

WHO WILL GET BRYSON'S JOB QUESTION NOW

New May Shatter Precedents and Reappoint Present Postmaster.

Appointment of a postmaster for Indianapolis for the next four years is a question that is causing much interest in Indianapolis—political circles as well as in Washington.

Politicians are at loss to account for the fact that nothing has been done up to this time toward appointing a new postmaster or the reappointment of Robert H. Bryson, who is now swinging into the last lap of his four-year appointment.

It is the general opinion that Congressman Ralph Updike will have the honor of appointing the successor to Bryson. Others, however, nod their heads and say that Postmaster General Harry S. New will shatter political precedents and make the selection himself.

And if he does, it is thought that Bryson will be reappointed. There is much in favor of Bryson's reappointment, politicians say.

He is an experienced man, has handled his place in an efficient and able manner and will do just as well for another term, they say.

Around the office of M. Bert Thurman, internal revenue collector, where Republican political talk holds forth, nothing is known.

"We'd like to know just what is going to happen," is the response to the question.

Bryson, himself, is on the question list. He doesn't have any idea of what the procedure or final results will be.

"I haven't heard a word," Bryson said. "I hear now just returned from a hunting trip in Michigan. I may get some information before long. I still have about forty-five days to serve."

Bryson's term expires Jan. 18.

NO WOMEN FOR HIM

For Fifty Years This Man Lived Alone.

By Times Special
OLD WINDSOR, Eng., Dec. 4.—Not once in the fifty years during which he lived alone in a six-room cottage here did William Pritchard, who died at the age of 90, allow a woman to cross his threshold. It is believed that the old man, who was known as the Hermit of Old Windsor, was jilted about seven years ago when he was a soldier in "The Values."

Rheumatism

Aching Joints
Lumbago
Neuritis

With applicator attached to cork, just brush "Heet" over the pain area, whether in hands, shoulder, feet, legs, back, neck or body. Instantly, you feel this harmless, glorious, penetrating heat draw the pain right out of the aching or swollen joint, muscle or nerve. Besides, "Heet" scatters the congestion and establishes a permanent relief.

"Heet" contains two soothing, penetrating ingredients, too expensive to use in ordinary liniments or analgesics. "Heet" is a clean, fragrant liquid; doesn't stain, blister or irritate the skin. Druggists guarantee each 60-cent bottle.—Advertisement.
