PROSPERITY OF U. S. ASSAILED

Speaker Says We Are Most Indifferent People.

Despite American prosperity, as a people we have become careless in meeting the challenge of life and strikingly negligent of our laws, declared Elwood T. Bailey, San Diego, Cal., banker, at the Y. M. C. A. Big Meeting at English's Theater Sunday afternoon.

"We are the most superficial and indifferent people on earth," Bailey said. "We throw away more money for luxuries than most nations spend for necessities. Last year we junked $2,000,000,000 worth of automobiles," he asserted.

G. F. Morgan, Los Angeles, will speak at next Sunday's meeting.
