

4 This coupon entitles you to admission to the Riverside Dance Palace and to free lessons in the "Charleston." You will not be admitted during the time when "Charleston" lessons are being given without this coupon.

Does Indianapolis like the "Charleston"? Nothing else but. And every one likes the free instruction in the new dance that The Indianapolis Times, with the management of the Riverside Dance Palace, is giving Indianapolis folks every night.

Gene La Verne, the "Charleston" expert from California, is the instructor.

At the Riverside Dance Palace Thursday night another big crowd—several hundred persons—came pouring in long before 8.

If you're young or old, extremely peppy, or only moderately so, you can skip right along with La Verne, because he teaches either the plain or fancy steps of the "Charleston." The lessons will continue until Nov. 23. Then there will be a big contest night, with dandy prizes for the best "Charlestoners." In the meantime, you can be learning absolutely free, this popular dance. Be sure to bring your Times coupon. Dancing will be from 8 to 10:30 to-night, Saturday and Sunday. Other nights, 8 to 10:30.

'Ma' Tinney Leaves Frank's Cave

By Times Special
NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—"Ma" Tinney threw all Frank Tinney's second-best bear skins, stone hatchets and burnt cork out into the rain Thursday and rolled a big stone up against the mouth of the Tinney home cave. The next time her black-face cave-man husband ambles around, he will find a sign in neatly cut neolithic letters: "If you know of a better cave, go to it." Her suit for divorce was heard before Supreme Court Justice Riegelmann at Martinsville, represented by counsel, entered no defense. There was a tear in the former Edna Davenport's eyes as she left the court. "I had to do it for the sake of the boy," she explained, drawing to her side the chubby youngster of seven, who has his actor-father's moon-round features and his mother's direct, wide-eyed gaze.
