LISTENERS TO HEAR ENGINEER

Local Body Will Enroll New Members.

Broadcast listeners of Indianapolis are invited to a meeting of the Broadcast Listeners Association Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the Severin. "Interference, Sources and Prevention" will be the subject for discussion. A radio engineer will also talk on "Design and Development of Radio Apparatus." Herbert A. Luckey, president, will report on the radio conference held recently in Washington. A report on the rapid growth of the National Broadcast Listeners League will also be made. Associations have been formed in Terre Haute, Ft. Wayne, Portland, Decatur, Greencastle, Kokomo and Frankfort.

A city-wide membership drive will soon be started by the association's executive committee. Five prizes in radio equipment will be awarded members of applications.

BAPTIST WOMEN TO MEET

Women of Woodruff Place Baptist Church will give a pageant preceding a breakfast of the Baptist Women's Society at 11:30 a. m. Tuesday at Emerson Avenue Baptist Church. A trio will provide music. Miss Mayne Goldberg will speak on "The Philippines."
