

SYNCOPIATION TO HOLDS BOARDS IN TIMES PROGRAM

Schepp's New York Orchestra to Play for Radio Fans Friday Night.

There will be lot of popular music turned loose upon the air Friday night when the Indianapolis Times broadcasts another program.

Schepp's New York Orchestra, a warm playing dance orchestra with an eye to novelty presentations in melody, will have the honor of presenting the orchestral part of the program.

This orchestra plays at the Shanghai Tea Garden at the Hotel English. They will begin playing exactly at 9 p. m. Friday over WFBM, Merchants Heat and Light Co., from The Times studio in the Hotel Severin.

Schepp's organization is mighty hot on the syncopeated melodies of the day. They sure do make a fellow want to step 'em off.

The Paramount Four, the quartet which represented Indianapolis at the sectional quartet contests held by the Keith-Albee circuit, also will appear on this program. They have arranged a fine program of song. This quartet will appear at Keith's during the week of Dec. 6.

Al Hoffmeister, who knows how to stage a minstrel show and knows how to put over a song, will sing a group of songs, including some of the popular songs of the day.

Hoffmeister is a well-known entertainer and radio fans have asked to hear him.

Hoffmeister is singing, Raymond Cork, well-known pianist, will be at the Baldwin Grand.

Here is another real radio program over WFBM as arranged by the Times.

Pianist Will Play for Singer

Raymond Cork

While Al Hoffmeister is doing his song numbers on The Times radio program Friday night, Raymond Cork will tickle the ivories. Cork knows his piano.

MANY WORDS HANDLED

Report for Year Is Made to Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The Army Signal Corps net, composed of some sixty radio stations, handled 8,383,823 words during the past fiscal year, almost twice the number transmitted last year.

Had this business been conducted over commercial wires, even at Government rates, it would have cost the Government $155,697, according to Brig. Gen. C. McK. Saltzman, chief signal officer, in his annual report to the Secretary of War.

Prize Quartet to Broadcast

The Paramount Four, Indianapolis quartet which represented this city to such fine advantage in the district quartet contest held at the Keith-Albee Theater in Cleveland, Ohio, some time ago, will have a prominent part in The Times' radio program Friday night over WFBM, Merchants Heat and Light Company, from the Severin.

In the quartet are Paul L. Walters, C. C. Lloyd, William T. Pearey and Robert A. Halter. The singers appear at Keith's Theater here during the week of Dec. 6.

RADIO PLAYS PROVE POPULAR

Little Theatre Society Is Complimented.

Praise for the weekly radio programs broadcast by the Little Theatre Society of Indiana, each Friday night at 8:15 p. m. over WFBM, the Merchants Heat and Light Company station, was contained in a letter from Tom C. Polk, director of public relations of the Merchants Heat and Light Company, to John B. Reynolds, president of the Little Theatre Society.

The Little Theatre programs have consisted in short plays which require about twenty minutes to broadcast. Thus far three plays have been broadcast. Plans call for the continuance of this program through the winter months.

Polk's letter in part:

"I do not think that we have had anything on our program that has pleased the radio listeners as the contributions of the Little Theatre Society. We have had scores of telephone calls from Indianapolis, telling how much these programs have been enjoyed. Most of these calls have come from shut-ins, invalids, the blind and others who could not avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing your programs in any other way."

This Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Berliant will present a skit, "Please Pass the Cream," by C. N. Holmes.

STUDIO GOSSIP

When the curtain rose on the last act of "Solid Ivory," which opened at the Central Theater, New York, before a crowded house last Monday evening, Graham McNamee, one of WEAF's popular announcers, and heard through WSAI, made his debut on the legitimate stage. The scene depicted a thrilling baseball game between the "Hyenas" and the "Blue Sox," and McNamee in his most imitable manner described each play before a "dummy" microphone. While McNamee appeared only on the opening night, his place before the microphone throughout the further run of "Solid Ivory" will be assumed by A. V. Ludlow, one of WEAF's pioneer announcers, and more recently with WGBS and WMCA.

Nov. 8 a special program was broadcast from WBBM, Chicago, to listeners in Hawaii. Charles J. Willett of Lahaina, Maui, H. T., who has been a regular listener of WBBM, arranged this test, and the following morning a cablegram reported perfect reception of the Hawaiian program for a period of one hour, the program being received by Mr. Willett and a large group of friends. These Sunday broadcasts are being arranged with other countries. The next Sunday program will be for New Zealand, broadcasting Nov. 30, during the season of the Nutty Club, between the hours of 2 and 4 a. m. These programs will continue to be broadcast at regular intervals to different countries in which WBBM has been heard, and as fast as arrangements can be made these programs will be put on as a regular feature from WBBM.

"Confessional," by Percival Wilde, and "The Spained Ankle," by John Stokes, originally scheduled for Friday, Nov. 13, will be presented instead Saturday, Nov. 28, at 8 p. m. from WEAF by the Irvine Players. These two one-act radio plays run the gamut of human emotions with young New York professional actors under the direction of Theodore Irvine, dramatic instructor. "Confessional" is the story of a man who is tempted for the sake of his family to accept a large bribe to say in court "I don't remember" when his superior, the president of the bank, is to be tried for misappropriation. The man's firm stand, in spite of the protests of his family, makes an intensely dramatic situation which, should go over well on the air. The cast of the play will be George Blackwood, Virginia Bauer, Glenn Mahannah, Margaret Mosier and Clinton Parker.

Violet and Vivian Kiser, twin sisters, Lafayette, Ind., who have many friends in Indianapolis, will make their radio debut Saturday evening from station KDKA, Pittsburgh, when they will offer a program of vocal numbers between the hours of 7:30 and 9.

Concerts by the New York Philharmonic Society Orchestra, which will be broadcast in Washington during December, will be those of Dec. 5 and 19. The concerts are being held in Carnegie Hall, New York City and broadcast by Station WJZ of that city and relayed to WRC and WGY at Schenectady.
