RAMBLERS' FIVE ACTIVE

Members of the Indianapolis Ramblers net five got off to a flying start when they downed the New Augusta team, 33 to 17. The Ramblers will play on their home floor at the Liberty Hall gym every Tuesday evening at 8. Their first home game will be with the Ft. Harrison Company M. quintet Tuesday Nov. 10.

The Ramblers' line-up includes several former high school stars and local independent players. Hoesing (captain), J. Craig, R. Craig and Gaster are forwards; Phillips and Grigsby, centers; Carter, Lash, Buckner and Krasner guards; The Ramblers are making up their schedule and would like to book with fast State basketball teams. Address: R. Craig, 241 N. Keystone Ave., or call Webster 6353-W.

Independent Football

The Brightwood team is without a game for Sunday, and would like to meet from some last team call Drexel 1044 and ask for Joe Zimmerman.

The Apollo A. C. desires a game in the fourth round class. The Apollo defeated the latter A. C. 40 to 0. For games call Belmont 0563 and ask for Harry.

The Acme A. A. football team will practice tonight at Rhodus Park. The A. A. will play at Clayton, Ind., on Sunday. For games with the Acme call Belmont 4080-W and ask for Bill.

The late cancellation of the Wabash game on Sunday leaves the team without a contest. The Belmonts have played State games throughout the year and have a good record. Address: Manager Carpenter, 23 S. Holmes Ave., or call Belmont 1214.

Along the Sidelines

AT INDIANA
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 6.—The Hoosiers—liberty's strong—are on their way to Columbus for the Ohio game Saturday. The Hoosiers are expecting the light Indians to win.

AT PURDUE
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 6.—Coach Phelan is laying stress on the running attack in the game with the Hoosiers. The Hoosiers have been made up mostly of line-backing and end running plays.

AT NOTRE DAME
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 6.—Thirty-six members of the Notre Dame squad are speeding into the fair of Penn State today. Free from the Hoosiers and back to a hard week's practice, the team is in good shape for the game.

AT WISCONSIN
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 6.—After having missed Iowa plays all over the field during the week, the Hoosiers are on their way to Iowa City for the Saturday game confident of victory.

AT IOWA
IOWA CITY, Nov. 6.—Kurtz, due to an injury in scrimmage Thursday night, probably will not be able to start Saturday against Wisconsin. Dauber or Kuhl will take his place.

AT NORTHWESTERN
EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 6.—"Moore" Baker probably will not see service in the Michigan game Saturday. Coach Kuhlthwaite has announced that the "Moore" won't be in the game unless things look like the Wild Cats might have a chance to win.

AT MINNESOTA
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 6.—After shifting his team and experimenting with new men, Doc Spears has decided to use the same team against Butler Saturday that he used against Wisconsin last Saturday. The week's hard practice has developed some good results.

AT CHICAGO
CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Stager is laboring mightily to teach his defense the art of stopping Red Grange. The team is key to a high pitch and the "Old Man" plans to get the jump on Illinois right at the start.

AT MICHIGAN
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 6.—The Michigan team is on the way to Chicago to meet Northwestern. The line-up will be practically the same as that which started against the Navy last week.

Basketball Notes

The Communal Boys Club Midgets, formed by the Boys Club of Chicago, are arranging their schedule for the coming season and would like to hear from the following teams: Howard A. C., Christa, Emerson A. C., West Cross Juniors, Woodside Juniors and Hunter Midgets especially. For games write Coach Abe Gould, 1009 S. Dearborn St., City, or phone Seward 2693 about 6 P. M.

The Communal Y. M. H. A. opened their season with a 35-28 victory over the 2nd Five Backoff Becker and Simpson today good for the winners. There are a few open dates for the latter part of the season. The management would like to hear from strong city and State teams. Write Joe J. Burman, 1010 Union St., or call Drexel 0107 or Drexel 7084.

WABASH FROSH CONTEST

By Times Special
CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 6.—The entire Wabash first-year eleven is in the best of shape and is given the edge in Saturday's game with the Rose Poly freshmen.

Last year the Rose frosh defeated the Wabash freshmen, 6 to 0, and though held to a nothing-nothing tie by the Franklin freshmen last week, the Wabash team has been strengthened by the return of several regulars from the hospital list, and will present a strong line-up against the Engineers.

Coaches Vaughan and Reese kept the Wabash varsity team on the field for a long signal session on Thursday in preparation for the game with Chicago Y. M. C. A. college here Saturday.

BUTLER ON GRID-GRAPH

The Butler-Minnesota game will be reproduced on the Grid-Graph of Tomlinson Hall Saturday afternoon. From advance seat sale indications, a big crowd of fans is interested in what Butler is going to do up in Minneapolis. Many Butler students are expected to be on hand to cheer their team to victory.

In addition to showing the Butler-Minnesota game, scores on other games will be given out by quarters. This service has made Tomlinson Hall the Saturday afternoon football headquarters of hundreds of fans. The final showing of the Grid-Graph will be on Thanksgiving day, when Notre Dame plays Nebraska. Saturday's reproduction of the Butler-Minnesota game will start at 2 p. m.

YANKEES DENY DEAL

By United Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Officials of the New York Yankees denied that the Cleveland Club had suggested a deal for Wally Pipp, veteran first baseman, and Aaron Ward, second baseman. No trades of any kind are under way, it was said.

KAHN

Demonstration Event!

Proving the superiority of Kahn ready-for-wear clothes in these important respects—

1—Kahn Fabrics

are the kinds used in costly made-to-measure clothes—full weight, full bodied, 100% pure wool, cold water shrunk.

2—Kahn Workmanship is careful and painstaking, needed by men to whom quality is second nature.

3—Kahn Values

are the greatest in the clothing industry—because we are both the producers and the sellers—and our ready-for-wear clothes are produced on a non-profit basis—to keep the work in our great tailor shops equalized.

Consumers Has Not Raised Tire Prices

Last week has seen another price increase in tires by manufacturers the country over. Still tire prices at Consumers remain low. Again the tremendous buying power of this big house—the rapid turnover in sales—the small margin of profit on each sale—brings increased savings to customers. At Consumers you always get the most for your tire dollar.
