

C. OF C. LEADER TO AID SCHWAB

Reynolds Pledges Cooperation to Steel King.

John B. Reynolds, Chamber of Commerce secretary, today pledged co-operation to Charles M. Schwab, steel magnate, and Stutz Motor Car Company director, who Monday announced he was considering location of one of his industries here.

Schwab refused to divulge the nature of the industry. He said Indianapolis was ideally located and had many industrial advantages.

"Indianapolis certainly is wide-awake. I like the attitude here," Schwab said. F. E. Moscovics, Stutz president, was commissioned to make a survey of the situation.

"Mr. Schwab's attitude toward Indianapolis is appreciated. Interest of more men of his type would be a great benefit," Reynolds said.

Schwab conferred with Reynolds and Frank S. Fishback, Chamber president.

Schwab who was here to attend a Stutz dealers' convention left Monday night in his private car.

HUMANE SOCIETY DIRECTORS

Dr. C. F. Stout and Wayne Emmelman have been named directors of the Indianapolis Humane Society, it was announced today. They will serve two unexpired terms. Monthly business meeting of the society was held Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce.

CHECK CHARGE QUASHED

Another Man Admits Guilt and Is Sentenced.

By United Press
GOSHEN, Ind., Dec. 15.—Charges of issuing a fraudulent check pending in court here against Thomas Allen of Sturgis, Mich., was dismissed.

Devon Bussert, 25, of South Bend, confessed he wrote the check which led to Allen's arrest. A suspended sentence of one to five years in the Indiana State Reformatory was imposed on Bussert.

BIDS ARE ASKED ON SHORTRIDGE

Sale of High School Property Advertised.

The sale of Shortridge High School, Michigan and Pennsylvania St., was advertised today. Bids on property will be received by the school board Dec. 30.

In the advertisements, it is said that the site has been appraised at $637,000. The property may be sold in two lots or in its entirety, Business Director William H. Book said today.

One of the lots has 161.5 feet in Pennsylvania St., and extends east to the first alley, while the other section extends the remaining 258.5 feet in Pennsylvania St., to North St., and to the first alley east.

School Board members have asserted that sale of this site is necessary in order to carry out the board's building program.
