

REAL SILK GETS QUARTER BLOCK

Property Purchased as Protection, Says Official.

Real Silk Hosiery Mills, 624 N. Noble St., has acquired one-fourth block at the northwest corner of Walnut and Noble Sts.

The property was purchased from six owners for a total consideration of about $50,000, it is understood.

Leasure L. Goodman, Real Silk secretary, said the ground was bought as a protection and a building is not contemplated, to his knowledge.

Fred Tucker and A. J. Huber, realtors, represented the parties in the deal.

BONDED DEBT REDUCED

City Controller Says Administration Has Paid Off $2,197,141.

Under the Shank administration the bonded indebtedness of Indianapolis has been reduced $2,197,141.57, Joseph L. Hogue, city controller, announced today. The sum of $371,410.39 was paid off during 1931. However, the record year was in 1924, when $1,204,359.37 was saved.

HOOSIER BRIEFS

MAYBE Indiana students have been writing too many letters home. Anyhow, the rush of mail has caused Blooming postoffice to put on a night force. Previously, the postoffice closed at night.

Robert and Charles Coughlin have repurchased the Marion Hotel at Marion. They formerly owned it.

Mrs. Herman Leimgruber of Bluffton knows what it means to get an "eyeful." Hot grease popped into her optic. She was badly burned.

L. O. Slagel is the new Legion commander at Bluffton.

Four Elwood banks have sent out $41,600 in Christmas checks.

Miss Martha Fray of Fishersburg was hurt when the steering wheel of her auto flew off and struck her in the eye.

New county infirmary at Tipton will soon be ready for occupancy. Carpenters are at work on interior woodwork.

As a result of a fall in which she injured an ankle, Miss Lizzie Moser, floor woman at a Bluffton manufacturing plant, is on the first vacation in twenty-nine years.

ISAAC HARROLD, Hartford City county commissioner, said that Zane Grey, the author, passed his farm recently in an auto, headed for California. The author had a large deer strapped on his auto which he had bagged in the Northern woods.

Evansville radio fans are having plenty of static. A mysterious buzz is ruining their programs, they say.

William Peters, farmer near Anderson, will be more careful around corn shredders. His hand was mangled in one.

Ralph Snell has no desire to see the fire wagons run any more. An Anderson truck wrecked his flivver.

COLLINS RULING CITED

Move Made to Quash Charges at Richmond.

By United Press
RICHMOND, Ind., Dec. 10.—Special Judge Lumpkin was to rule today on the legality of search warrants involved in sixteen liquor cases in court here.

Attorneys for the defendants filed a motion to dismiss the charges on the grounds that the search warrants were illegal.

They cited recent decisions of Judge Collins in Criminal Court at Indianapolis in dismissing booze cases because of faulty warrants.

DIRECTORS FOR BOARD

Election Held By Real Estate Organization—Reports Given.

Glenn B. Ralston, Thomas E. Grinslade and Frank L. Moore, are new directors of the Indianapolis Real Estate Board.

A gain in all departments was shown by annual reports at a meeting Wednesday at Chamber of Commerce, according to Henley T. Hotel, secretary. A party for new and retiring directors will be held Dec. 17 at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

'KEEP PISTOLS HANDY'

Police Ordered to Make Chicago Safe for Shoppers.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Chief of Police Morgan Collins to make the city safe for the late Christmas shoppers today ordered all police traveling beats on the late watch to be moved up to the shift when most of the crimes occur. The order also recommends that revolvers be worn where they can be reached handily.

SAVINGS FIRM ELECTS

Prudential Savings and Loan Association has re-elected Bert F. Deery, president. Other officers: Beverly D. Brown, vice president; Lawrence J. Sexton, secretary; Leo X. Smith, attorney; Timothy P. Sexton, treasurer, and Robert E. Dinn, William D. Lalley, and Edward Sexton, directors.

OGDEN URGED FOR CONGRESS

Faction Would Have City Counsel in Race.

A powerful faction of Indianapolis Republicans today was exerting pressure on James M. Ogden, corporation counsel and Y. M. C. A. president, to make the race for Seventh district representative against Ralph E. Updike.

Ogden, one of Mayor Shank's chief counselors, played a greater part in the Duval election campaign than any other city hall leader and the insiders believe he will draw considerable Duval faction support for that reason.

However, he drew antagonism of certain corporations when he opposed a plan to donate a $1,400,000 Belt Railroad bridge across the new channel of White River.

Republican leaders said today Wayne Immanuel, secretary to George V. Coffin, Republican city chairman, will make the race for Center Township trustee instead of assessor, as had been thought.

ENGINEER WINS PRIZE

Pennsylvania Road Picks Indiana Employee's Essay.

N. A. Gibson, locomotive engineer between Jeffersonville and New Albany, Ind., was winner of a $10 prize for an essay on fuel conservation on railroads offered to employees by the Pennsylvania Railroad, Indianapolis offices announced today.

Next to wages coal adds most to railroad operating costs, the Pennsylvania says.

NEW KIWANIS PRESIDENT

Election Held at Annual Meeting of Club Wednesday Night.

Mervin J. Hammel former secretary, is new president of the Kiwanis Club. Election was held at the annual meeting Wednesday night at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Three tickets were in the field.

Others elected: Frank L. Montrose, vice president; R. P. Oblinger, treasurer, and Robert H. Bryson, Dr. E. L. Mitchell, O. B. Iles and Otto N. Mueller, directors.

MAN, 60, WITH "EVERYTHING OUT OF ORDER," FINDS QUICK AND WONDERFUL RELIEF

John B. Sanders, Indianapolis, Ind., Long Discouraged by Ill Health, Says He Found New Life in Todd's Tonic.

"I am a man of sixty years of age, and a hard working man at that. In the last few years I began to feel as though everything was out of order—stomach, kidneys, liver and nerves. I tried many so-called cures without results, and was beginning to despair of ever finding relief, when a friend suggested I try Todd's Tonic. To my great surprise, I found wonderful relief for all my trouble in a bottle of Todd's Tonic.

I bought three bottles, and let me tell you that the results that I obtained were wonderful. It surely made me feel better and I think it will keep me well. My heartfelt thanks to Todd's Tonic."—JOHN B. SANDERS, 3554 Graceland Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.
