exceptionally desirable coats are going on sale Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock. And unless the public has lost its appreciation of unusual values, the response will be tremendous. We secured the coats from several New York makers who were late in making deliveries and who received many resultant cancellations of orders. Of course we bought to unusual advantage.
