 Republican Officials - Elect
Make Nominations at Caucus.

Whether Republican city councilmen-elect have adjusted their differences with Mayor-elect John L. Duvall, after Duvall's failure to recognize their patronage recommendations, was a subject of discussion among politicians today, following the caucus of councilmen Thursday.

The presence of William A. Boyce Jr., city clerk elect, who has declared warfare on Duvall, was considered as indicative that the breach has not been closed.

Walter R. Dorsett today said he did not know why Boyce attended the meeting and would not state whether the new council had adjusted its affairs with Duvall.

As has been expected, Boyton J. Moore, Sixth District, was selected as nominee for president at the caucus. Walter R. Dorsett was chosen president pro tem.

Committee chairmen chosen were: Finance, O. Ray Albertson; public works, Dorsett; public safety, Claude E. Negley; public health and charities, Dr. Austin H. Todd; public parks, Otis E. Bartholomew; law and judiciary, Dr. Todd; elections, Negley; city welfare, Bartholomew, and athletic commission, Dorsett.

Justus Paul, graduate athletic manager of Butler College, signed a contract today with the State board of agriculture for use of the Manufacturers' building at the State fairground during the coming basketball season.

All of Butler's intercollegiate basketball contests between Dec. 15 and March 5, are to be played there, with the exception of the time between Feb. 8 and 24, which has been leased for the automobile show. Negotiations are under way for staging some of the Indianapolis high school basketball games in the building.

The report also said that members of the board of public health and charities were entitled to the same protection.

Steps to combat the loss of patronage likely to be suffered by Ku-Klux Klan leaders through decision of present park board members to retain their positions were deemed likely for consideration at a Klan meeting tonight at the Calvary Baptist Church, Twenty-Third and Roosevelt Sts.

Clarence S. Elliott, exalted cyclops, and Harvey Bedford, a prominent Klan political leader, have been appointed parks superintendent and assistant, respectively, by Criminal

The board is supposed to name the superintendent.

Elliott was reported to have said at the last Klan meeting that he would have a large number of positions in the park department for members of that organization.

Charles A. Bookwalter, announced Friday he was in sympathy with the effort to compel Duvall to recognize the nonpartisan spirit of the park board law, but that ill health prevents his remaining on the board.
