

STEPHENSON TO MAKE CHAIRSBecomes Common Laborer
at State Prison.By United Press
MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Nov. 24.—D. C. Stephenson, the man who is reputed to have made more than a million dollars through organization of the Ku-Klux Klan, today became a common laborer in the Indiana State Prison here.

Stephenson sentenced to a life term when found guilty of the murder of Miss Madge Oberholtzer, Indianapolis, has begun work in the prison chair factory.

Prison officials say it will be hard work.

At the same time Charles (One Arm) Wolfe, convicted of the slaying of Ben and Mary Hance, Muncie, and sentenced to life imprisonment began the tedious task of picking stray threads from completed garments in the shirt factory with his one hand.
