

DR. FIFER TO SPEAK BEFORE MISSION BOARD

Annual Meeting of M. E. Mission Board Opens in Ohio.

THE annual meeting of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church opens today at Delaware, Ohio, for five days, at the invitation of the pastors of the several Methodist Churches in the community, and of the president and faculty of Ohio Wesleyan University.

This is the first time in the history of the Board that its sessions have been held in the Middle West. Annual meetings have been usually held in New York City, where the Board has its headquarters at 150 Fifth Ave.

Bishop Luther B. Wilson of New York will preside at the business sessions of the board in the Williams St. Methodist Episcopal Church. Besides a large number of the effective bishops from home and abroad and of ministers and laymen from every part of the United States, there will be in attendance about twenty-five Methodist missionaries now spending a year's furlough in America.

A number of Methodist missionary candidates—young men and young women from several Ohio colleges who plan to enter mission service upon their graduation—will also be in attendance.

A feature of the annual meeting this year will be three public gatherings in Gray Chapel of Ohio Wesleyan University for the consideration of phases of mission work in China, in Latin-America, and in Europe.

On Monday evening Dr. P. W. Kuo, president of Southeastern University, Nanking, China, will speak on "The Significance of the New Patriotism in China," and the Rev. James M. Yard, former editor of China Christian Advocate, Shanghai, on "The Foreign Missionary in New China."

On Tuesday evening Bishop Francis J. McConnell of Pittsburgh, and Bishop William F. Oldham of Buenos Aires, Argentina, will present various phases of "A Christian Movement in Latin-America."

On Wednesday evening Bishop Edgar Blake of Paris will address a public gathering in Gray Chapel on "Locarno and the World's Peace," and Dr. John W. Langdale of Brooklyn, just recently returned from Europe, where he attended the Stockholm conference, will speak on Stockholm and the Faith of the Churches."

Others who will speak on various phases of mission work overseas will be: Dr. John F. Edwards, corresponding secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions; Bishop William O. Shepard of Portland, Oregon; Dr. Jesse Jones, secretary of the Phelps-

Stokes Foundation; Dr. Sam Higginbottom, noted agricultural missionary from Allahabad, India; Bishop John L. Nuelens of Zurich, Switzerland; Dr. O. W. Fifer of the Central Ave. M. E. Church of Indianapolis; Charles Gibson of Albany, N. Y.; Bishop George A. Miller of Mexico City; Bishop E. G. Richardson of Atlanta, Ga.; Bishop Matthew Clark of Liberia.

EUROPEAN TALENT ON VIEW AT LYRIC

Le Roy, Talmi and Bosco, a trio of European magicians known all over the world for their clever illusions and baffling feats of mystification, will appear at the Lyric next week, presenting a brand new program of original tricks. Working with remarkable speed, they keep their audience in a constant state of surprise and wonderment. They devise most of their illusions, and are considered second to none in their particular style of entertainment.

The bill will include:

ARTURO BERNARDI—Celebrated Italian quick change artist, who, in a sketch that contains three scenes, portrays thirty-five different characters, making complete costume changes for each in such rapid succession that the effect is startling.

A great favorite in Europe, Bernardi are given performances, by special command, before all the royal courts.

MARION AND JERRY ROSS—Offering a new comedy skit entitled "Bidding Her Goodnight" this clever tea minstrelles humorous dialog with a lively assortment of songs and dances.

CAIN SISTERS—Versatile musical maidens who play a number of different instruments, and who are especially proficient on double xylophones.

ROUNDING ROUND IN THEATERS

The old comedy favorite "Peck's Bad Boy," which the grown-ups of today liked so well when they were children, and which the children of today will like even more for the reason that the comedy is not antiquated, but has been brought up to date by the well known writer of many song successes, Irving Berlin, who has interpolated the modern songs of today and the latest devices in the way of laugh-provoking incidents.

The title role is in the hands of Jacque Baum who has signed a long term contract with the producers.

The engagement in this city is for all next week at the Capitol, opening Sunday.
