

CITY AT WORK AFTER HOLIDAY

Quiet Thanksgiving Is Generally Observed.

Indianapolis today resumed brisk business operations after spending a quiet Thanksgiving holiday Thursday.

Downtown was deserted practically all day, people choosing to spend the day indoors because of the slow drizzling rain. Institutions generally observed the day.

Never before was such city-wide Thanksgiving observance held in the churches.

Needy persons were cheered by gifts from more fortunate individuals and organizations. Hotels, clubs, and restaurants served special dinners with entertainment. Both El Sisterhood gave a dance at the claypool.

SIX SEIZED IN STATE RAIDS

Prohibition Agents Busy on Thanksgiving Day.

Federal prohibition agents from Indianapolis, in three Thanksgiving raids near New Albany, Ind., arrested six men and seized four stills.

Price Hoard, S. W. Felock and Louis Heffer were charged with operating two seventy-five-gallon stills in Greenville Township, Floyd County, of which New Albany is county seat. The agents also seized twenty-five gallons of moonshine whisky, fifty-five barrels of mash and 400 pounds of corn meal.

At Floyd Knobs, Ind., the officers seized a 200-gallon still. They arrested Wayne Lyons, tenant on the farm of John Fischer, and Joseph Martin, operating the still. Twenty gallons of illicit whisky were found.

At Little Fork, Ind., Leslie Cravens, operating a twenty-five-gallon still, was arrested. Four gallons of liquor were seized.

NINE DRIVERS FACE CHARGES

Five Alleged to Have Exceeded Speed Limit.

WOMAN AVOIDS AN OPERATION

Awful Pains and Misery Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I want to tell you how your medicine has helped me. For weeks I suffered with awful pains from inflammation and I was in such misery that I had to bend double to get relief. I could not be touched or jarred, had awful pain all over my abdomen and could not touch my feet to the floor. It was impossible for me to straighten up and the pains never ceased. I took medicines for some time and finally was afraid I would have to have an operation. I had read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I told my husband I would try it before I gave up. I soon began to feel that it was doing me good. The awful misery began to leave me, also the backache. I have a good appetite and am gaining in weight. Taking this medicine was the best thing I ever did. I feel like it has saved my life and I do not hesitate to say so to my friends. It has saved me from a dreaded operation and I am still taking it."—MRS. ETHEL THURSTON, 384 North Pine St., Lima, Ohio—Advertisement.

BANS 'CELLULOID TOYS

Inflammable Playthings Are Banned By English.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—A drive is being conducted to ban all celluloid wearing apparel and toys. These inflammable articles are dangerous and accidentally ignited. A child's rattle, in the form of a celluloid parrot, was lighted to show the danger of toys made from this substance. The burning toy poured forth a flame eighteen inches long for forty-five seconds and shot out pieces of burning material. Men who wear celluloid collars, beware!

GIRLS HAVE LIBERTIES

Magistrate Warns Man Not to Curtail Daughter's Entertainment.

By NEA Service
LONDON, Nov. 27.—A Willemsen magistrate reproved a father who asked that his daughter's "young man" be summoned for blacking his eyes. The father remonstrated with the daughter because she did not return home until 11 o'clock, and the young man interfered. The magistrate informed the father that under daylight saving 10 o'clock was not late and that he must not unduly curtail the liberties of a girl of 18.

"ROAD HOGS" TO BLAME

LONDON.—Road hogs are held responsible for the greater per cent of all British auto accidents. Smash-ups due to other causes are infrequent, and it is believed more cure on the part of drivers will reduce British traffic accidents to a noticeable extent.
