

AUTOMOBILE OVERTURNS

Butler University Former President Narrowly Escapes Injury.

Thomas C. Howe, 30 Audubon Pl., former Butler University president, narrowly escaped death or serious injury Thursday when his automobile overturned on State Rd. 1, near Kokomo.

Howe's car overturned when he drove into a ditch to avoid striking two machines which had collided. He was shaken up.

SHIP DISPLAY PLANNED

Exhibits for Children to Be Held at Central Library.

Miss Carrie E. Scott, head of the children's work at the Central Library, announces an exhibit of ship and boat models in the children's room during January, in connection with books for children on ship building and seafaring stories.

A number of the models have already been located, but the library is asking the public to lend many more kinds of models from the gallery-type to the latest in steam-boat construction.

DRUG STORE HELD-UP

Police Investigate But Fail to Find Any Trace of Bandits.

Police investigated a hold-up at a drug store at 2477 S. Meridian St., early Thursday evening, but failed to find any trace of the bandits. Mark Jett, in charge said two men entered the front door and pointed guns at him. One remained at the door while the other came back into the store and took $50 from the cash register. Police believe the men might be two of the three bandits who worked extensively on the north side recently until a filling station operative fired at them Monday night. He is thought to have wounded one of the men.

WOMAN IS INJURED

Said to Have Been Struck By Auto—Driver Arrested.

Leathel Wiggins, 30, colored, 411 Indiana Ave., was injured and taken to the city hospital late Thursday night, when she was struck by an auto at New York St. and Senate Ave.

Patrolman Pearsey reported that the woman was walking across the street when struck by the auto driven by Steve Rapia, 818 W. New York St., husband of Mary Rapia, professional bondswoman. Rapia was charged.

ALLEGED THEFT ATTEMPT

Employee and Special Officer Say Man Tried to Take Auto.

Alonza Forscha, 1301 Hoyt Ave., is held in city prison today under a vagrancy charge while detectives investigate.

Forscha was arrested late Thursday after Merlin Woolen, 920 King Ave., special policeman at the Link Belt Company, and Roy Nuttall, 203 Dexter Ave., a employee, alleged they watched him start to drive away in an auto owned by Robert McCracken, 27 N. Tremont Ave., another employee.
