

ALL PILOTS ON HAND FOR SPEED WIND-UP

Dave Evans, 'Maiden' Driver, Last to Reach Culver City for 250-Mile Race Sunday.

By Times Special
CULVER CITY, Cal., Nov. 27.—Dave Evans, "maiden knight of the speedway," was the last driver to arrive for the 250-mile auto classic that will be staged on the Culver City bowl next Sunday.

Evans is the owner of his own car. For many months he has been following the racing sport and covering the speedway circuit. He had Phil Shafer drive his car and appeared in the role of a mechanic until the Charlotte race, when he decided he was qualified to drive his own car.

Consistent Driver

In his first race Evans drove very consistently, although he did not go crazy and try to rub hubs with Milton, Hartz, Cooper, Hill Dury, Wonderlich and the rest of the wild boys of the racing game.

While the 1925 Speedway championship of the world already has been settled and no driver can dislodge Peter De Paolo, no matter what happens to the flying Italian in the final speed event of the year, the speed classic Nov. 29 will be a bitter battle for second place in the drivers' standing.

There are three drivers who have a chance to finish the year as the runner-up. Tommy Milton now holds second place to De Paolo and Bob McDonogh and Harry Hartz are third and fourth, respectively. Either Hartz or McDonogh can jump to second place by winning the coming 250-mile battle.

De Paolo Safe in Lead

Milton has 1,710 points to his credit, while De Paolo has the title cinched with a total of 3,260 championship marks. The winner of the Culver City meet will capture 500 points, and this would still leave Milton more than 1,000 points below the speedy Italian; but Milton is going to drive to win in order to hold his place next to the top.

Both Hartz and McDonogh have outpointed a great collection of stars and they are both keen on finishing the year in second place.

Earl Cooper, runner-up last year, is now in fifth place. By winning the Nov. 29 race at Culver City he can boost himself up one place; but the best he can hope for is fourth. Dave Lewis is now running sixth, and he can move up one place if he defeats the entire field. Otherwise, Cooper will retain fifth place for the year, even if he fails to score in the coming race.

CULVER BEATS ELGIN

By Times Special
CULVER, Ind., Nov. 27.—The Cadets of Culver Military Academy closed their grid season Thursday by defeating Elgin Junior College here, 20 to 0. Breckenridge and Bishop, were outstanding stars for the locals.

Culver held for downs on its four-yard line once. Bishop for Culver and Lawrence for Elgin made long runs.

FUMBLE BRINGS DEFEAT

By Times Special
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—A loose ball, bounding crazily for a moment over the slippery chalk-marked turf of Franklin Field, then clutched to the breast of an eager, scampering youngster in Red and Blue, gave Pennsylvania a 7 to 0 victory over Cornell Thursday.

Charley Rogers of Camden, N. J., was the lad who had his hand on the door-knob when opportunity knocked and it was he who snatched up a fumbled, bloated bit of "pigskin" and fairly flew forty yards for the only touchdown of what was otherwise an evenly waged and interesting holiday spectacle.

This deciding play of the game came at the start of the fourth period.

J. J. C. DRILL

Feeney Grooms Locals for Sunday Grid Game.

Coach Feeney of the J. J. C. football team is giving his huskies lots of work in preparation for the game with the Noblesville Elks Sunday at Pennys Park. Another workout will be held tonight at Indianapolis Park and Sunday morning the mentor plans to hold a final practice at Pennys.

Feeney expressed himself as far from satisfied with the showing of the reorganized J. J. C. against Ft. Harrison last Sunday, and is busy eradicating the weaknesses revealed in that contest. With plenty of veteran talent to work with it is expected the coach will get the grid machine adjusted properly to give the strong Noblesville outfit a real battle.

Manager Canning is being commended for his enterprise in securing the Elks for Sunday's attraction, as the Noblesville team is attracting attention, because of its record this year of having counted 236 points without being scored on.

H. S. GAMES

Shortridge Plays Tonight—Manual-Danville Saturday.

Manual and Shortridge High School basketball teams are busy over the week-end. The North Siders play their second game of the season at Shelbyville tonight. A special car leaving at 6 p. m. will take Shortridge rooters to the contest.

Holt, a football player, may get in part of the game at forward. McNaught is the choice for the other forward position, with Anderson at center and Christopher and Sims at guards.

The Red and White, which has won one game and lost one, is at Danville on Saturday night. The grid players will join the squad next week. The probable line-up at Danville: Boswell and Marshall, forwards; Shaw, center; Rhodes and Brandt, guards.
