

STIRRIN' the DOPE

By VEDDER GARD

FOOTBALL players and fans are not the weatherman and his copious outpourings of rain. This is the hunting season and the ninjas are anxious for some dry, crisp days. One can't very well tramp through ankle-deep and knee-deep mud—not even the most enthusiastic.

Reports coming into the State division of fish and game indicate that quails and rabbits are more abundant in Indiana than for years. There are also plenty of wild ducks.

The open season on quail started on Nov. 10, but as yet there has been little opportunity to hunt the birds. Dec. 20 is the last day quails can be bagged.

Nov. 10 also marked the start of the open season on the fur-bearing animals: Fox, opossum, raccoon, skunk, muskrat and mink. It is unlawful to trap without the written consent of the owner, occupant or lessee of the land.

Traps must be inspected within thirty-six hours. There is also a law against digging out fur animals or forcing them out with smoke or chemicals.

There are no bag limits on rabbits or squirrels. The limit for a day on quail is fifteen, and ducks, the same.

Every person, except soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the Civil, World War, Spanish, Philippine wars and in the regular service must have licenses to hunt. They are procured from clerks of the circuit courts or Department of Conservation for $1.

ACROSS THE BOARD TODAY

Well, we got by Friday, the thirteenth, in fine shape. In fact, some change was picked up mainly because of the big place and show odds on Mr. Popo. That horse was a 22 to 1 shot that finished second, paying for a $2 mutuel ticket $14.30 to place and $5.70 to show.

Christmas Morning won and Al Stetler was third. Mainstream was scratched. Little Jimmy was out of the money and the parlay of Six Sixty and Ten Sixty was no good when Six Sixty was fourth.

Today we will play MISS HUME in the second at Lexington, $5 across the board and HATS UP in the third the same way. CARTAIN GUARD in the fourth is so close to our name we must try him $2 win, place and show on the hunch. The "ka" have it in the last two races and we will invest $10 win, place and show in a parlay on KIBLAI KHAN and PRINCE K. There's a good wager for the K. K. K.

MAISON surprised on Thursday and is in with a feather today. So $5 win, place and show goes on that one. In the big race we'll endeavor to pick a long shot to beat the good ones. PRINCE HAMILTON is only ninety-seven pounds up and we'll try him $5 across. Hope this Saturday is another like last week when we had eight winners. It doesn't cost anything to hope.

By Times Special

IOWA'S TEST

Hawkeyes Invade Gopher Camp in Home-Coming.

By Times Special
MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 14.—Neighbors who have viewed each other askance over their back yard fence since football started flying early in the fall were ready to have it out here today. Iowa climbed the fence and stood defiant in Minnesota's back yard.

The day of the battle dawned foot ball perfect. The temperature was moderately snappy, but there was promise of comfort for the 45,000 home-coming fans expected to witness the game. The gridiron was in excellent condition after a dry week.

Iowa was to be represented by her best strength, Nick Kutsch, reputed to be the flashiest player carrying Iowa colors since the days of Aubrey Devine and Gordon Locke, was expected to be in the starting line-up. He has not played for three weeks.

Minnesota was reported less fortunate with three regulars nursing hurts.

TECH AND MANUAL WINNERS

Shortridge Puts Up Stubborn Defense Against Green and White Plugues.

Technical and Manual High School football teams were victors in Friday games while Broad Ripple lost. Tech defeated Shortridge in the second of the city series games, 14 to 0, while Manual upset the dope and downed Broad, 9 to 6, using a pass attack to advantage.

Westfield was too strong for Broad Ripple and overwhelmed the suburban club, 46 to 9.

Out at Irwin Field, Shortridge battled Tech, but the strong Green and White team could not be denied and made two marches for touchdowns in the second and third quarters. Baley and Clark went over. Baley kicked both points after touchdowns.

Hockett, Shortridge freshman half, was spectacular on defense. Technical is undefeated in State prep circles. Shortridge lost both its games in the city series. The first game between Manual and Tech, each of whom has defeated the north siders, is scheduled for Nov. 25.

Higgs was the big noise for Manual at Broad, and it was his line passing that accounted for the Red and White touchdown. Harmon went over. In the last quarter Higgs kicked a field goal to win the game.

Westfield scored in every period against Broad Ripple at the Ripple grid. All of the losers' scores were made by Powell, who scored a touchdown and field goal.

100,000 Fans Strive for 34,000 Seats in Chicago—Dartmouth Aims for National Title.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Coach A. A. Stagg, "grand old man" of western football, was the most abused man in Chicago today as 100,000 football fans who wanted to see the Chicago-Dartmouth game this afternoon found that Stagg Field had room for only 34,000 spectators and that every seat had been sold for a fortnight.

Blame for inadequate seating arrangements in Chicago had to be placed somewhere by the football-mad populace and Stagg, who is usually an idol, suffered the brunt of the attack.

Plans for a spacious stadium at the University of Chicago are under consideration, but that didn't help the situation today and ticket scalpers were offered an almost unbelievable price for the few ducats that they were lucky enough to obtain a few days ago.

The day dawned crisp and cloudy, but there was virtually no threat of rain or a strong wind. The playing field was in good shape and conditions were believed to be just about ideal for Dartmouth's passing attack.

Chief interest in the Dartmouth-Chicago game centered in the fact the big Green team from New England will lay claim to a national championship if Chicago is smothered. Dartmouth is the only important team in the East that has not been defeated.

Grid Quiz

QUESTIONS
1. What was the change made relative to the rule covering clipping over that of 1924?
2. What are the rights of the referee when he believes a team is purposely stalling to prevent a possible defeat?
3. If a player on defense insists on shouting signals as the caller of signals on offense is doing the same, hoping to mix him up, what is the penalty?

ANSWERS
1. In 1924 the penalty for clipping was loss of fifteen yards from the spot where the ball was put in play or from the spot of the foul at the option of the offended side. This year it is definitely covered by a more drastic punishment, the loss of twenty-five yards from spot of foul.
2. If in the opinion of the referee such tactics are being pursued, he shall warn the offending side once and if offense is repeated, forfeit the game to the opposition.
3. Ordinary penalty is fifteen-yard loss; for flagrant conduct the same loss of yards plus disqualification.

Dives Over Interference to Snare Man With Ball

Football is a strenuous game any way you look at it. This picture was taken during a game between the University of Southern California and Santa Clara. Santa Clara lost, 29 to 0, but this Santa Clara tackler who dove clear over the U. S. C. interference to get his man cut off one gain, anyhow.

Ray Hahn to Box Red Herring

Ray Hahn, local junior welterweight, will step up into the top notch class of bout in Toledo, Ohio, Wednesday night, Nov. 18, when he clashes with Red Herring over the twelve-round route to a decision.

Herring, who hails from Dixie, is a veteran of experience and highly regarded in ring circles. He is a claimant of the junior welterweight championship.

It will be an important bout for Hahn and he is in hard training for the encounter. Herring has met many prominent lightweight and welterweights.

Henry Bowser, who manages Hahn, said today that the Toledo promoter expected to fill his hall when the Hoosier and Southern scrapper meet.

SIKI OUT-POINTED

By Times Special
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 14.—Leo Anderson, New York light heavyweight, got the decision over Battling Siki in twelve rounds here Friday night. The bout was slow.

With Ferndales

Jack Bennett

BACK in the harness after a long absence caused by injuries, Jack Bennett, half back, will join in the game for the Ferndales against the Hartford City A. A. at Washington Park, Sunday. It will take all of the local strength to combat the invaders and Ferndale followers anticipate a thriller struggle. Kick-off at 2:30.

ROSE POLY AND INDIANA

By Times Special
ELCROMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 14.—The Crimson planned to use straight football only in the clash with Rose Poly today.

The coaches did not intend to uncover trick plays prior to the Purdue game next week and indications were that second string players would be given a chance to bear the brunt of the battle.

NEAL SIGNED

Ferndales Bolster for Big Sunday Encounter.

Manager Nelson of the Ferndale gridgers announced today his team is all set for the important clash with the Hartford City eleven at Washington Park Sunday.

Neal, former Washab and Washington Jefferson tackled, has been added to the local squad and his presence is expected to bolster defense and offense. He is one of the best independent gridgers in Indiana.

Neal will be at one tackle and Carmen at the other, and this combination looks all-powerful. According to close followers of Sunday football, Neal and Carmen are the strongest tackles in the State.

Hartford City has strengthened and will come well-supported with backers. The contest is scheduled to start at 2:30 and the largest crowd of the season is expected to turn out. Former college stars will be sprinkled in the line-ups of both teams.

'VALLEY' GRID

Missouri-Oklahoma and Nebraska-Kansas Aggies.

By Times Special
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 14.—Before a home-coming crowd of some 12,000 football fans at Columbia, the Missouri eleven this afternoon was to try to take the measure of the Oklahoma team in the former's march toward the Missouri Valley conference championship.

Both teams were reported in excellent condition and a game full of thrills was expected. Missouri, by virtue of a no-defeat record so far this season, was the favorite.

At Manhattan the Kansas Aggies were to entertain a home-coming throng with the Nebraska eleven as gridiron guests. The present Aggie team is the strongest in the school's history, according to football observers.

Weather conditions were favorable at both Columbia and Manhattan.

STATE THREE-CUSHIONS

Ben Klein defeated Lee O'Connor, 50 to 44, in eighty-four innings Friday night at Cooler's parlors in the State three-cushion billiard tournament. It was Klein's fourth straight victory. Klein was accurate on the "natural" shots and made up for O'Connor's greater brilliance.

YALE IS FAVORITE IN CLASH

2 to 1 Offered on Bulldogs Against Princeton in Annual Classic.

By Henry L. Farrell,
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 14.—One of football's oldest classics, known for more than half a century as the battle between the Bulldog and the Tiger, was to be played again today, when Yale and Princeton met in the second of the "Big Three" games.

Yale was overwhelmingly the popular favorite of the thousands that swarmed into the city this morning from all directions and in all kinds of conveyances, and those enthusiasts who wanted stronger identification than a blue ribbon were offering 2 to 1 that Princeton would lose.

The athletic association estimated that 75,000 would see the game. Princeton was to start the same team that ran all over Harvard last week, and Yale was to depend upon the players that gave the Army a sound drubbing several weeks ago.

SAFE YOU'RE OUT!

By Eddie Ash
THE mayor-elect is having a "sweet" time picking his starting line-up for the kick-off Jan. 1. Looks as though some of the eager candidates will have to stay on the side lines. Evidently it's a case of "too many coaches spoil the team."

Some Illinois enthusiasts propose to run Red Grange for Congress. Evidently they want him to carry the bills.

THE SEASON IS NEARLY OVER. BUT NO ONE HAS THOUGHT OF FILLING THAT OLD ONE ABOUT RED DOING THE "GRANGER TWIST."

Jim Foley, Syracuse captain, is called "Shrimp," and the name is especially fitting for this season of marine football.

Wayne (Big) Munn once put wrestling on a "higher plane," according to the praise agents, but apparently the plane collapsed.

Song hit for the day: "When the Political Plums Turn to Green Apples in Indiana-polish."

THE MAYOR-ELECT IS SAID TO BE AN ARDENT RACE HORSE FAN. MAYBE THAT EXPLAINS WHY HE IS JOCKEYING HIS APPOINTMENTS.

The political pie for some is just one piece of crust after another. Oh, well, some of the boys got their pictures in the papers, even if John did change his mind.

HOOSIER TO MEET TRIMBLE

Lockhart, Evansville, to Box on Harter Card—Program Nearly Filled.

The Washington A. C. fistic card of four ten-round bouts was completed today by Matchmaker Harter when he signed Joe Lockhart, Evansville 138-pounder, to go the route with Kewpie Trimble, 138, the willing mixer of Chicago.

Trimble and Lockhart will appear in the first ten-round conflict the night of Nov. 23 at Tomlinson Hall, and they are expected to supply plenty of action. Other ten-round scraps arranged are:

Happy Atherton, Indianapolis, vs. Jimmy McMorris, Terre Haute; ten rounds; 115 pounds.
Merle Alto, Indianapolis, vs. Joey Klein, Milwaukee; ten rounds; 126 pounds.
Louie Lavell, Anderson, vs. Al Wagon, Cadillac, Mich.; ten rounds; 135 pounds.

A four-round bout to open the program will be signed Monday, which will make the affair a program of forty-four rounds. Promoter Harter says he is confident the show will give one of the best staged from the standpoint of aggressiveness on the part of the performers.

Early demand for tickets has been encouraging and Harter hopes to build the event into a sell-out.

Boxers slated to appear who are new to Indianapolis are Al Wagon, Joey Klein and Joe Lockhart, all said to be real punchers.

By Times Special
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 14.—Home-coming fans began pouring in to Lafayette early today for the clash between the Boilermakers and the Purple-clad crew from Northwestern.

80,000 AT COAST GAME

Washington and California Clash for Pacific Title.

By Times Special
BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 14.—The Pacific coast football championship was to be decided on Memorial field here today between the University of Washington football eleven and the University of California Bears.

With clear weather predicted, more than 80,000 people were expected to witness the game. Neither team has been defeated this season.

TECH VS. N. D.

Kilts of Carnegie Invade Camp of Rockneites.

By Times Special
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 14.—Notre Dame celebrated its annual home-coming today with Coach Rockne's charges meeting Carnegie Tech, a likely-looking squad from Pittsburgh.

There were 2,000 seats still to be sold a few hours before game time.—the first time this has happened at Notre Dame's home celebration in three years.

The teams were in good shape, but Notre Dame's strength was reduced by the definite announcement that Capt. Clem Crowe would be out of the line-up, due to injuries.

The death Friday of James Powers, freshman, cast a pall over the campus. Powers was hurt in football practice, scrimmaging ten days ago. His neck was broken when he made a flying tackle. He was 19 years of age and his home was in Chicago.
