TAKES LIFE WITH GAS

Coroner Paul F. Robinson today investigated death of James Edwards, 76, living at the home of Mrs. Alice Van Zant, who died at the city hospital late Monday from the effects of gas inhaled Friday.

According to police Edwards' nephew told them that when he went to arouse his uncle Friday he found the door locked and all the windows stuffed with rags. Police forced the door open and found Edwards on the bed with a piece of rubber tubing that was connected with the gas jet in his mouth.

According to relatives Edwards had been in ill health for nearly four years.

Puzzle a Day

The radio has fans from every walk in life. One of the most enthusiastic is Governor Blaine of Wisconsin.

On the day his last set was two years old, he purchased a new one. When he paid for it, he used two-thirds of the cash in his wallet. But he had left one-ninth as many pennies as he formerly had dollars, and as many dollars as he previously had pennies.

What did Governor Blaine pay for his new radio set?

Last puzzle answer:

The name of the new serial is "Spinsterhood" and the author's name is "Virginia Swain." In the first circle commence at the letter "D," count clockwise and take out every fifth letter. In the inner circle take out "V," then, starting at "N," repeat the first procedure.
