

SUPER-RADIO PROGRAM TO BE UPON AIR

Times Assembles Group of Great Artists For Tonight.

Be ready to "catch" the Indianapolis Times super-radio program to-night over WFBM, Merchants Heat and Light Company, from the studio at the Severin.

Never in the history of radio in Indianapolis has such a program ever been assembled.

Here are the artists:
Ernest Ryan, violinist, known as the "Indianapolis Heifetz."

The Victor Herbert Ensemble, one of the finest orchestras ever put on the air, carrying the musical fame of this city all over the country.

The Mural Temple Chanters, singers known all over the United States.

Bertrand Orr and Dal Galbraith, soloists of the Chanters, in special numbers.

Al Hoffmeister, one of the most popular singers, is scheduled to appear in several groups of songs. He is trying to arrange his schedule so as to accommodate radio fans.

More than sixty persons will take part in this radio festival.

Have WFBM on your receiving set at a few minutes before 9, as this treat begins promptly.

Puzzle a Day

In this word puzzle all the letters are given, but only four are placed in the square. If all the letters are correctly placed they will form nine four-letter words, four horizontally, four vertically, and one diagonally. Can you complete this puzzle square?

Last puzzle answer:
The second racehorse owner shipped 12 horses south. The first sent twice as many or 24 horses. If the second sold three horses to the first he would have 9 horses left. While the first would have 24 plus 3 or 27 horses, three times as many as the second. If the first sold six horses to the second he would have 24 minus 6, or 18, while the second would have the same number, 12 plus 6, or 18 horses.
