

PROPERTY ON CIRCLE SOLD

Terre Haute Concern Purchases Ground.

Sale of property at the southeast corner of Monument Circle and Meridian St., a part of the ground upon which the Continental National Bank Bldg. is situated, by Willoughby Walling and others to the Wabash Realty & Loan Company of Terre Haute, Ind., was announced today. Sale was made in accordance with terms of a ninety-nine year lease held on the property and gives entire ownership of the ground to the Wabash company.

The Wabash company, which represents the Crawford Fairbanks estate, is planning a $1,000,000 hotel in Terre Haute, also.

Owners of the bank building hold an option on the land, which they expect to exercise soon, it was said. The building has been in operation one year and is 98 per cent occupied. Klein & Kuhn, property management specialists, 706 Guaranty Bldg., represent the owners.

DEMOCRATS TO FIGHT FOR NYE

Minority Committee Report Is Drafted.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Democrats today decided to fight the denial of a seat to Senator Designate Gerald P. Nye, Republican, insurgent of North Dakota as recommended by the Senate Privileges and Elections Committee.

A minority report, favorable to Nye, was drafted by Democratic members of the committee.

The report will contend that the constitution of North Dakota gives the Governor power to fill all vacancies which are not specifically provided for by State law. In this case, the report will contend that the State constitution supersedes the seventeenth amendment to the Federal Constitution providing for senatorial elections.

DUVALL PARTY PLANNED

County Officials to Give Farewell for Mayor-Elect.

Mayor-Elect John L. Duvall and Mrs. Duvall will be honor guests at a Christmas party given by employees of the county treasurer's office and Barrett law department Thursday night at the Ben Davis Clubhouse. It will be a farewell party given by the county employees who have worked directly under Duvall. His term as county treasurer expires Dec. 31.

Mrs. Ina Stebbing is chairman of the arrangements committee. She is assisted by Misses Betty Shaw, Miss Alpha Thomas, Richard Vance, Rowland P. Rhodes and Joe Hillman. Special music will be provided by the Marion County State Bank Orchestra.

WOMAN ROUTS PROLWER

Discover Man Ransacking Bedroom—He Escapes.

Mrs. Marie Braughton, 2619 Allen St., reported to police today that she discovered a colored man ransacking her bedroom.

He escaped through the rear door of the house, she said. Lieutenant Klaiber and emergency squad investigated, but found no trace of the man.

FINED AND SENTENCED

William Grayden, 27, of 481 W. Thirty-Ninth St., in city court today, was fined $100 and costs by Judge Delbert Wilmeth, and given thirty days on the Indiana State Farm for operating a blind tiger. He also drew a fine of $15 and costs and thirty days for driving an auto while intoxicated and $10 and costs for drunkenness.

BUS PERMIT HELD UP

Because officials of the Blue Goose Motor Bus Line failed to comply with certain regulations of the public service commission, the bus line's application to operate "through" service between Indianapolis and French Lick was held up today by Commissioner Frank Wampler, pending compliance. Officials agreed to make no local stops between Bedford and Mitchell, where a local line operates.

TWO GIVEN TERMS

Irene Johnson, 538 W. Eleventh St., and Pete Stevens, 511 W. Washington St., were each fined $100 and costs and given thirty days on a blind tiger charge in city court today.

said that June 27, 1923, Thomas A. Heffernan and Lem Motlow, both of Tennessee and indicted, submitted checks and currency totaling $122,000 for the purchase of the plant.

David Nolan, head of the intelligence department at St. Louis, testified that he went to the distillery in September and procured records of the transfer.

Irving L. Jones, assistant treasurer of the Mercantile Trust Company, St. Louis, was on the witness stand when court adjourned.

Edward A. Miller, watchman of the witness stand, told that he was given a vacation from July 31 to Aug. 16, 1923, the time when the liquor is said to have been removed. He had applied for a vacation in May. He said he saw no indication that liquor had been taken out before he left.

Mrs. Remus Amused

All denominations are cooperating in the Good Will meeting tonight in the Cadle Tabernacle at which Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, noted New York pastor, will speak on "Better Understanding Between All Americans."

UNIONS BACK UP SUNNYSIDE

Join in Plea for Additional Building.

Central Labor Union urged additional buildings and equipment for Marion County Tuberculosis Hospital at Sunnyside in a resolution Monday night at Plumbers' Hall. Need for additional facilities is evident from the waiting list of the institution, the resolution said.

J. C. Shanessy, Journeyman Barbers' International Union president was admitted as a delegate. The organization withdrew three years ago when a fight developed over Klan issues.

Second Conference Set

State tax officials will hold a second conference with representatives of Indiana orchard men Wednesday in order to iron out differences arising over the new law assessing fruit trees as personal property. Suit is to be brought later in Knox County to prevent collection of the additional tax.
