

LAYMEN OF ALL SOULS CHURCH HOLD SERVICE

William J. Greenwood Talks on 'Liberty Versus Law.'

MAKING a plea for national and individual liberty as given to us by our fathers, William J. Greenwood of the Laymen's League of All Souls Unitarian Church, spoke on "Liberty Versus Law" at All Souls Sunday.

Yesterday was known as Laymen League day in the Unitarian Churches and the local league conducted the entire service Sunday morning at All Souls Unitarian Church.

"In this latter day," Mr. Greenwood said, "we find that groups have been formed for the restriction of the rights and immunities of individuals through intimidation of politicians through the balance of the voting powers."

"Among them are the Ku-Klux Klan and the fundamentalist groups. Today the Klan group holds the legislative and executive branches of our State government in the hollow of its hand."

"One of its former leaders was able to say 'I am the law in Indiana' and demonstrate that his statement was true. Some of the legislation enacted at the last session of the Legislature shows that Mr. Stephenson and church politicians worked hand in hand."

"The same man would today be representing the once great State of Indiana in the Senate of the United States were it not that he is temporarily detained in one of our state prisons, convicted by a jury of his peers of the murder of an exemplary and innocent young woman in an effort to satisfy his beastly lust."

"In at least one state of the Union there is on the statute books a law prohibiting the teaching of science in the public schools and colleges, when, in the estimation of any legalistic judges, this teaching conflicts with the teachings of the Bible. This makes of the government of the State of Tennessee a theocracy, the oldest and most outworn form of autocracy the world has ever known."

$2,713,850 IN ESTATES LEFT

Annual Report Made by Court Record Clerk.

From Jan. 1 to Dec. 10, 1,124 estates have been opened in Probate Court for administration with bonds amounting to $11,313,525, according to the annual report of John A. Weinbrecht, record clerk. Real estate listed amounted to $2,713,850.

Weinbrecht registered 916 estates less than $10,000; 164 more than $10,000; seventeen more than $50,000; eleven more than $100,000; four more than $200,000; two more than $300,000; one more than $400,000; three more than $500,000; one more than $600,000; one more than $1,000,000; three more than $1,500,000, and two more than $1,600,000.

There were 380 guardianships opened. Of this number 105 were for insane and infirm persons, 233 for minors and 11 for enlistments in the Army and Navy. Bonds to cover these estates were $533,872 for personal and $378,850 for real estate. The largest guardianship was $10,000.

There were 112 adoptions through the Probate Court. Weinbrecht said his statement does not cover all estates administered by the local trust companies and banks.

FOUR CARDINALS NAMED

By United Press
ROME, Dec. 14.—Surrounded with all the splendor of the papal court, Pope Plus held a secret consistory today and nominated four new cardinals of the Holy Roman church. The new cardinals were Bonaventura Cerretti, papal nuncio to France; Patrick O'Donnell, archbishop of Armagh, Ireland; Enrico Gasparri, papal nuncio to Brazil, and Alessandro Verde, secretary of the Congregation of Rites.

TWO SLAIN IN BATTLE

By United Press
RIVER FOREST, Ill., Dec. 14.—Bloodhounds today searched for William J. White, ex-convict, who was wounded last night in a battle in which James Johnstone, a fellow ex-convict, and Edward Pfloum, a policeman, were killed. The fight occurred in a tavern near here when two patrolmen tried to arrest White and Johnstone.

The two bandits have been sought since the robbing of a McHenry, Ill., bank of $18,775 on Oct. 24.

Another Wonderful Sale of Bright New DRESSES at $5.00

Our sale last Tuesday was the talk of Washington street. We now have prepared another event that will cause even more excitement when women see these dresses.

The five dollar sale last Tuesday aside from being one of our most successful dress events, showed us exactly what the women of Indianapolis want. We took particular notice of the dresses that were bought first—and we hurried back to New York that same night—searched the offerings of our favorite makers—and now we are ready with many more of the newest and most fashionable dresses that we have ever seen at five dollars.

Dresses that were made to sell at $7.95, $10.00, $12.50 and some at $15 will be the kind of values you'll get tomorrow at $5.00.

The woman or miss who wants to be ahead of fashion and at the same time secure a remarkable value is urged to be here just as soon as she can tomorrow morning.
