

BOY'S SLAYING INVESTIGATED

Lad Caught Between Gun Men and Police.

By United Press
MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—Slaying of Donald Diment, 15, widow's son, believed to have been caught in the cross-fire between two retreating robbers and pursuing police, was investigated today. The boy was hastening home through an alley. Two bandits were being fired upon by police, who caught them raiding a meat market. The robbers were returning the fire. There was a groan. One of the policemen searched a fallen body for firearms and shouted to a companion officer that a bandit had gone down. The body was that of Diment.

SCUFFLE MAY BE FATAL

Old Gun Discharged, Wounds Youth in Stomach.

By United Press
BRAZIL, Ind., Dec. 15.—Earl Tibbets, 16, was injured seriously today by the accidental discharge of an old rifle. Earl was scuffling with his brother, Donald, 13, when it went off. The bullet passed through Earl's stomach and physicians hold little hope for his recovery.

Yes, Charleston Is "Fine"

By Times Special
LOCOMINGTON, Ind., Dec. 15.—Delta Gamma sorority here thought their house was too frail for the Charleston.

Phi Gamma Delta fraternity came to their aid and offered their house. In return, the girl in charge of the dance posted a sign, announcing that all sorority members who danced the Charleston would be fined $5. Five minutes after the dance started, every girl, but the one who posted the sign, was doing the forbidden hop.

PANTHER IS SUPPRESSED

Cover of Student Magazine Leaves Little for Imagination.

By Times Special
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—Suppression of the holiday number of the Pitt Panther, Pittsburgh University student magazine because of its cover design was revealed by school authorities today.

The cover bore a picture of a yawning co-ed seated on a divan. She was clad only in thin lingerie, the shoulder straps of which had fallen down, leaving little for the imagination. Nearby was a table with two empty liquor bottles and two empty glasses. Responsible parties may be punished, Chancellor J. G. Bowman, said.

Billy Has Fine Fur Coat, But He Likes His Sweater

Olive Johnston

When Billy Grove, as fine an Angora as ever owned his own sweater, desires to take the air, he purrs loudly, and condescendingly allow his little mistress, Olive Johnston, 12, of 2154 N. Delaware St., to accompany him.

Every fine day, these two go walking.

"Billy sleeps all morning, Olive's mother said, 'but shortly before 12, he invariably wakes up and begins to watch for her. He sits by the crack of the door, and knows her footsteps.'"

Billy loves an auto, and hugs the window for sights. He is widely traveled too.

"He's been all over the country," Mrs. Johnston said.

"In big hotels—lots of places," broke in Olive. "People everywhere like him and never object, wherever we take him."

Relieved His Rupture

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. I feared my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find complete relief without operation. If you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 317 M. Marcellus Avenue, Mansquan, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and dread of an operation—Advertisement.
