

DRY CRUSADERS HOLD MEETING

Prohibition Body Is Fighting
Lawless Element.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The national biennial convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America opens here tomorrow to devise ways and means to "finish the prohibition job and eradicate the lawless element breeding disrespect for the laws of the country by refusing to comply with prohibition."

Approximately 2,000 members of the league and their supporters, including high Federal officials, Senators, Congressmen, Governors and others high in public affairs, will attend.

The liquor and brewery interests constitute the principal menace to the prohibition law, the league holds.

ROBINSON NAMES AID

Valparaiso Attorney Appointed Secretary by Senator.

Oliver M. Loomis, 26, Valparaiso attorney, has been named private secretary to Senator Arthur R. Robinson.

Loomis, who is the son of the late E. L. Loomis, Porter County Republican chairman, is a close personal friend of Robinson. He will go to Washington this week to arrange for the opening of the Senator's office Monday. Loomis is an active Tenth District Republican worker. He attended Michigan and Columbia Universities.

AMENDMENTS BEATEN

Ohio Refuses to Ratify Three Changes in Constitution.

By United Press
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 4.—Three proposed State constitutional amendments met crushing defeat in Tuesday's election, returns show.

The amendments, authorizing taxation of intangible property, a second extending to four years terms of elective offices and a third limiting the issuance of bonds of political subdivisions were refused ratification by majorities exceeding 100,000.

JUDGE RACE CLOSE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 4.—Oramel B. Irwin, independent, apparently has beaten William H. Crum, Republican, for county judge. The official report of the canvassing board will be necessary to determine the result.

LUMBER LEADER DIES

Jacob V. Stimson of Huntingburg Was Nationally Known Figure. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at Huntingburg, Ind., for Jacob V. Stimson, 64, hardwood lumber manufacturer, who died at his home in that city Tuesday. He was nationally known in the hardwood lumber business and was among the largest producers in that line.

He was a thirty-second degree Mason and Shriner, member of the Columbia Club and formerly was a director of the National Hardwood Lumber Association.

Surviving relatives are: The widow, one daughter, Mrs. Helen S. Seaburg, Huntingburg, and two sons, Robert C. Stimson, Memphis, Tenn., and Fred A. Stimson, Hartford City.

MAY CHANGE RATES

Railway Companies to Launch Equalization Program Jan. 1.

Railway companies composing the Central Freight Association, the Illinois Freight Association and the Western Trunk Line territories, will launch a freight rate equalization program Jan. 1, it has been announced by Indiana State Chamber of Commerce officials.

A conference will be held Nov. 9-18 in Chicago to outline plans for the program. The State Chamber will aid the carriers in their attempt to obtain rate reductions, but the organization will oppose any increase in Indiana.

ROAD HEARINGS SET

State Tax Board Fixes Date Week From Thursday.

Hearing on bond issues for two Washington County roads will be held by the State tax board, Nov. 12, the board announced today.

One bond issue of $35,500, carrying 4½ per cent interest, is for paving the Edward A. Miller Rd. or an extension of the pavement on E. Forty-Sixth St., from the Monon Railroad to Keystone Ave., and the other is for paving the I. V. Davidson Rd., an extension of E. Forty-Ninth St. from the Monon to Keystone Ave.

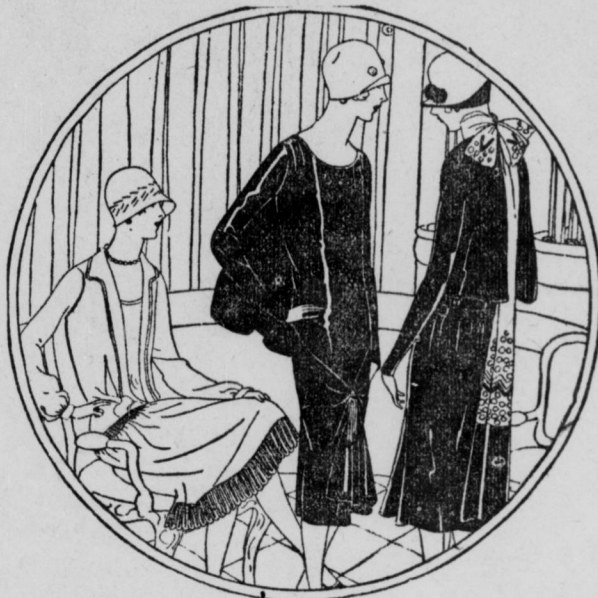

Remonstrators declared the expense of the two pavements would not be justified, because neither would be on main arteries.

LETTER CARRIERS MEET

Edward J. Gainer, Washington, president of the National Association of Letter Carriers, was the guest of honor Tuesday night at a meeting of the Indianapolis branch No. 39, held at the Chamber of Commerce. He discussed legislation and other subjects related to the carriers.
