al Christmas happiness to, personally, this year, call The Times Santa Claus, Main 3500, ask for your family by number and the name and address of that family will be given you. Then you may visit the family if you like, to find out just what those youngsters are longing.

The families are dropped from the list as they are taken each day. The Times will not deliver any Christmas presents because you are to be your family's Santa Claus. The Times accepts "no families" names except from the Christmas Clearing House. Here are families to choose from:

29. A man with only one arm, and with a crippled hand at that, collects papers and junk to earn a living for his family. He works hard against this terrific handicap, but can't get ahead. There are two twin girls, 13, who need dresses, and a boy 6, who loves mechanical toys. The Family Welfare Society says this family can use almost any supplies that may be given them, of food or clothing.

30. Three boys, aged 7, 10, and 11, were left when their father died recently, and the mother has only a small amount of insurance. She would appreciate gifts for the boys, as she has no money for extras. Recommended by the Family Welfare Society.

31. A 15-year-old boy, suffering from a chronic illness, has been going to school when he can, and learning typewriting at night from a kindhearted instructor so he can work at it when he has to stay home. There is a 14-year-old girl. The mother, a widow, works in a factory. The Family Welfare Society says the boy needs a wool shirt and other clothing, and that any other gifts to this plucky little family will be appreciated.

32. A suit of clothes with long trousers for a 14-year-old boy, and some clothing for his mother, will relieve a definite need in this family of two, whom the Family Welfare So-

Out with the old, in with the new.

The old brick residence at 447 N. Meridian St. soon will be torn down to make way for the Indiana World War Memorial. For sixty-five years it stood on the south-east corner of Michigan and Meridian Sts. When bought by the county for the plaza it was part of the property of the heirs of John J. Holliday, who formerly lived next door.

ding, sheets and pillow cases. Gifts for the children and a basket with good food for the invalid as well are suggested.

41. Two babies, the older less than two years old, make it hard for this young couple to get ahead, especially since the father has been ill with influenza. Family Welfare Society suggests a basket of food and clothing for the older child.

42. Two boys, age 6 and 9, have few Christmas hopes but a good appetite for a Christmas dinner. Their father has been sick and can not work regularly. Family Welfare Society suggests a basket of staple groceries.

43. Both father and mother work when they are able, but there has been a great deal of sickness. The baby is just recovering from a serious attack. The older girls are 4 and 8 and the boy is 6. Family Welfare Society recommends a basket and clothing.

44. The father has just come home from the hospital and is still under treatment. He will not be able to go to work for sometime. The Family Welfare Society is helping them during the interval. The boys are 4 and 9. The girl is 12. A basket of food and clothes for the children are suggested.

RECOMMENDS IT TO HIS FRIENDS

"Pass it along to everyone if possible," writes Landon Taylor, Rochester, Iowa. "I hope it will help others the same as myself. Every morning I was dizzy and could hardly walk, but now I feel fine. I never thought the change possible in taking your pills."
