

ALL-STAR BILL ARRANGED FOR TIMES PROGRAM

Artists Known All Over Country to Broadcast, Starting at 9 p. m.

Get ready to tune in over WFEM, Merchants Heat and Light Company, at 9 tonight as The Times' All-Star radio program begins at that time.

For its first All-Star program, the Times from its studio at the Hotel Severin will assemble artists not only known in Indiana but over the entire country.

Promptly at 9 Miss Fritzi Ridgeway, famous movie star, will step before the microphone to announce the All-Star artists.

The great program will be as follows tonight:

1. Introduction of Fritzi Ridgeway as guest announcer.

2. Charles B. Lines, soloist at the Apollo theater, singing "My Wild Irish Rose."

Novelty Song

3. Charles B. Lines singing a corking novelty song which recently registered so well at the Apollo, "Down by the Winegar Works."

4. Introduction of a radio favorite, Raymond Cork, player of popular songs.

5. Introduction of the Indianapolis Larks, a new but fine dance orchestra, playing "Mighty Blue."

6. The Indianapolis Larks playing "Brown Eyes Why Are You Blue?" greatly requested number.

7. Albert J. Baskerville, soloist for the Indianapolis Larks, singing "When the One You Love Loves You."

8. The Indianapolis Larks playing

Appears Tonight on Air Bill

George Shuman

The Times tonight will present George Shuman, a soloist of songs of the day, over WFEM, with Raymond Cork at the piano. It is a safe bet that this team will become favorites on Times' programs.

a group of two numbers, "Angry" and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," a request waltz.

Hollywood Story

9. Fritzi Ridgeway, because she is a movie star, knows the inside of Hollywood. She will tell you about your movie favorite for a few minutes.

10. Introduction of George Shuman, singer, in a group of songs of

Charleston Barred at Hoosier Club

YOU can't dance the Charleston at the Hoosier Athletic Club. Not only has the architect warned that the dance is dangerous to the building, but the entertainment committee has said nix.

Some of the young members persisted, it is said, and were asked to leave the floor. One membership card was canceled.

Says a bulletin by the club:

"For those who object to this particular rule, we advise or rather suggest that they join Mr. Lipps' gymnasium class, where plenty of opportunity is given to use up this 'pep' and 'ginger' in proper costume."

the day. Raymond Cork will be at the piano.

11. The Indianapolis Larks—playing "I Wouldn't Be Crying Now."

12. Albert J. Baskerville, singing "By the Light of the Stars."

13. The Indianapolis Larks playing a group of two numbers, "Red Headed Boy," a waltz, and "Midnight Waltz."

14. Raymond Cork will tickle the piano for several numbers.

15. Raymond Cork of the piano and George Shuman in songs.

16. The Indianapolis Larks playing "Silver Head" and "Sleepy Time Gal."

Here is a wonderful All-Star radio program.

FARMERS ORGANIZE

Danish farmers have become so convinced of the profit to be gained from farm accounts that they have organized into groups of about fifty farmers each who hire a man whose sole business is to look after the keeping and interpretation of the figures.

Apollo Singer to Be Heard

Charles B. Lines

Yes, sir, he sure sings 'em hot. Meaning that Charles B. Lines, soloist at the Apollo Theater, will warm up the air on The Times' radio program tonight.

FIFTEEN TO BE ARRAIGNED ON BANDIT CHARGE

Record Day Faced by Criminal Court—Klinck and Gentry to Appear.

When the last arraignment of the judicial term takes place Monday morning before Criminal Judge James A. Collins, fifteen men will answer charges of auto banditry, robbery and petit larceny. This is the largest number of persons arraigned on such serious charges this term, it was said. Efforts of local police to rid the highways of bandits is believed responsible.

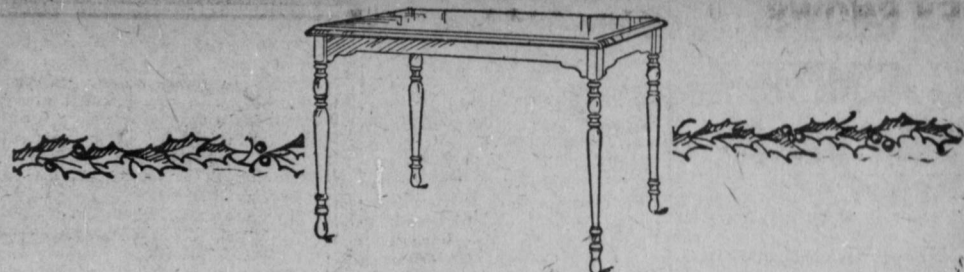

Those facing charges are: William Brinson, Artie Bishop, Charles Lewis, Charles Taylor, Robert Day, John Krookran, Melvin Butler, Vinard Drake, Ray Richey, Charles Rodger, Herbert Kimbrow, Nick Sandus, Damon Graham, Hubert Thising and Willard Hanna.

Earl Gentry and Earl Klinck will answer to the charge of conspiracy to commit arson. Indicted with the two were D. C. Stephenson, ex-Klan leader now serving a life sentence at Indiana State Prison for the murder of Miss Madge Oberholzer, and Fred O. Butler, Stephenson's former secretary, now a fugitive. The charge grew out of the burning of Stephenson's home in Irvington.

James Utley will answer the charge of murder. To date the names of sixty-three persons are on the calendar for arraignment. According to William Schaeffer, grand jury deputy, about thirty more names will be added before Monday.

LOCKS JUDGE IN ROOM

By Times Special
BRENTFORD, England, Dec. 4.—A man locked the judge and counsel of the Brentford County Court in a room at the top of a building. He was arrested and sentenced on a charge of contempt of court. The sentence was rescinded when the man apologized.
