

$50,000 WORTH OF CATS ENTER PERSIAN SHOW

250 Pedigreed Felines Loaf in Regal Comfort on Pillows.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Fifty thousand dollars worth of plump, feline mischief purred an overture today for the Chicago Persian society's annual three-day cat show which started at the Coliseum in conjunction with the Great Midwest poultry show.

Of the 250 pedigreed Toms and Tabbies that loafed in regal comfort on thick, soft pillows, none is worth less than $100. Two of the royal entries are "Princess Minnie Moo," a Tortoiseshell Persian owned by Mrs. James L. Murphy, Chicago, and "King Salmar," a Cream-Persian, the property of Mrs. Elizabeth L. Roland, Chicago. Each is valued at $1,000.

After prizes have been awarded covetous cat fanciers are expected to bid as high as $2,500 for some of the winners.

A neighbor of the blue ribbon pets of Chicago society folk was "Chinese Tom," an Oriental Persian from Shanghai, owned and entered by Benjamin Hooks, a Pullman porter, who was presented with the animal by an appreciative passenger on a transcontinental train.

In a separate corner of the coliseum annex where the show cats are exhibited is a group of wire cages reserved for alley cats.

The nondescript pussies gracing this section were salvaged from the streets or alleys of the big city. Some were entered by boys and girls who had to raid savings banks for the low entry fee. The cats are competing for the "Maude of the Eastland Cup."

GAMBLING CURB IS AIM OF BILL

Purnell to Act Against Slot Machines.

Times Washington Bureau
1222 New York Avenue
WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Fred S. Purnell, Attica, Ind., will introduce a bill prohibiting interstate shipments of slot gambling machines, or their parts, he said today.

The bill was introduced last year and reported favorably by the Judiciary Committee, but did not reach a vote.

"I am particularly concerned because these machines teach children to gamble," said Purnell. "Persons of more mature years can decide for themselves, but I don't want my boys or other people's boys taught gambling before they know what it is all about."
