

TIMES' RADIO PROGRAM TO BE 'ALL STAR'

Talent Recognized All Over Country Will Broadcast.

ANNOUNCER MOVIE STAR

Two Orchestras Scheduled to Play.

An "all-star" radio program will be put on the air Friday night by The Indianapolis Times over WSBM, Merchants Heat and Light Company, from the studio at the Severin.

Talent recognized not only in Indianapolis but by the whole country will be on this great program starting at 9 p. m.

The "all-star" radio cast will be as follows:

Miss Fritz Ridgeway, movie and vaudeville star.

The Indianapolis Larks, a corking good orchestra, composed of George Jaeger, Harry Duncan, Charles Haug, Lawrence Koester, Dallas Lunday and Paul Hackett. Albert J. Baskerville is the soloist of this Indianapolis orchestra.

Raymond Cork, pianist who made such a tremendous hit with radio fans on last Friday night Times' program. George Shuman will be the soloist for a part of Cork's program.

Emil Seidel and his Apollo Theater Orchestra, in fifteen minutes of Irish music, with Charles B. Lines as soloist.

These artists will present the "best program" on the air next Friday night. The ability of each group is well known.

Seidel and his orchestra will rush to the Times studio from the Apollo to put on the air some Irish tunes. This is done as a compliment to Tom Melghan, movie star, whose picture, "Irish Luck," comes to the Apollo soon.

The Indianapolis Larks is a unique organization in musical circles because three of its members are on the city fire force. George Jaeger is on the salvage corps, Harry Duncan is at headquarters and Albert J. Baskerville is at station No. 23.

Raymond Cork, pianist, and George Shuman, soloist, will jazz up the come with their playing and singing.

As guest announcer, Miss Fritz Ridgeway, movie star, and in private life the wife of Constantin Bakaleinikoff, director of the Circle theater, will have a role not new to her. Although she has never broadcast in Indiana, she has done a lot of it on the Pacific coast.

Miss Ridgeway will find time to give a little talk on the important topic, "Hollywood and Those Who Work and Play There."
