

WILL HAYS LATEST CHARLESTON FAN

Times Readers Can Get in 'Swim' by Clipping Coupons From Paper.

Extra, extra! Will Hays, a "prominent citizen of Sullivan, Ind.," and movie czar, was seen taking "Charleston" lessons. Howard Chandler Christy was his partner in crime. This happened in Los Angeles, Cal.

You see "everybody's doing it." If Hays and Christy were in Indianapolis they could have their "Charleston" lessons free. The Indianapolis Times and the management of Riverside Dance Palace have engaged Gene La Verne to give Times readers instruction in the rollicking new dance.

Gene La Verne is considered one of the best "Charlestoners" in the country. He's from California, and he's taught the "Charleston" from coast to coast. Just before the Times engaged him, he was in Louisville, where he showed over three thousand Kentuckians how to do the "side dip," the "bend knee" and the "scissors."

And it's not difficult. If you like to dance at all, you'll simply love the "Charleston." After you've learned, you'll be eligible for prizes, too. These free lessons continue until Nov. 23, then they'll have a big contest night out at the Riverside Dance Palace, and you can "Charleston" for some dandy prizes. Anyway, you can be learning. Might as well be up to date in your dance.

7 This coupon entitles you to admission to the Riverside Dance Palace and to free lessons in the "Charleston." You will not be admitted during the time when "Charleston" lessons are being given without this coupon.

ing. So clip the coupon from today's Times and come out tonight. Riverside Dance Palace, from 8 to 10:30.

FIREMAN, LONG ILL, FINDS REJUVENATION

Mr. J. Porsley, Indianapolis, Ind., Says Turning Point in Life Came When He Took Todd's Tonic.

"I have been suffering from kidney trouble, nervousness, loss of sleep and impure blood, for a number of years. This condition began to undermine my whole system, and as usual, I tried everything that was recommended to me in the line of medicine, without getting results. One day, I heard about Todd's Tonic, and I went to the drug store and got a bottle. Since then, I noticed the turning point in my life. I began to feel so much better, and my kidneys and liver began to act more normally. Todd's Tonic has toned up my whole system and I have been rejuvenated all over. My hearty thanks to Todd's Tonic."—MR. J. PORSLEY, 2108 Sugar Grove Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.
