

STIRRIN' the HOPE

By VEDDER GARD

BASKETBALL fans who follow the high school games are so apt to forget that the players are just boys. In many communities over the State the stars of the various clubs are made heroes and their every move is given exaggerated importance.

The same pitiless publicity that falls to the lot of a national sport celebrity is focused to a lesser degree on many a prep basket player in Hoosierdom. It is a condition that cannot be changed, while human nature remains the same.

This is a nation of hero-worshippers, but the minute the athletic god slips a little from his great performances the public is as eager with its censure as it was with its praise and adulation.

This tendency makes it mighty tough on the boys in the glare of the limelight throughout this State. In a dressing room the other night at a high school gym one of the players said, "Why these folks around here tell me what I'm going to do almost before I know it myself. They tell me where I've been and where I'm going. And they tell me a lot of things I never even thought of. Wish they'd lay off of me."

That said a mouthful. But such a condition is bound to exist. And that's not the worst of it. The minute a team slumps a little all sorts of rumors are spread by malicious gossips who should be put in jail. The most absurd tales find some who believe them.

We have heard stories about two of last year's final tournament stars who were placed on a number of "all-State" teams which we know to be absolutely false.

Have a heart! Have a heart! They are just boys—no different from other average youths with a ball through a hoop and are able to dash through forty minutes of the most strenuous pastime better than the other fellow.

What's this? Notre Dame making plenty of points on the basketball floor and acting as though the players knew what it was all about—surely not! But it must be true. Three victories in three starts, two of them over Big Ten teams, Minnesota and Northwestern, is the record to date. But let's wait until after Friday night and see what happens when Iowa is met on the new floor at Notre Dame. It will be a real test. It will show whether the Notre Dame five is something to get excited about—or just another good Hoosier team.

Sure enough, Goslin is just a "Goose" as Earl Smith intimated many times in the last world series. The Washington outfielder parked his auto in a forbidden spot and was hauled into court in the Nation's capital for violation of the traffic law.

HOW does Tex Rickard get that way? The other night the New York sports promoter "opened" his new Madison Square Garden for the third time and for the third time it was jammed. The first event in the new sports emporium was the six-day bike race. Crowds thronged to see the pedal pushers go round and round.

The next "opening" of the Garden was the Berlenbach-Danney scrap. Another sellout. Then came the "official opening," with glittering ice as the lure which drew another capacity crowd to watch a hockey contest and see the fancy skaters.

Three sellouts in three weeks is it any wonder that behind that big perfect and through the smoke screen can be seen a large grin on Tex's countenance?

Some one told us recently we hadn't mentioned Red Grange, for several days and wondered what was the matter. In order not to disappoint any one we'll say this for Red—he lived up to his "contract" with Illinois, which ran three years. THEN he changed his affiliations. Get the idea?

One could convince Fletcher, Butler basketball player, that the sun is shining today. The former Shelbyville star was all ready to make the trip with his team mates to Iowa City Wednesday afternoon in the final practice Fletcher sprained his arm and Coach "Pace" was forced to leave him at home.

Now, on the other hand, "Doc" Summers is feeling mighty fine. He took the injured player's place. But just remember, Fletcher, the cards aren't usually stacked. You'll get a good hand later on—which will mean you'll have a good leg, too.

Everybody else in the Big Ten as an organization so the basketball and football officials are considering forming a union. At least it would be a chance to get together and talk about the coaches just like we mentors gather and regale them with the desert known as referee raspberry salad.

Rose Poly netters lost to Eastern Illinois Normal at Charleston, Ill., Wednesday night. The engineers probably didn't know her latest steps.

AIN'T it awful, Mabel! Harvey Snodgrass, sixth ranking tennis player in the United States, has turned professional and signed a three-year contract with a Culver City (Cal.) tennis club. No, this isn't the same Snodgrass that dropped that fly and lost a world series for New York. That was the work of an amateur, but he was getting paid good money for it.

Harvey is one of the first real tennis stars of the Nation to stand in a professional. The others point typewriters and turn in expense accounts.

Card Manager Admits He Knew Schoolboys Were in Milwaukee Line-up.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—The athletic board of control of the public school system next week will take action in the professional football scandal involving the Chicago Cardinals and Milwaukee teams and four Englewood High School football players.

Manager Chris O'Brien of the Cardinals and Art Fols, one of his players, told E. C. De Laporte, director of athletics of the public schools, that they had full knowledge of the fact that the four youths—James Snyder, Jack Daniels, Charles Richardson and William Thompson—played on the Milwaukee team in the game with the Cardinals last week.

Fols said he suggested the youths play on the Milwaukee team because the team did not have its full quota. There was no pay involved, Fols said.

Next Wednesday the athletic board will decide what action to take. It may protest to President Joe Carr of the professional football league and demand punishment for O'Brien. The four high school athletes may be barred from further participation in amateur athletics.

EAGLES WIN

Shelbyville Netters Beat Hoosier A. C. 43 to 39.

By Times Special
SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Dec. 17.—The Shelbyville Eagle basketball team defeated the Hoosier Athletic Club at the high school gym Wednesday night, 43 to 39. The game was one of the fastest and cleanest seen in Shelbyville for some time. The score was tied five times during the game.

Hennessey was high point man for the Eagles, with eight baskets, and Harnessey was best for the Hoosiers with five baskets.

Sam Kaufman, who is captain of Shelbyville, was in uniform, but owing to injuries received two weeks ago, was unable to play until the last three minutes. He was rushed into the game when the score was 39 to 39, and this steadied the Eagles, and they got two field goals in rapid succession.

WERNEKE WITH ATLANTA

Pitcher Sam Werneke, Indianapolis boy, who was obtained by the New York Yankees from the Milwaukee team last season, will be with the Atlanta team of the Southern Association next season.

Werneke and Joe Maley, another Yankee rookie, have been transferred to Atlanta in the deal that sends Frank Zoeller, outfielder, to Miller Huggins' club.

Baptists Beat Boilermakers in Over-time Last Season—Hawks Strong 'Irish' Foe—Other Games.

Two feature college basket games on Friday night are offered by Hoosier schools as Christmas presents to net fans. Just before the holidays Franklin invades the Purdue gym and Notre Dame plays host to Iowa in games that the Big Ten outfits may call pre-season contests, but which everyone knows are battles feared by the Western Conference clubs.

Fund Bout

The Franklin-Purdue tilt is one of the important State struggles of the season. Last year's scrap, which the Baptists won in an overtime period, proved to be one of the best ever seen at Lafayette. And Purdue seeks revenge.

Strong Point Makers

Both clubs this season have shown amazing ability to hit the loop. Purdue ran up 49 points against De Pauw, a team which on Tuesday of this week held Indiana University's sharpshooters to twenty points. Franklin counted 49 points against Earlham in its last encounter. Each team is undefeated.

And then there is Iowa at Notre Dame. Even a Hoosier must admit the Hawkeyes will be under a handicap in the South Bend contest after playing Butler tonight and then making the long trip for Friday's tussle.

Reports from Iowa state Coach Barry has very promising prospects for a powerful five, and this seems to be borne out by the early scores of the Iowa team, which already has as one of its victims one of Indiana's prides on the hardwood—Wabash.

N. D. Starts Fast

Notre Dame is getting excited about its team, which has won three games this season, including victories over Minnesota and Northwestern. Iowa will be the third Big Ten opponent, and the "Irish" followers are pulling for another triumph. The game appears to be a real test for Coach Keegan's aggregation.

Butler, on its western trip, plays Iowa tonight and Lombard at Galesburg, Ill., on Friday.

Other State games on Friday are: Miami at Earlham, De Pauw at Evansville College, and Rose Poly at Indiana Central, University Heights, Indianapolis.

MAXIE SCORES VICTORY

Solly Epstein, manager of his brother, Maxie, local bantam, today was elated over the showing Maxie made in a sensational ten-round scrap with Mickey Cone at Kokomo on Wednesday night. According to Solly, "Little Max" won the bout on points by scoring two knockdowns. The boys weighed in at 118 and supplied the Kokomo fans with plenty of thrills.

Hiawatha Gray, Indianapolis colored lightweight, outpointed Joe Hardy in eight rounds on the same card. Hardy outweighed Gray by eight pounds.

COLE SHINES WITH CUE

Sid Cole, Denver three-cushion expert, continues on his victorious way at the Claypool parlors. He won two more matches Wednesday, from O'Connor and Murphy. The visitor defeated Murphy, 55 to 35, in a matinee exhibition, and downed O'Connor at night, 35 to 19. Cole was to meet Martin this afternoon and Jones tonight. Exhibitions are free to the public.
