ENTERTAINMENTS WEDDINGS RETROTHALS

R. and Mrs. Walter F. More, 230 E. Pratt St., will entertain this evening with a dinner bridge in observance of their wedding anniversary.

Red candles in crystal holders will light the tables at which covers will be laid for Messrs. and Mesdames Bert Westover, Vern Murray, William Kellogg, R. L. Enoch and Emil Koehler.

Mrs. Walter A. Metzler, 2633 Napoleon St., will entertain this evening with nine tables of bridge. Christmas greenery and baskets of poinsettias will decorate the home. The table centerpiece will be a miniature Christmas tree on a plateau of snow and lighted on each side by red tapers in crystal holders tied with silver tulle. Appointments for the luncheon following the bridge party will be in keeping with the holiday season. Gifts will be distributed from a large decorated tree in the living room. Mrs. Metzler will be assisted by Mrs. Michael Wencle.

Mrs. C. G. Tyner, 950 N. Rural St., entertained the New Era Club Monday afternoon at the annual Christmas party. The business meeting was followed by an exchange of gifts and a party.

Mrs. Harold K. Bachelder, 1301 N. New Jersey St., entertained the American Legion Auxiliary Indianapolis post at a Christmas party Monday. Lighted and decorated Christmas trees were banked with gifts for the members. Poinsettias and red tapers tied with red bows decorated the dining room. Mrs. William W. Ward and Mrs. J. T. Couchman presided at the tea table. Mrs. Nathan Swain presented Mrs. Bachelder with a past president badge.

Mrs. J. M. Dalrymple, 1238 Park Ave., entertained the Woman's Research Club Monday for its annual Christmas party. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames J. T. Hellekson, William J. Ransdell, W. H. Kilman, A. M. Grossbrenner, J. P. Smith, Charles O. Britton.

Program included an original story by Mrs. Milo H. Stuart. Mrs. Walker Baylor sang several songs.

That I am both joyous and sad when I am with your children may seem strange to you, dear Leslie Prescott, but that it has been my privilege to know in John Alden Prescott, Junior, a boy who is every thing that my imagination and vision could conceive, has given me great joy. Will you let me say to you I have always dreamed that your oldest son would be loyal and loving to the biggest and most splendid woman I have ever known. But alas! I cannot help grieving a little because I am not the "mover" who is always the subject of his eulogy and that I know I could never be the mother of such a boy.

To have inspired in the heart of a child such a reverence, such love and loyalty as this boy has for you, Mrs. Prescott, must make you very proud as well as very happy. I know that Paula Perier is not big enough or good enough to be such an inspiration and that is what saddens me.

Children have an uncanny way of putting the proper value on character and they rarely make a mistake in those with whom they come in contact.

I am leaving New York tonight and I will not return until the day before we commence the picture. A letter to my attorney whose address is enclosed, will bring him in conference with anyone whom you choose to represent you in the buying and selling of the pearls.

I hope I shall see you when I return to Pittsburgh for you always make me feel that the world is better because you are in it.

Sincerely yours,

PAULA PERIER.

Telegram from Leslie Prescott to Paula Perier

Sent power of attorney to Mr. Whitney today. I am very glad you are going to have the pearls. I am going to do as you suggested and turn the money into a deed of trust for the two boys. I would not be doing a kindly or grateful action if I did not give that which you gave to little Jack.

Am glad you appreciate the wonderful qualities of my oldest son. Although I have never told anyone else I am going to confess to you that I have never seen a more stanch, beautiful or manlier a character. Please God, I may keep him as splendidly brave and devotedly loyal always.

LESLIE PRESCOTT.

JAUNTY SPORTS FROCK

An opportunity to make a smart wearable dress! Choose tweed, Polka twill, flannel, crepe satin or batiste. The interesting features of Design No. 2620—the boyish turnover collar and applied jabot which is stitched at center-front of dress just below the removable belt. After the side and shoulder seams are joined, sleeves set into armholes and collar attached, the dress is finished. Even if you have had any experience in sewing, it's possible to make it in an hour. Everything explained in detail with pattern. Cuts in sizes 16 years, 36 to 42 inches bust measure. The 36-inch size takes 5½ yards of 40-inch material with 6 yards of braid or binding.

written by Mrs. Stuart and Mrs. Cora Young Willes.

Mrs. Howard Galey, 2206 Ashland Ave., entertained today with a Christmas party for the Independent Social Club. The rooms were lighted by candles in crystal and brass holders. The Christmas colors were used to advantage in decorating.

Mrs. M. D. Didway, Mrs. Grace Lynn and Mrs. Walter F. More, played "Silent Night," on chimes. Miss Betty Williams, accompanied by Mrs. William F. Werner played violin numbers. A story "Christmas as It Used to Be," was read by Mrs. C. F. Bornkamp. "Welcome to 1926," was also given. Mrs. More sang "Bending O'er a Cradle Low." The program was followed by an exchange of gifts. Guests: Mesdames Frederick Polly, O. B. Ent, A. L. Thurstorn, B. F. Wilson, A. J. Clark, Anna Kealing, Adolph Thomas, H. W. Linabury, A. C. Ball, Indianapolis, and John Irwin, Champaign, Ill.

Miss Verda Bob Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Cooper Andrews, 2151 N. Alabama St., a senior at Western College, at Oxford, Ohio, has returned home for the holidays.

The annual Christmas party of the Welfare Club was held this afternoon. Besides distribution of gifts, a program of music and readings was given.

Mrs. Carl Lieber and Mrs. R. C. Huggins gave readings. Mrs. George Reeder sang Christmas songs. Miss Catherine Heard, accompanied by her sister, Miss Charlene Heard, Mary Case sang. After the program gifts of jelly and candy were given the women and pipes and tobacco were given the men. Mrs. William Bartlett was Santa Claus and Mrs. E. C. Wacker was Mr. Santa Claus. Forty-eight rockers, a table and ferns to furnish the sun parlor were given by the club.

The committee for the day included Mesdames Wacker, chairman; L. T. Dwyer, Herbert Grimes, Olin Hatton, J. Rees Wysong, George Christena, Otto Keller, Frank Malott, O. A. Hobbs, A. H. Shanesberger, H. B. Pearce, A. C. Zarling, E. L. Donahue and Nelle Geyer.

SERENADER TO PLAY AT BALL

Program Arranged for Children's Aid Dec. 28.

Mrs. Evelyn White, 237 W. McCarty St., Indianapolis.

POINSETTIA SALAD

Select the required number of small, firm, uniform sized tomatoes. Peel and chill. With a sharp knife cut them into eighths, beginning at the stem end, cutting toward the blossom end. Drain slices of Hawaiian pineapple from syrup in cans. Arrange them in center of individual nests of crisp lettuce heart leaves. With a sharp knife cut them into narrow wedge shaped pieces (pie fashion), leaving slices intact. Arrange the pieces of tomato, cut side down over pineapple, with stem ends toward center to simulate a poinsettia. Allow five pieces for each portion. Fill center with a large drop of mayonnaise and insert a tuft of yellow celery leaves in center. Pipe mayonnaise between red petals, using a pastry bag and a small rose tube for this purpose. If the following details are carried out, a most attractive holiday salad will result.

Mrs. M. H. Ruth, 2150 N. New Jersey St., Indianapolis.

ECONOMICAL APPLE PIE

Bake crust first. Place a layer of stewed apples in this. Make a filling of 1 cup sugar, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 cup water and vanilla to taste. Stir sugar and flour together until it looks like meal. Add water and cook until thick. Add flavoring and pour over apples in crust.

Mrs. Bert Cook, 2746 N. Chester Ave., Indianapolis.

Opera Fudge

Bolt together 7 cups sugar, 1 quart cream, 4 tablespoons corn syrup until the soft ball stage is reached. Stir all the time. Then pour into a pan from which cold water has just been emptied and add vanilla to taste. Let set without moving more than necessary until the pan is lukewarm on the bottom and a film has formed on top of syrup. Beat slowly until product loses its shine. Knead as dough until soft and creamy. Put it in a pan and cut as soon as through kneading.

Martha Lee's Column

Doesn't Play Fair

Dear Martha Lee: My husband wants me to go to him for eight months. I have a baby girl 17 months old. I have a baby boy 10 months old. The reason we disagree is that he wants to work and women and I stayed at home and did what was right.

BABY RUTH.

If you love him give him another chance. If you don't love him and want to be free, you have grounds for a divorce. If you divorce him, see that he contributes means for the baby's support. It is hard on your baby to grow up that way, even that is better than living in an atmosphere of parental disagreement and suspicion.
