LETTER FROM MRS. MARY ALDEN PRESCOTT TO PRISCILLA BRADFORD.

My Dear Priscilla:
I confess I was very much surprised to hear from you, but I was not surprised when I noted the contents of your letter. I knew the moment I looked and found your name at the end of it that I should find something very disagreeable between your salutation and your signature. However, I read it through to the end.

It is rather strange that I did not connect the charming, up-to-date man of the world whom I met at Atlantic City this summer, by the people of his name to whom I rented my house, but, you see, he did not mention he had a brother, let alone one who lived in Bradford. Consequently I did not think to ask him if he was any relative of theirs.

As for your spreading the news in my letter, my dear Priscilla, I know you will be only too glad to do so. That is the reason why I am writing it to you. I am sorry, however, that I shall have to take half your pleasure away in telling everybody what is in it by not forbidding you to do so. In the first place, let me say that I am wearing my skirts at the length prescribed by the best fashion experts. I have gone a great deal into society in New York, Atlantic City and Pittsburgh and neither my son nor my daughter-in-law would want me to look like a dowdy.

I also have a beautiful dinner gown of silver lace and because I do not like the joke Nature played upon me by making my lovely thick hair an ugly pepper and salt hue, I have had it expertly changed back to the bronze color which you will no doubt remember being the color of my hair some years ago.

I am quite sorry if this will not meet the approval of my old friends and neighbors. It ought to give them a great deal of pleasure, however, as they can gossip about it to their heart's content.

I can't imagine Mr. Orson Gibson living in Bradford. He is a very polite gentleman and he probably said the things that he knew the people around him would like him to say. Unless I feel very different from what I do now, I shall never go back to Bradford to live, but under no circumstances shall I sell the old house and furniture. They are a part of the history of my family, a part of it, of which I am very proud, as you know.

However, you may tell the Rev. Smalley for that I have not yet done anything to shame my ancestry and I do not expect to do so, although my skirts at the present moment are nine inches from the ground and my latest dinner dress has no sleeves. You may tell him that if he wishes to read this letter in church, he has my full permission.

Sincerely yours,
MARY ALDEN PRESCOTT.

Martha Lee Says

NO TRINITY OF LIFE, HATE AND HAPPINESS

Life, and love and happiness go hand in hand, the perfect trinity on earth. There is no such combination as life and hate and happiness, nor life, revenge and happiness. We cannot mix oil with water.

It is quite true that "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." It is a scorn that fires revenge and kindles hate to flaming passion. And the gains? None at all. There is no force of human heart and intellect so all-destroying as revenge. It is the child of a narrow, twisted ego, and the twin sister of an unreasonable jealousy.

There is no justification in its use, because it is a two-edged passion that cuts its giver down even as it wounds its victim. Because a man prefers another woman is no justification of a flaming hate from a woman who had loved him. Such a woman would be the last one on earth to hang about her fair neck a foul, dead bird, and wear it always. Yet even so is the scorn that burns out the heart of a woman who, finding her lover's heart changed toward her turns a wrath on him and herself. Human hearts are broken

High Collar

There's no doubt about it, the high collar is the smart way to treat your neck this season. Here is a new style that was noticed on a Paris import that recently made its way over here.

Information

Dear Miss Lee: I am 17 years old, five feet two inches tall and I weigh 110 pounds. What should be my proper weight?

When two couples are together does the weight count on, then the second couple? Or do they get on after the two girls?

ANTITA R.

Your weight should be 117 pounds.

I assume you mean the street car or some such conveyance, when I answer the girls "get on" first and then the boys follow.

A Gift for Baby

Dear Miss Lee: I wish to make a gift for a new baby boy. I am not certain what color is for boys. Could you advise me?

MARK.

In this part of the country pink is the chosen shade for baby boys, and blue for girls. In New York and the East, the reverse is true.

TO SET THE COLOR

Pinks and all shades of red should be soaked in salt water to set the color before they are laundered. This refers to cotton fabrics.

98 of Each 100 Women Benefited

A circular is enclosed with each bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound asking: "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" So far answers have been received from over 250,000 women. 98 per cent say "Yes." That means that 98 out of every 100 of these women who took the medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended say they were benefited by it.

These Four Women Tell of Their Experiences

MRS. ETHEL THURSTON

"For four weeks I suffered with awful pains and inflammation, and was in such misery that I had to bend double to get relief. I could not be touched or jarred, had awful pains all over my abdomen and could not touch my feet to the floor. It was impossible for me to straighten up and the pains never ceased. I thought I would never get any better. I took medicine for some time and finally was afraid I would have to have an operation. I had read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that my husband got it for me and I soon began to feel that it was doing me good. The awful misery began to leave me, also the backache. I have a good appetite and am gaining in weight. Taking this medicine was the best thing I ever did. I feel it has saved my life. At least it has saved me from a dreaded operation."—Mrs. Ethel Thurston, 324 North Pine Street, Lima, Ohio.

MRS. HARRY ASHCROFT

"I was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my housework as I could not stand because of the bearing-down pains in my back and stomach. I sat down most of the time and did what I could do in that way—as washing dishes, etc. One day a book describing Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine was put in my mail-box. I saw how the Vegetable Compound had helped others, so I gave it a trial. I had to take about a dozen bottles before I gained my strength, but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine for poor blood. I was cold all the time. I would be so cold I could hardly sit still, and in the palms of my hands there would be drops of sweat. I also used the Sanative Wash and can recommend it. You may publish this letter and I will gladly answer letters from women and advise my neighbors about these medicines."—Mrs. Harry Ashcroft, 632 Beech Avenue, Covington, Kentucky.

MRS. MARY WILHELM

"I have six children. I never got my strength back after my last baby was born. I was getting worse and thinner every day. I told this to a friend, and she said, 'Now do as I tell you. Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me.' So I started taking the Vegetable Compound, and I noticed that after the first few bottles that I felt considerably better. After taking nine or ten bottles I got over my fainting spells. Everybody who sees me now notices the great improvement in my health. I am gaining in weight and strength and am feeling fine. Eat well and sleep well nights. I also feel that if it was not for your medicine I would not be living today. You may publish this letter if you like, and any woman can write to me and I will answer the letter."—Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, 264 Erie Street, St. Paul, Minnesota.

MRS. OSCAR F. BORGELIN

"My first child lived only three days after it was born and I was sick a year after that. When I bent over and raised myself up again I could almost scream with pain in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my washing. Once when we had been in town a little while I took about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was left in our car. I have taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound now, and I do all my housework and help with the milking and taking care of chickens and garden. Besides I have a fine baby girl eight months old just the picture of health, and I am feeling fine myself. You may use this letter as a testimonial and I will answer any letters asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Oscar F. Borgelin, Route No. 1, Box 72, Forest City, Iowa.

For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been helping women to be strong and well, overcoming backache, nervousness, irregularities, weakness, displacements, inflammation, extreme nervousness and "the blues." It has proved invaluable in restoring strength after childbirth, also in avoiding the annoying symptoms incident to the Change of Life. Many women have written of operations avoided by its use.

THEREFORE ALL SICK AND AILING WOMEN SHOULD TRY

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
