No. 7—Phyllis Haver, Neil Hamilton and Beanie Love in "New Broome," opening Sunday at the Palace.

Make the Pirate" at the Circle, beginning Sunday.

The Circle will have a novelty in "The Melvito Phanto Revue," an accomplishment in illusion.

Reginald Denny in "Where Was I?" will be the chief movie event on the new bill at the Colonial.

The Ohio will feature Adolphe Menjou in "The King on Main Street," a comedy with a famous cast.

Gloria Swanson in "Stage Struck" comes to the Apollo for the week.

Emil Seidel and his orchestra will be heard in a new musical program.

Jack Hoxie will open Sunday for four days at the Isis in "Two Fisted Jones."

Errol makes debut as photoplay star

Leon Errol makes his debut as a screen comedy star in "Clothes Make the Pirate," the first National production, which comes to the Circle Sunday as the Thanksgiving week attraction.

Errol is widely known as a stage comedian, having been featured for several years in musical comedy productions, among which are "The Prince of Pilsen," "Ziegfeld Follies," both the stage and screen versions of "Sally," and he is now being starred in the Broadway production, "Louie the Fourteenth."

Errol, whose collapsible legs have brought him fame and fortune on both the stage and screen, is seen in his first starring picture as a timid little Yankee tailor in the days of 1750, completely dominated by his shrewish wife, of whom he stands in great terror.

of the Ziegfeld Follies two seasons ago.

The program will also include the orchestral overture, played by the Circle Concert Orchestra under the direction of Bakaleinikoff, the Circle news, a Circle comedy and a novelty Thanksgiving film.

DENNY FEATURED AT THE COLONIAL

Reginald Denny will be seen at the Colonial as the Thanksgiving week attraction, starting Sunday, in his latest starring vehicle, "Where Was I?"

Chester Conklin, Lee Moran, Otis Harlan, Pauline Garon, Marian Nixon, William Turner, Tom Lingham, Arthur Lake and James Corrigan all contribute to the general comedy of the piece.

Large numbers of elaborate sets were used in the filming of this picture. An entire interior of a mansion was built, a subway was constructed and a whole wing of an office building was put up. Six automobiles were completely wrecked and a taxicab was incapacitated for all future use.

The story concerns the troubles of a young man trying to find out where he was on a certain date. Lee Moran and Chester Conklin, two of the screen's funniest comedians are the ones who help him on the search.

Miss Garon plays the part of the lay plotter and Miss Nixon has the role of Denny's sweetheart.

An added comedy feature will be "Kick Me Again" in which Charles Puffy who looks to be a successor of "Fatty" Arbuckle is starred. An Aesop Fable and the current Colonial-International News will be the other film features.

The American Harmonists have arranged an unusual bill of musical fare with novelty songs by Bob Jones and Floyd Thompson and a ballad by Frank Owens, with the latest jazz number and semi-classics for the picture setting. Miss Julia Niebergall in addition to piano selection will be heard in a musical monologue.

MENJOU TOPS CAST OF FILM COMEDY

Adolphe Menjou, the ace of screen dynies, is seen in one of his favorite roles at the Ohio next week, when he plays the part of a pleasure-loving beau brummel of a King in the photoplay attraction, "The King on Main St."

Menjou has the support of three of the most talented actors in the films in Greta Nissen, the Scandinavian "find" of a few months ago, of Oscar Shaw, also broke into pictures in Wm. Randolph Hearst's "The Gay White Way," and of Bessie Love.

Others who appear in the picture are Joseph Kilgour, Edgar Norton, Mario Maperoni, Carlotta Monterey, Marcia Harris and Edouard Durand.

"The King on Main St." is based on the comedy hit of Broadway, "The King," Leo Dittichstein's suc-
