

HIGHER PRICES MARKET'S GIFT FOR CHRISTMAS

Approaching Holiday Adds Impetus to Increases.

The approaching holidays added impetus to the rising prices today at the city market. Many fruits and vegetables were up and predictions are for further jumps. Artichokes were higher at 25 cents each; peas sold for 30 cents a pound; red grapes were in demand at 25 cents a pound; pineapples jumped to 50 cents each; cranberries rose to 30 cents a pound. Spanish malaga grapes were new and sold at 35 cents a pound; kumquats were up to 25 cents a box; and grapefruit were 10 cents each and 2 for 25 cents.

Chickens were on the upswing and many stands had fowls at 42 and 45 cents a pound. Eggs were cheaper and sold from 50 to 55 cents a dozen. Ducks were unchanged at 40 and 45 cents a pound; turkeys, 60 and 70 cents a pound; geese, 40 cents a pound. Celery sold at 10 cents a bunch; head lettuce, 20 cents each; California tomatoes, 35 cents a pound; home-grown tomatoes, 40 cents a pound; tangerines, 50 cents a dozen and brussels sprouts, 25 cents a box. Idaho potatoes were selling at four pounds for 25 cents, while sweet potatoes brought 10 cents a pound.

Christmas trees were scarce at 75 cents and up and many of the standholders predicted an acute shortage. Loose holly was practically all sold and the wreaths were priced at 25 cents.

All Christmas trees are shipped to Indianapolis from Maine and the usual quota of the city has been curtailed. This probably will cause the city market to run about 1,500 trees short for the season, according to the curb merchants.
