National Cash Register
Salesmen Must Explain.

United Press
CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Charged with violation of a decree regulating competition, ninety-two salesmen of the National Cash Register Company, were under contempt of court order today to appear in Federal Court here Dec. 15.

The order was issued at the request of John L. Lott, special investigator of the Department of Justice, who has been investigating the sales policy of the cash register concern.

Lott charged specifically that the salesmen used unfair competitive methods.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 50c and 90c.—Advertisement.

Ever have ECZEMA?

Hope you never did—hope you never will. Of all the awful itching, burning, agonizing breakings out of the skin, eczema is the worst. It's terrible. You know it, too, if you have it. Makes you miserable all over—just tears your nerves to pieces—embarrasses you and lowers your efficiency.

But listen! You can stop eczema! S. S. S. does it. The blood is where the real trouble is. Poor blood and eczema go together. Lack of healthy, rich, red blood allows impurities to get into the system and break out through the skin. That's eczema.

S. S. S. puts the blood back in fighting trim—puts the "pep" back in the blood. Red-blood-cells destroy the impurities—purify the system. Eczema, boils, pimples, blotches, blackheads, rashes and other skin eruptions vanish—leaving the skin clear, cool and healthy. Thousands have dried up eczema with S. S. S. Just try it. Get S. S. S. at your druggist. Ask him for the larger bottle. It's more economical.

Roofless Plates

The splendid appreciation shown by the vast number of people for whom we have constructed roofless plates is indeed highly gratifying to us. The most enthusiastic are those who have discarded their old style plates. No more gagging or sick stomach. Perfect taste and speech. No rocking, snoring, easily kept clean. It's the last word in artificial teeth.

Spectators at Trial Watch Silently

Trio in Noblesville Trial
Not Popular With Townfolk.

By Eldora Field

CIRCUIT COURT ROOM, NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Nov. 3.—Gray-haired farmers and their wives—honest folk—scores of them, sit with grim faces in this brown-walled court room, where bit by bit the State is presenting evidence which may send D. C. Stephenson, Earl Klink and Earl Gentry to the electric chair.

Silently they study the faces of the prisoners, Stephenson, Klink and Gentry, charged with the murder of Miss Madge Oberholzer. Every inch of space is taken. The walls are lined and spectators choke the aisles.

Mother's Sobs Heard

A mother's broken-hearted sobs were heard in this courtroom two days ago, and their echo is still here. A father's manly attempt to relate unmoved what his daughter had told him, when dying, faltering "Oh daddy, it was so long—that ride from Hammond—" was heard.

Klink has the best poker face. Stephenson, casually observed, seems nonchalant, but tell-tale signs are showing through. There are nervous little twitchings at the corners of his eyes and he can't control those plump, smooth hands of his. Ida they may be, but a censorious intimation from the State, and those fingers fly to a pencil and he writes rapidly, anxiously.

And Gentry! At odd moments he searches the many unfriendly eyes out there before him.

Attitude Plain

There is small chance to mistake the attitude of the people. In the courtroom, in the streets of Noblesville, one hears nothing in defense of the prisoners. "They're good lawyers—they may fight free, but we hope the State will win," is the usual comment.

Mrs. Oberholzer expects to attend all the trial, "if I can stand it," she adds. "I could just hear Madge's voice when I testified. I'm afraid I didn't make a very good witness. I wanted to be so brave and strong, but they confused me with their objections. Telling about it, brought everything back so I'm sorry I cried," she added sadly.

Ira Holmes, defense attorney has received many threatening letters, he says.

"It should be remembered," he says, "that this case is parallel to many suicide cases. Take the case of a girl who has been promised marriage. If the young man desert her at the altar and she kills herself—regardless of prepared wedding clothes and other things, isn't the act suicide on the girl's part? Certainly."

Cornerstone Laid for Amalgamated Auditorium

Sketch of Amalgamated Auditorium

Cornerstone laying ceremonies for the new Amalgamated Auditorium being erected by the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, at Capitol Ave. and Pratt St., have been held. B. Foster is business agent of the local and president of the Amalgamated Auditorium Company.

George and Zimmerman, architects for the building; A. A. Mitchell and Company, contractors; Joseph Schlossberg, New York, general secretary and treasurer of the union, Frank Rosenbloom, Chicago, executive board member, and Jack Crow, Chicago organizer, participated in ceremonies.

An auditorium, stage and ballroom, smoking room and women's rest room, club rooms, offices and two shop rooms, are included in the fireproof structure.

The building is a dark full range of color of Chinchilla brick trimmed with Indiana Limestone entrances and pediments, the second floor being treated by a series of arches and a bay detailed in steel casement sash and copper.

The main doors are of heavy oak spoked with a wrought iron grille of the type similar to those used in the Toma Palazzo, Venice, the style being carried out in Italian Renaissance. The interior of the ballroom with a fifty foot vaulted ceiling is flanked on one side by a balcony treated with an arcade and walnut pilasters and cornice.

PARTY ENDS IN CUTTING

Political Meeting Results in Fight on Sheldon St.

A party and last stretch political meeting at the home of Willie Green, colored, 2343 Sheldon St., ended abruptly late Monday night when Green and Charles Walker, colored, 1929 Alford St., engaged in a fight.

Police found Walker in a doctor's office receiving treatment on a badly cut face. He refused to prosecute Green, however, stating they were good friends.
