

STIRRIN' the DOPE

By VEDDER GARD

THE South Side Turners are making plans to hold an amateur boxing show on Wednesday evening, Nov. 11, and have asked the local boxing commission to protect their entertainment from competition by withholding a date for a professional show that week. The request will come before the commission at their meeting Wednesday night of this week.

By reason of the fact that the amateur shows are held but few times during the year in this city and that the professional shows are being held each week, it seems that the commission could well grant the favor asked by the amateurs. In the interest of boxing considered as a sport, or as a commercial proposition, it is wise to encourage the amateurs, as from their ranks come the performers who make the pro game possible. Sidney Gluck, Ray Hahn, Happy Atherton, Roy Wallace and various other local paid mitt slingers learned the many art while competing in amateur clubs and at amateur shows. And despite the fact that amateur shows can be staged at less expense than the professional cards, it is by no means all "dope" and "grange" on occasions amateur shows in this city have lost money for the clubs sponsoring them.

Quite a substantial sum is paid out for medals or other prizes for the contestants, who number three or four times those in an ordinary pro show; officials must be paid, and advertising bills met.

It might be a good thing for the professional promoters to lay off a week. One show a week for Indianapolis is a little strong, anyway.

ACROSS THE BOARD TODAY

Princess Doreen cost us plenty on Saturday when she finished fourth in the Washington Handicap at Laurel, apparently not liking the heavy going. She won $200 across the board on the Princess and also had her in a parlay $200 win, place and show. In spite of the $120 dropped we had a winning day.

Caster won the race at Churchill Downs and a three-horse parlay went over on the place and show ends. Bradshaw, Abner and Old Slop, all finished second. We won $45.30 on the parlay and $93 on Caster. This shows $13.30 on the right side of the ledger. The bank roll today is $283.05.

Today we will put $25 win, place and show on JOHN FINN in the first at Churchill Downs. He doesn't figure to beat Coburn and Traymore, but figures to be in the money. He is in light to-day. These maiden races are tough, but we will risk $5 across on the filly. LANCELOT easily beat the best of the boys in the fourth. We will play him $10 win and place. We are hoping the track will be in good shape. The gelding doesn't seem to fancy mud. FORTY may be there in the seventh. Ten dollars win and place is the ticket.

CAN you blame us for reprinting the following which ran in this column last Friday?—"The East will get its first glimpse of Red Grange on Saturday in the Pennsylvania game, and we have a hunch that some of those fans are going to open their eyes. We just sorta feel as though Red is going to get away with something spectacular. The contest furnishes a chance for a big upset of dope, and although Penna is an almost unanimous choice of all critics to win, it would not give us any great shock to see Illinois come back to the West with the scalp of the greatest in the East."

And also this, in speaking of the Yale and Army game—"There's a game we would like to see. We would like to be there when Yale upsets the dope and downs the Cardinals."

If we are never right again all year, there's a couple of predictions we can always refer to when anyone starts kidding us about picking 'em wrong. Pardon us this once for saying, "I told you so."

How they do speed! Bob McDaniel needed not feel so bad about missing the 250-mile world's record for autos by 58-100 of a second just a week ago today at Laurel Speedway. Saturday Pete DePaolo, according to press reports, shattered the old record of Milton by flashing around the Salem (N. H.) oval at an average speed of 128 miles an hour.

Just what is the limit on this speed game?

PIMLICO race track opens today. It probably is the lucky Maryland course. The weather this fall has been terrible on the thoroughbred sport. Not satisfied with rain the weather man has dished out snow. October has been a stormy month in all sections and racing has suffered by it.

The good grounds which have turned out in spite of the inclement weather is a fine indication of the hold the sport has on the American public.

It is about time for the sun to shine and the tracks to dry out. The muds have had too much opportunity. Everyone would like to see a little cloud of dust on the back stretch.

CRITICS FAVOR MICHIGAN AS BEST COLLEGE TEAM OF 1925

CHICAGO IS NEXT FOR RED

Maroons Have Real Grounds for 'Fear' This Week—Illini Recover.

By Edward C. Derr, United Press Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Red Grange has returned to the Middle West and this section of the country will divide its time the remainder of the football season between congratulating Red for his magnificent work last Saturday and worrying about what he will do against teams he has yet to meet.

Grange, from the Middle Western viewpoint, established the superiority of Middle Western football by defeating Penn, one of the best in the East, 24 to 2.

But Illinois' great victory over Penn demonstrated another thing—that Bob Zuppke at last has built a line that can charge and block and a backfield that can run interference for Grange. This means Illinois may yet cause trouble in the Big Ten conference despite the fact the Orange and Blue already is eliminated from championship hopes.

Grange will be called upon to show his wares this week-end against Chicago's Maroons, a team that has not been defeated so far in the Big Ten. If the Wheaton ice man performs anything like he did against Penn, Chicago will be sent out of the championship race.

The Maroons scored an unimpressive victory over Purdue Saturday, winning by the scant margin of 6 to 0, and will have to play much better football to beat Illinois.

Michigan, with three conference victories and no defeats, Iowa, with two wins, and Chicago, with two victories and one tie, lead in the Big Ten. Minnesota got a tie in its only conference action. All the other Big Ten teams have been beaten.

MINTIRE HIGH

J. D. Mintire was high in the singles event of the weekly trapshoot at the Indianapolis Gun Club Saturday, breaking 94 out of 100 targets. Mrs. Remy, Lewis and Stutz tied in the handicap with 22 each out of 25. McIntire and Emerson tied in the doubles with 18 out of twelve pairs.

Independent Football

The Ferndale Triangles kept up their good work Sunday in the curtain-raiser at Washington Park and defeated the College Club 14 to 0. The club were evenly matched with the winners did not score until the final period.

The Christiansburg A. C. grid team will hold practice Wednesday night. The Grappler A. A. failed to show up for a scheduled game with the Redskins at the Christiansburg A. C. field. The A. C. has a park permit for Sunday and Monday, Nov. 2 and 3, for a football game. Call Belmont 1175.

The Tuxedo Maroons defeated the Cardinals Reserve, 6 to 0, in a long drive in the third period when P. LANCELOT easily beat the best of the boys in the fourth. We will play him $10 win and place. We are hoping the track will be in good shape. The gelding doesn't seem to fancy mud. FORTY may be there in the seventh. Ten dollars win and place is the ticket.

PROBABLY THE MAIN REASON

WHY RED GRANGE IS THE MOST OF IT IS THAT HE HAS MORE CHANCE TO REPRODUCE HIS CAPACITY IN THAT LINE.

BIG TEN TEAMS PROVE TOO MUCH FOR HOOSIERS

Hoosier teams in last Saturday's games with Big Ten eleven could not turn in a victory, but in every instance put up great fights and did their best. One can ask no more. Three teams from this State invaded the camps of the Western Conference schools and each was forced to come back home with a defeat on its record.

Chicago beat Purdue, 6 to 0; Northwestern downed I. U., 17 to 14; and Iowa won over Wabash, 28 to 7. There was almost as much honor for the Bollermakers in defeat as for the Maroons in victory. Coach Phelan's youths, without the services of Gladders or Captain Harneson, fought the heavy Chicago team to a standstill through most of the game and threatened seriously to score in the final period.

Kick Beats Crimson

Indiana U. lost a heart breaker. The Crimson tied the game up in the last quarter with only a few minutes to play and the contest appeared to be a deadlock. But it was not to be. A place kick from the toes of Lewis gave the Purple three points and the game.

Northwestern made one touchdown in the first period and one in the second. I. U. scored first on a fifty-yard run by Captain Marks. The Indiana score in the final period was made possible by an aerial attack with Salmi, the southpaw, heaving the passes. Salmi plunged over for a touchdown.

Wabash put up a game fight against Iowa and led the strong Hawkeye aggregation in the first half, 7 to 4. But the husky Iowans could not be denied and wore down the Scarlet line to score twenty-four points, three touchdowns and a drop kick in the first half. Kutsch, Iowa backfield sensation, did not play.

Rush made the touchdown for Wabash on a pass from Prall. Wabash could not stop the battering attack of Fry, great Iowa full back, in the final periods.

N. D. Victory
Notre Dame added another victory to its record by defeating Georgia Tech at Atlanta under weather conditions extremely disagreeable. The contest was played in a mud puddle with a ceaseless drizzle in the air. Only about 10,000 saw the game. Georgia Tech, for some reason or other, used a second string team most of the time. Flanagan was the big noise for the winners. He made both of the touchdowns which came in the first and second periods. And still there remains some doubt as to the strength of the "Irish."

In another out-of-State game James Millikan defeated State Normal, 13 to 9, at Decatur, Ill.

There were not many games played on Hoosier soil. Franklin up-

IN "Shorty" Norman, who weighs only 125 pounds, Tulane University of New Orleans believes it has the lightest half back holding down a regular varsity position. Despite his seeming lack of size, Norman is one of the most consistent ground gainers in the back field and is a wonder on defense.

CITY FRACAS

Ferndales Beat Southpaws 21-7—Zivich Shines.

Elated with their decisive 21-to-7 victory over the Southpaw football team at Washington Park Sunday, the Ferndales will settle down to practice this week, preparing for the invasion next Sunday of Cooney Checkay's Jonesboro Filers.

Displaying everything that it takes to win football games, the west siders romped over the challengers for the city title and scored touchdowns in three quarters. Zivich was the individual star of the Ferndales. Secret, Brooks and Zivich registered touchdowns for the Ferndales. Zivich kicked three times for point after touchdown.

The Southpaws rallied in the second quarter and scored a touchdown on a pass, Aubrey to Williams, over the line. D. Weaver made a place kick for the seventh point.

Duttenbarger, Ferndales, suffered a fractured collarbone in the third quarter.

Jines and Lepper played stellar line games for the winners and Aubrey, Dempsey and Rivers were the main performers for the Southpaws.

CITY CUE TOURNEY

The annual city three-cushion billiard tourney will start tonight at the Board of Trade parlors. The week's schedule follows:

Tonight—Mitchell vs. Carter.
Tuesday—Shane vs. Spivey.
Wednesday—Hornum vs. Clark.
Thursday—Lewis vs. Mosher.
Friday—Carter vs. Cook; afternoon, Simmons vs. Able.

Wolverines Appear to Be Entitled to Grid Crown—Yale Does Comeback in East.

BU UNITED PRESS
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—With an overwhelming 54 to 0 victory over a fine Navy team, Michigan ranks the best football team of the season, in the opinion of eastern critics. The downfall of Penn before Red Grange's Illinois team and the defeat handed to a powerful Army eleven by Yale removed the two leading eastern contenders for the mythical national championship and left Michigan practically alone.

Dartmouth remains undefeated now as the Eastern leader, but Dartmouth hasn't the record that Michigan has made.

Michigan has beaten three Western Conference teams—Indiana, Wisconsin and Illinois. Indiana held Syracuse to two touchdowns and Illinois drubbed Penn.

Yale staged a surprising comeback with a brilliant defense that turned all the Army errors into points. If Dartmouth is defeated in the coming games and Syracuse does not keep a clean slate, Yale will be very much in the running for the Eastern title. Alabama, with four victories and no defeats, is leading the Southern teams. Missouri, undefeated, holds first place in the Missouri Valley conference and Stanford, California and Washington are tied for the lead on the Pacific coast.

Michigan, of course, appears to be the class of the Western Conference, though Iowa may put forward a strong claim.

Eastern football took a bad smacking when Penn and the Navy, two of the best teams in the East, were flopped by Michigan and Illinois Saturday, the Middle West also scoring when Notre Dame beat Georgia Tech.

State Three-Cushions

WEEK'S SCHEDULE
Tonight—Cooler vs. Rubens.
Tuesday—Curtis vs. O'Connor.
Wednesday—Bosson vs. Sharts.
Thursday—Kemper vs. Klein.
Friday—Afternoon, Ramsey vs. Sharts; night, at Anderson, Black vs. O'Connor.

VICTORY FOR KOKOMO

Legion Eleven Defeated Hartford, City in Sunday Game.
By Times Special
KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 2.—Hartford City gridlers were removed from the field of contenders for the State pro title here Sunday when the local American Legion team walked them 13 to 0. The winners displayed a brand of football they have lacked since their victory over the Dayton Koors, four weeks ago. Hartford City tried hard to rally in the second half, but fell short at critical times.

GOSPORT BEATS LINDEN

By Times Special
GOSPORT, Ind., Nov. 2.—Playing without the services of four mainstays, who were injured in the Hartford City game, the Gosport Filers Sunday defeated the Linden eleven 13 to 0. Gosport and Hartford City tied at 7 and 7 the week previous. Gosport plays the Legion team at Kokomo next Sunday.

PENNSY FRAY

Cumberland Downs J. J. C. S. in Close Contest.

The Cumberland football team defeated the J. J. C. S. 7 to 0, Sunday at Pennsy Park before the largest crowd that has assembled this season at the east side gridiron. The red-hot struggle kept the fans in a frenzy.

The only scoring was in the second period, when Walter Hoff, Cumberland quarterback, leaped over from the one-yard line and rang up six points, to which was added the extra point after touchdown when H. Limbach booted the ball over the bar.

The locals, although outwitted, made a fine showing and made first down a number of times.

The J. J. C. S. have issued a challenge to the Brightwoods and the Southpaws and hope to arrange a game with one of them for next Sunday at Pennsy Park.

EM-ROE BASKET SQUAD

Callahan Lines Up Fast Talent For Coming Season.

Sam Kauffman and Dutch Ritchie, son, former members of the Prest-O-Lite and Shelbyville Elks basketball teams, have been signed as members of this season's Em-Roe squad, according to Carl Callahan, promoter and manager of the local five.

Johnny Hennessy, Wallis Midleworth, Hank Stevens, Brooks Secret and Marty Frankfort of last season's squad have been practicing with the Em-Roe along with the Shelbyville recruits, and the early season form displayed is very encouraging.

DETROIT IN LEAD

By Times Special
DETROIT, Nov. 2.—The Detroit Panthers retained their lead of the National Professional Football League Sunday by defeating the Hammond Hoosiers, 28 to 6. A forward pass for twenty yards netted a touchdown for the Hoosiers in the first few minutes of play. The Panthers scored a touchdown in every period.

"Had Fine Visit," Says Red

BU UNITED PRESS
URBANA, Ill., Nov. 2.—Red Grange returned to his classes at the University of Illinois today, and if he had his way about it he would be simply "one of the 11,000 students" doing the same thing.

Thousands of people stormed the railroad station here Sunday night when Red and his mates returned from Philadelphia, where they upset Penn, 24 to 2. There was a cheer and there were many hand-claps for all of the squad, including Coach Zuppke. But for Grange there was more.

Red was hoisted to the shoulders of the crowd—after he had tried to escape by ducking off the rear platform—and was carried by the rejoining multitude to his fraternity house. There he was called upon for a speech.

"We had a fine visit down East," he began, in a stuttering voice. "I don't know how to thank you fellows for everything, but the team deserves the credit. And we're certainly going to do everything in our power to lick Chicago next Saturday."

GRID-Quiz

QUESTIONS
1. Can an incoming substitute on entering the game communicate to his captain information sent out by the coach?
2. What is the penalty if an illegal player return to the game and his presence is later discovered?
3. What is the status of a player withdrawn during the second half?

ANSWERS
1. There is a penalty of a loss of fifteen yards if an incoming substitute communicates with players on the field before the ball is put in play.
2. The player shall be suspended from the game and his team shall be penalized half the distance to the goal line from the spot of the down where the illegal substitution and its discovery. If play shall have intervened between the time of the illegal substitution and its discovery, the penalty shall be enforced from the spot where the illegal substitution was discovered.
3. If the coach withdraws a player during the second half he may not return again to the game.
