

NINE DRIVERS ARE SLATED IN WAR ON SPEED

One Caught by Police Chief
After Chase—Three Ride in Patrol.

In spite of the ice and snow covered streets, nine alleged speeders were arrested by city and county officers late Tuesday. Three were taken to city prison in the patrol.

One of the speeders Tuesday passed Police Chief Herman F. Rikhoff at La Salle and E. Washington Sts.

"Go get him, Andy," he said to Patrolman Clary, his driver. When the speeding auto was overtaken at Arsenal Ave., the chief said his speedometer showed seventy miles an hour. The driver gave his name as Edward Brooks, 19, of 1933 Barth Ave. When haled into court, Rikhoff admitted his speedometer might have been a little fast. Brooks was fined $15 and costs.

Booze Found
Sheriff Hawkins and his deputies caught a speeding auto on the National Road, near Cumberland. On searching the auto, they said they found five gallons of alcohol. Adam

Politicians Wonder if Duval
Will Come Across.

With Mayor-Elect John L. Duval silent, politicians today wondered whether their Christmas stockings would be filled with city appointments or whether the job Santa Claus would delay his visit.

It generally is admitted someone will succeed Heydon W. Buchanan to the board of safety and the name of Edward Trautott, merchant, loomed prominent today. Others considered as likely prospects are Broderick Elsey, Indianapolis Glove Company secretary-treasurer, and George Hilgemeyer, president of F. Hilgemeyer & Brothers, packers.
