

BOY, 15, TO DIE IN 'HOT SEAT'

Supreme Court Denies Appeal of Young Slayer.

By Times Special
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—Fifteen-year-old Willie Cavalier is going to die in the "hot seat."

The "hot seat" is what Willie calls the electric chair.

The State Supreme Court late on Wednesday denied the appeal of his lawyers.

The boy had been convicted of slaying his grandmother.

Willie shot her, robbed her of $108, locked her body in a bedroom and went to a movie.

The only man who can save Willie from the "hot seat" is Governor Pinchot.

Thus it appears likely that the name of William Cavalier, 15, will be transcribed on the Pennsylvania records as the youngest person ever legally executed.

BANDIT LEADER SOUGHT

By United Press
LOGANSPORE, Ind., Nov. 24.— Police today are searching for Earl Oldfather, 23, leader of a gang of youthful bandits, who escaped from the county jail here Monday. Old-father was being held for alleged robbery of a local warehouse.

Gerald P. Nye

When Governor Sowle failed to fill Senator Ladd's place in the Senate, Gerald P. Nye, editor of the party organ of Non-Partisan political party raised a fuss that stirred the whole State of North Dakota. Now Governor Sowle has appointed Nye.

COFFIN FACTION NOT IMPRESSED

Say Councilmen-Elect Can't Cripple Duvall.

Leaders of the George V. Coffin faction of the Republican party today scoffed at reports that city councilmen-elect have the power to cripple seriously the administration of John L. Duvall, returned fugitive mayor-elect.

A report was current that councilmen-elect had warned Duvall they would refuse authorization of city bills the first pay day, Jan. 15, unless the runaway mayor-elect recognizes their city appointment recommendations.

Coffin men say Duvall would be able to obtain a court order directing council to make authorization.
Caucus of Republican councilmen-elect to choose a president will be delayed until Boynton J. Moore, a member, recovers from illness.
Moore, Otto E. Bartholomew, O. Ray Albertson and Walter R. Dorsett are deemed likely candidates.

DEMOCRATIC TRUSTEES

Three Appointed, One Renamed for War Memorial Board.

Three Democrats have been appointed and one reappointed as Indiana War Memorial trustees, Governor Jackson announced.

New appointees are: William L.
Elgler, Indianapolis, successor to Evans Woolen; Dr. C. R. Bird, Greensburg, successor to Cornelius O'Brien, Lawrenceburg, and Miss Permelia Boyd, Scottsburg, who succeeded Mrs. Charles McCord, New Albany. Robert R. Batton, Marion, was reappointed. Appointments effective immediately are for three years.

She was assisted by the Maen-nerchor, a male chorus which sings without accompaniment. The unaccompanied male voices were well blended; no voice outstanding from any of the rest, or no part outstanding from any of the other parts.
Karl Reckzeh of Chicago, the director, should receive quite a bit of commendation for his work.

The male choruses sung by the Maennerchor are: "Du bist die Ruh," "Heidenroslein," and "Ungeduld," by Schubert; "Widmung," by Schumann; "Allerseelen," and "Zielung," by Starus; "Somni

Can Send 'Gobbler' Through Mail

If the fond parents on the farm down home have a fat twelve-pound turkey they want to give you, let them send it by parcel post.
It will be safe.

Dead turkeys, whether fully dressed or not, can be sent through the mails, said A. B.
Mundelle, superintendent of mails today. One requisite is that the fowl must not be sent so far that it will spoil.

The package containing the turkey must bear the address of the sender and must be marked "perishable" to insure immediate delivery.

CONFESSES TO CRIMES

Man Gives Self Up at Terre Haute; Tells of Local Shooting.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 24.— Accusing himself of murdering an Italian in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1922, staging several hold-ups in Brooklyn thereafter and of shooting a man in Indianapolis last Sunday night, Joseph McVeigh, 29, called police Monday night from a hotel with the request that he be arrested.

Police placed little credence in his story.

Indianapolis police have no record of any shooting Sunday night, as described by Joseph McVeigh at Terre Haute.

DRIVERS HEED SPEED WARNING

Arrests Take Slump Despite Activity.

Motorists evidently heeded the warning against speed, sounded when forty-nine motorists were arrested over the week-end. Monday night only seven drivers were charged with speeding.

They were Daniel Eckler, 26, of 248 N. Capitol Ave.; H. D. Davis, 26, of 502 Warman Ave.; Eldon N.
Trusler, 28, of 651 E. Twenty-Third St.; Archie Freeman, 27, of 2111 Morgan St.; Truman Everett, 33, of 1349 S. Belmont Ave., and Lee Murphy, 24, of 2201 N. Alabama St., and M. B. Ellis 34, of Plainfield, Ind.

George Entwistle, 42, of 5257 N.
Keystone Ave., was held on charges of failure to stop at a boulevard and after an accident.

Two other drivers violated traffic laws police say.
